LONDON DISCUSSES TREATY

By the Associated Press Belfast, May 29 .- Sharp fighting between members of the Irish Republican Army and the Ulster special constabulary occurred last night along the boundary between Counties Donegal and Fermanugh, in the Belleck district. Five Republicans are reported to have been killed and a number wounded. One constable was killed.

The fighting followed the action of its Ulster police in taking possession of Belleck village and Magserenens Casde nearby

Special police from the Belleck Fort were ambushed and compelled to aban don their motorcar, the driver of which was killed from the heavy firing. Both wings of the Irish Republican Army, the insurgents and those under the Free State Government, are believed to have been represented in the force which the Ulsterites encountered. The Southerners attacked in horseshoe formation, the only side open to the police facing on Lough Erne, across which they have been receiving their supplies The Republicans' intention to cut

London, May 29,-(By A. P.)-After a meeting of the Cabinet Irish Committee this morning a joint session of the British and Irish representatives was called to meet this afternoon, with Prime Minister Lloyd George presiding. No date has been fixed for the departure of the Irish delegates, and it I believed that the conference here will continue for several days. Winston Churchill. Secretary for the 'olonies, will speak in the House of Commons this afternoon in regard to the progress of the negotiations. Several newspapers say that Michael Collins and Arthur Griffith convinced now insults by implications which are as the Government of their good faith as regards the Angle-Irish Treaty. Churchill announced this afterneon that his speech on the Irish situation would be deferred until tomorand Mr. Griffith expressed the bethat the scheduled meeting with the Cabinet would also be postponed. There was no indication, it is said, that a hitch had occurred.
