

MISS LOUISE KEEFE MISS JACQUELYN GREEN
MISS KEEFE, of Cynwyd, was defeated by Mrs. Mildred Willard, of Merion, while Miss Green conquered Mrs. Powell, of Cynwyd, in interclub tennis matches

AN ENGLISH PETROL PERAMBULATOR. A nifty baby coach that runs four miles an hour on kerosene power, with a nurse as chauffeur

SAILS FOR THE ORIENT. Secretary Denby greeting officers on transport Henderson as he leaves with his family and members of the 1881 Annapolis class

SISTERS IN KNICKERBOCKERS. Miss Marguerita Doyle (left), and Miss Dorothy Doyle represented the Torresdale Country Club in the Philadelphia Women's Golf Championship at Huntingdon Valley

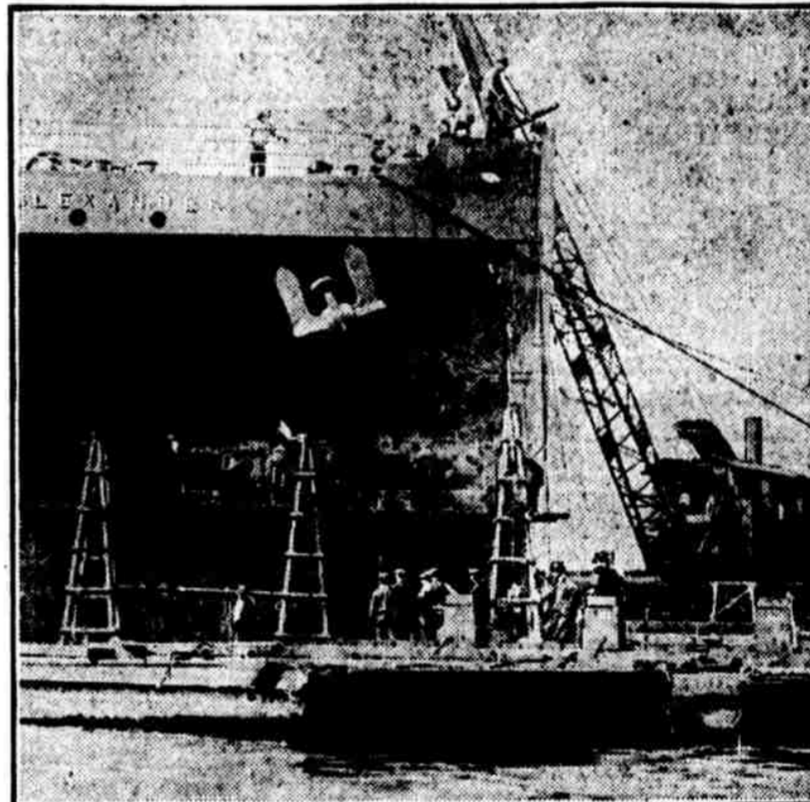

FIELD MARSHAL EARL HAIG accompanied King George to Belgium

MRS. MARY F. BLESSING, the youngest Gold Star mother in New York State, will assist in New York's Poppy Week, to aid sick veterans

SOME OF THE ANDREE WRECKAGE. Damage done to the British cargo ship when struck by H. F. Alexander off Fort Mifflin yesterday

REPAIRING THE H. F. ALEXANDER. Workmen were put to work as soon as possible yesterday to repair the slightly damaged plates on the ocean liner

IN VIRGINIA'S HISTORICAL PAGEANT. Miss Eleanor Beasley (left) representing the American Revolutionary period, and Miss Julia Urbine in Southern Confederacy costume of 1861

FLORENCE BEHR (left), and Miss Florence Weightman, aides at card party given in the Hotel Majestic yesterday by the Friday Card Events Club of Germantown

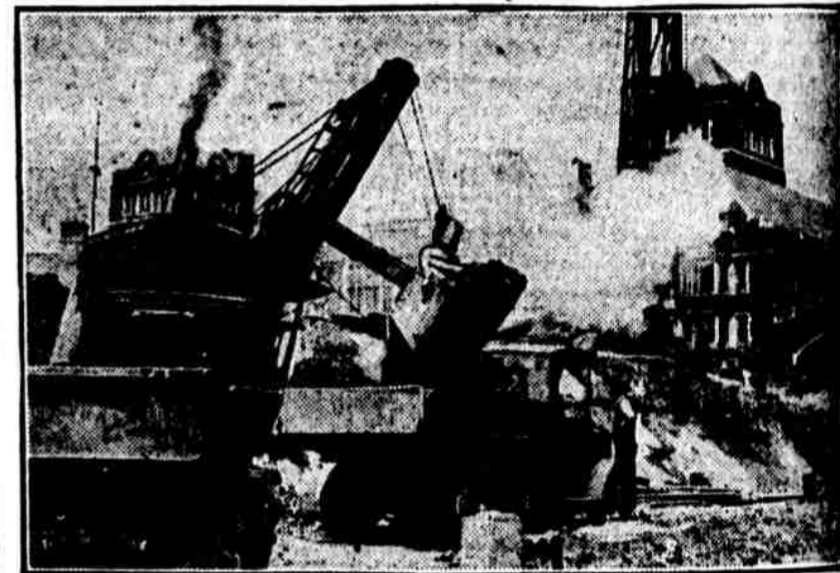

SENORITA RAMONA LEFEVRE, sister of Don J. E. Lefevre, of Panama Legation

AIDING IN ERECTION OF PHILADELPHIA LIBRARY. Hector McQuarrie (left), and Charles Masdow, handling 500-pound steel slabs

