

HEROES OF 3 WARS WILL BE HONORED

Survivors of Struggles to Pay Tributes to Fallen Comrades Tomorrow

OBSERVED IN SCHOOLS

Fitting tributes to heroism and loyalty will be paid to the heroes of three wars tomorrow when their graves will be decorated by survivors of America's memorable struggles.

WINS HONOR

Gray-haired veterans of the G. A. R. and members of the American Legion, many still suffering from the effects of the World War, will march again along the public highways tomorrow to the resting places of those who fell for their country.

EXERCISES IN SCHOOLS

Today there were appropriate exercises in public schools. Veterans of the G. A. R. and American Legion posts delivered addresses and gave the boys and girls first-hand information of some of the memorable struggles.

MEMORIAL IN CEMETERY

At the same time that the memory of Radnor's fallen heroes was being honored, a short distance away in West Laurel Hill cemetery a memorial service in honor of other young Americans who fell in the last great struggle was held by the Philadelphia Chapter of the National American War Mothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Wolf and Guests Rescued Near Conshohocken

CRAFT CRASHED INTO ROCK

Charles H. Wolf, his wife and seven guests were marooned on a capsized motorboat yesterday afternoon after the thirty-five-foot launch crashed into a rock near the middle of the Schuylkill River above Conshohocken.

9 ARE MAROONED ON CAPSIZED BOAT

The motorboat turned partly over and the cabin and deck were submerged. A ledge of rock prevented it from sinking to the bottom.
