popular materials for light colored sum-mer dresses now. Verner Peterson, a debutante of next winter, wore a lovely yellow linen dress with insets of lace at the Show yesterday. With it she wore a large white straw hat trimmed on the right with a large pompon of black ribbon or feathers. I wasn't quite near enough to see which it was.

DID you hear that Mrs. Henry Pratt McKean has taken the W. O. Griffiths house in Chestnut Hill for two years? It seems that the Griffiths suddenly decided to go to California, so Mrs. Mc-kean took the house. I hear that Mr. and Mrs. Griffith and the entire family, with the exception of Hoyt Sherman, who is at "Boston Tech:" Helen, Polly who is at "Boston Teen; Helen, Folly and John, are going and will probably stay about two years, though exactly where in California they have not definitely decided. Mrs. McKean's sister-in-law, Mrs. Norton Downs, lives in Chestnut Hill now, too, on Bethle-ham nike.

THERE seems to be a great many weddings this week. It's funny how they always come in bunches. Yesterday Priscilla Morris and Kenton Eisen-brey were married and tomorrow Hen-rietta Wilson and Ted Shakespeare. On Thursday there will be the wedding of Lenore McCall and Norman MacLeish. and on Saturday Catherine Cassard and Thomas Hall McKoy, Jr., and Caroline Murdoch and Douglas Gordon Allen.

Lately, especially, it seems to me that most of the girls are marrying men from out of town. For instance, Bobbie Brockie married Richardson Dilworth, of New York, and Nancy Cope, Pierre Hazard, of New York and Syracuse, and Patty Baker, Benjamin Griggs, of St. Paul. Take the weddings of this week. Of course, Kenton Etc. of this week. Of course, Kenton Ele-enbrey and Ted Shakespeare are both Philadelphians, but Norman MacLeish, who is marrying Lenore McCall, is from Glencoe, Ill., and Catherine Cassard's future husband is a Southerner, from Norfolk, to be exact. Caroline Mur-doch's fiance is from Toronto, Canada.

MIRS seem to get more elaborate Pevery year. You hardly ever go to one that is just a plain "fair" any more. There are always pony shows, fashion shows, dog shows, dancing and anything else you can imagine. People do not seem to have the same gest for hand-embroidered penwipers and hand-painted bookmarkers, and they and the new order of things much more entertaining. So every one is pleased and more money made for different

THE Devon Horse Show ball last the birth of a son, Richard Burton night was a great success, and, of Todd, on Saturday, May 27.

THE Devon Horse Show ball last night was a great success, and, of geurse, there are the usual crowds at the Show. I am glad it is getting warmer again, for it certainly has been celd for the last few days, and every one at Devon nearly froze.

I saw Banning Grange dut there, and she looked warm in a long cloak of some of material, I think it must have been duvetyn, of a lovely shade of dull green. With it she wore a small hat of geranium red georgette, with stream ers of the georgette, with stream ers of the georgette, with stream shat trimming?

Nina Baugh, the attractive sub-deb daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Baugh, has a hat almost exactly like one I've seen Mallie Baird wear; it's the same shade of green and has green georgette streamers like hers. The only different thing I could see about it was that the brim of the hat was of straw trated of georgette. Nina was wearing the hat one day last week at one of the cold days of the Show, with a long blue homespun coat over a gray silk dress.

Linen and silk seem to be the most popular materials for light colored sumper dresses now. Vermer Peterson, as get the first of the cold days of the Show, with a long blue homespun coat over a gray silk dress.