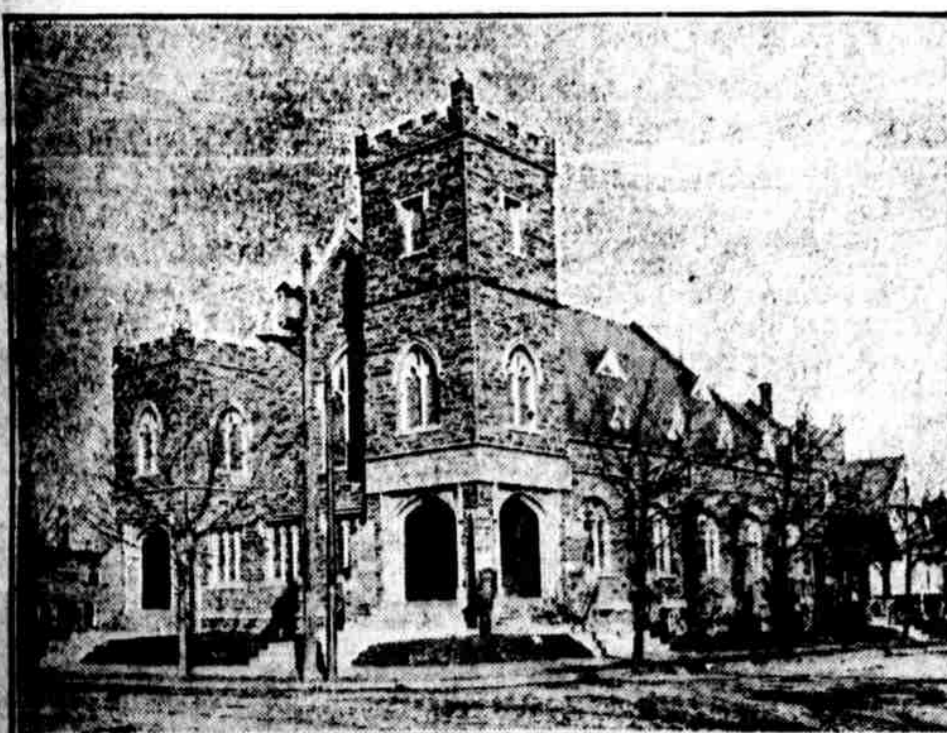

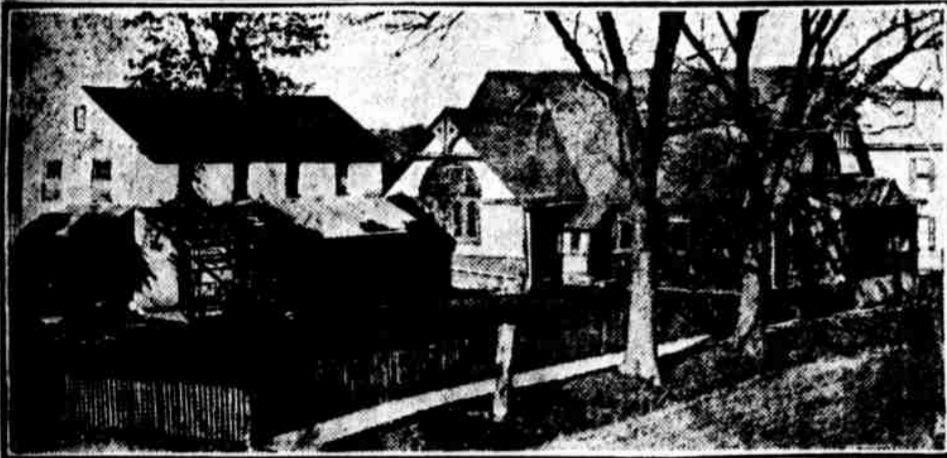

HOW THEY MAKE UP. Miss Mary Anderson, movie star, teaching Ethelda Bleibrey, the world's greatest woman swimmer, something about the movies. Others shown are Gertrude Morris and Hazel Zietz

STEAM SHOVELS and workmen are busy at Franklin Field as work is pushed for the new Penn stadium that will seat 55,000

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

THE MOUNT AIRY PRESBYTERIAN CHAPEL and its surroundings are shown in upper etching as they looked in 1885. On the same site, Mt. Pleasant street and Germantown avenue, the Mount Airy Presbyterian Church stands today. Both photographs were made by J. Warnock Kennedy, 7728 Norwood avenue, Chestnut Hill

SHIP HANDS PAINT SIDE of Norwegian steamship Erie, arriving from Southwark, England

WITH "HONEYMOONERS" CAST. Miss Anna V. Kelly and Jose S. Mann will give Apache dance at Broad Street Theatre under auspices Holy Name Union

JOS H. DEFREES, ex-president of U. S. Chamber of Commerce

H. S. MULLIKEN, new assistant to the Director of Mines

AT THE COUNTRY FAIR. It was held at the Germantown Cricket Club yesterday. Miss Polly Bayard sold balloons. The seller of hats is Miss Alice Van Lennep

MISS HAZEL SEIFERTH, 3353 N. Front st. (left), and Miss Kitty Spath, 2412 N. Front st., are in Kensington merchants' popularity contest. They aspire to be Queen of May Festival

GEN. H. G. GIBSON is oldest living graduate of West Point

HE'S 1923 CAPTAIN. Colebury, of Episcopal Academy baseball team