"LIZ" POWELL PICKED AS STENTON MANAGER

He Then Pitches Against Mount Carmel and Loses Decision in Close Game by Score of 7 to 6

FLEISHER IS BEATEN

By WILLIAM S. DALLAS
"LIZ" POWELL, well-known pitcher and basketball player, has been named manager of the Stenton Field Club. Powell has pitched in this capacity last night when he pitched the Mount Carmel team, but "Liz" was forced to howl defeat. The score was 7 to 6.

Powell is one of the leading pitchers in the semipro ranks. He has been with Stenton for years and twirled the Mount Carmel team to several pennants in the Suburban league.

He is also noted as a cage player of no mean ability and has seen service with nearly every team in the Eastern League. He did his best work with Germantown when Dave Bennis' team won the Eastern League pennant. He is also prominently identified with athletics in the Pennsylvania Railroad and is a member of the championship basketball five.

Four runs scored by Mount Carmel in the opening frame resulted in Stenton's downfall. Losses fielding with several timely hits accounted for the quartet of tallies. Stenton fought back hard and took the lead 6 to 5 in the seventh, but the visitors won the ball game with two in the eighth. Stenton outlast their opponents 7 to 6.

Some Records Spoiled.
A close study of the box score shows that some records were established. The Fox Motorists traveled over to "11" and Toga streets and at the end of seven innings had defeated Notwane 10 to 3. The game marked the first reverse of the season for the stocking makers. The motorists hit the ball like a sledge hammer and the St. Barnabas aggregation, and the Saints romped off with a 5-to-3 victory. Pitcher Harper outlured Perkins throughout. The feature for the winners was the playing of Joe Hogan. The West Philly High had scored two runs, rapped out a single and made two sensational running catches in left field.

The South Philly Hebrews suffered their initial reverse on the home grounds at Thirteenth and Johnson streets, against Yamaqua. Rube Chambers was on the hill for the Sphas, and was opposed by Dickson. Burnett, the visitors' second sacker, practically won the game. He accepted three great chances in the field, had four hits and the losers had eleven safeties to seven for the winners.

The Hatch Motorists and Nicetown played a great contest at Tenth and Butler, and the shades of night saw the game a tie at 3 all. Dick Flanagan had three singles, and it marked the fourteenth successive affair that he has hit safely for the motorists.

Philadelphia Terminal hit the offerings of Wender, of Marshall E. Smith, to all corners of the Tenth and Butler street lot and the store boys were beaten, 6 to 4. The fans were treated to a hard-fought game, nevertheless, which was featured by sensational work in the field, neither team making an error.

Fleisher Upset
The 'Fleisher Yarners are going great. But they all get stopped occasionally, and last night was one of those times. The North Phils with Sox Seibold on the hill against Gene Barrett, conquered the downtown yarners, 5 to 4. The Phils won in the eighth, when they tallied twice and a walk and balk were really responsible for Barrett's undoing. McNeill and Barrett, of Fleisher, each had four hits and the losers had eleven safeties to seven for the winners.

The Hatch Motorists and Nicetown played a great contest at Tenth and Butler, and the shades of night saw the game a tie at 3 all. Dick Flanagan had three singles, and it marked the fourteenth successive affair that he has hit safely for the motorists.

The fans were treated to a hard-fought game, nevertheless, which was featured by sensational work in the field, neither team making an error.

Fine Batting Practice
John Castle's Shanahan athletes enjoyed some fine batting practice with the Harry A. Mackey politicians, and when the game for rather six innings, was concluded the figures read Shanahan 23 and Mackey 1. The sole tally of the losers was a home run rap by Shortstop Shoyer in the final frame. The hit was featured by Shanahan. He had a double, then triple and finished with a homer. Catcher Harrigan also had a four-base wallop.

Bill Whitman gave Stanley Popolock a chance to show his wares before Birdsburg fans for the first time and he scored a 5-to-0 victory over the Donovan-Armstrong advertisers. The West Philadelphia had their best line-up of the season, which included such players as Maurice Rath and Rube Casman.

The South Phils put a stop in the winning streak of the Harrisburg Motive Power team, 9 to 3. The downtown sluggers got 50 harmed in the first four sessions for eight runs, which included a homer by Howard Lohr. The outstanding feature was the work of Pinner, the new addition to the South Phils' line-up. He accepted seven chances without an error, two of which were labeled for hits Spalding and Lohr featuring in the batting.

Dave Bennis' Germantown club suffered its second defeat when the Cuban Stars won, 10 to 6. The German-towners hit the ball as hard as the Cubans, but three errors by third-baseman Bateman put Pitcher Black in the hole at the start.

Lit Brothers met Barrtram Park in the first home game of the store boys and Barney Slaughter's team was beaten 4 to 2. "Stew" Harkness was on the hill and deserved a better fate, as he pitched a game that would ordinarily win, but his teammates failed to support him in the pitches.

MEDIA A. A. REORGANIZES
Overbrook Team Will Work Under Community Plan

The Media A. A., with home-grounds at Fifty-ninth and Oxford streets, held a meeting last night and reorganized. Harry Weller has taken over the business management and the playing end of the club will be looked after by Ernie Lamb, an Overbrook boy. The business men of the section are backing the team.

Four of last year's players have been resigned and with several new stars will form the nucleus of a fast team to be conducted on the community plan. The opening game under the new arrangement will be played tomorrow afternoon at Fifty-ninth and Oxford streets, with Klaunder-Weldon, of Jenkintown.

NORTH PHILLIES WILL OPPOSE MOUNT CARMEL

Uptown Team Schedules Extra Game for Home Grounds Tonight

This is usually an off night for the North Phillies, but Manager Perry Reifensnyder has scheduled an extra game for the uptown fans at Fourth and Winghollocking streets tonight.

The contest was taken on at a moment's notice with Mount Carmel. The umpires are in the city on a trip and decided to stay over another day. While here they lost to the South Phils 4 to 2 and beat Stenton Field Club 7 to 6. Jim Clancy will pitch for the North Phils.

BIG GAMES FOR P. R. R.

Mitchell's Travelers to Play Lincoln University and Morton

The P. R. R. Travelers have started to look the best teams of the city for twilight games. Next Thursday they play the Columbia C. C. at Front and Porter streets.

The Travelers will meet the Lincoln University at Lincoln University, Pa., tomorrow and travel to Morton, Pa., on Memorial Day afternoon and play the Morton-Rutledge team of the Interborough League. They have Sunday and Memorial Day morning open.

The pitching is taken care of by Augie Wasnecki, who had a fine record with Peter and Sears Reubuck. The receiving end is handled by Beck.

Twilight games with Jack Hines' Old Timers, DeLo, Logan A. A., Merrill A. A., Frankford Yellow Jackets, Media A. A., St. Columbia C. C. and Stonehurst, are solicited.

Address W. D. Mitchell, 2517 North Twenty-seventh street, or phone Diamond 3194, in the evening.
