Hard floors and pavements everywhere! Just standing is a strain-every step is a jolt.

O'Sullivan's Safety Cushion Heels relieve this strain. Trim, tough, springy, they absorb the shocks that tire you out. A style for every type of shoe.

The price of O'Sullivan's to you is generally the same as the price of ordinary heels, in spite of the fact that they cost the repairman more.

Ask for O'Sullivan's when you leave your shoes -see that they are attached.

PICTURE WITHOUT ANIMALS LIKE EGG WITHOUT SALT

Some day some one will make a motion picture without an animal in it, but so far film makers have found it, but so far film makers have found invaluable the poignant appeal, clever tricks and hair-raising sensationalism possible by the introduction of SPEAR'S Gas & Coal Quite often human movie stars have to divide honors with dog, dove, goal, or tiger stars. Many animal actors Combination Range have "walked away" with pictures, as they say in studio parlance. It's sure fire stuff to have a close-up of a cat. dog, or pig in the proper place and directors are always looking for a chance to put animals in their pictures. In "Blood and Sand," Rodolph Valentino's first star picture, Fred Niblo. the director, had no choice in the mat-ter, however. There just had to be a buil. Bulls are a film novelty, but in the picturization of the Ibanez novel SUITS EVENLY SEASON provide a real kick. All Valentino had to do was to get out in front of the 1500-pound pet with a red cape. Dogs are most commonly used in pic-tures. At the Lasky west coast studio in one day recently a dilapidated Airedale licked the grease from a frying pan in a George Fitzmaurice picture, a St. Bernard lumberingly knocked over furniture and bric-a-brac in a chase after film kiddles, while "Pal." a famous canine actor, went through fhe dramatic business of rescuing from fire a child of "Borderland," a new Agnes Ayres picture.
