

CAPTAIN CLIFFORD K. FOWLER, chief marshal (left), and Colonel Joseph L. Knowlton, in the Frankford Memorial Day parade

MEMBERS OF FRANKFORD POST, No. 211, American Legion, march in Frankford's Memorial Day parade. They are on their way to St. Joachim's Cemetery, where many graves were decorated

SPEED—AND LOTS OF IT. Yesterday was a great day for those who enjoy automobile racing. Four cars in the final of the five-mile race at Byberry. The winner was Larry Beal, of Boston

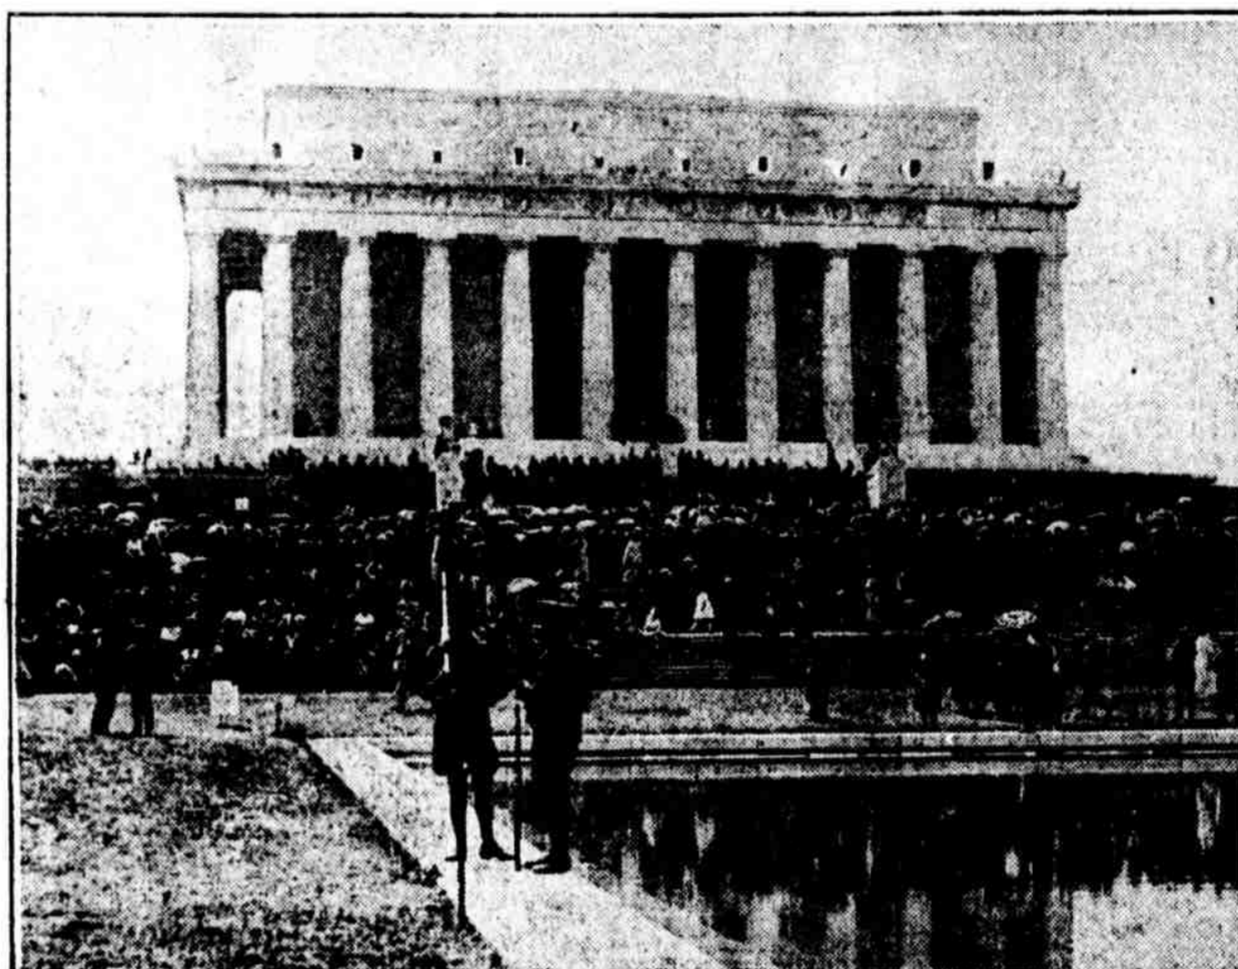

MISS VIRGINIA GREEN, a Philadelphian, saw most of the racing through field glasses

AT CITY HALL PLAZA. George W. Bradley (left), who once pitched for the Athletics, and Thomas Snyder, with the Civil War soldiery

ROBERT T. LINCOLN, son of Abraham Lincoln, the emancipator, as he listened to President Harding's speech

LINCOLN MEMORIAL DEDICATED. Statesmen from many lands were among those who gathered in Washington yesterday, to attend the ceremonies. President Harding accepted the memorial on behalf of the Nation

"WATCH 'EM ON THAT TURN." Dick Dalton and Harry White had a wonderful time at Byberry

MARSHAL FOCH AS GUIDE. King George returns as the French warrior explains battle of Vimy Ridge

REGISTERING AT COBBS CREEK. Arthur E. Rendle, president of the Cobbs Creek Golf Club, had a busy day. Williard Goeckler, of Northeast High, is ready for his turn. The fair golfer is Miss Beatrice Phillion

THE NEW AIRPLANE DANCE is attracting much attention in Paris. We show you three of the positions, demonstrated by the Delvanos

AT THE A. O. H. GAMES. In the semi-final of the 100-yard dash, D. O'Donnell, of Mendowbrook, is touching the tape, a winner. O'Donnell also won the final. S. J. Needs, of Penn, in the high jump

THE PORTOBELLO BARRACKS, in Dublin, being turned over to the Irish Free State troops. General O'Duffy, chief of staff, stands at salute, as the Irish troops pass him

ON FARM LOAN BOARD—Robert A. Cooper

MISS OLGA McCURDY, Ala., visits Washington

IT'S ALL TRUE. Miss Marilyn Miller, actress, admitted her engagement to Jack Pickford

R. C. McCOLLOCH, to prosecute war frauds

MISS HILDA SMITH, Bryn Mawr summer school

DISTINGUISHED BRITISH NAVAL OFFICER ARRIVES IN WASHINGTON. Left to right: Lt. Curzon Howe; Admiral Sir William C. Pakenham, commander of the fleet; Capt. S. R. Bailey, naval attache of British Embassy, and Capt. A. R. Bromley, commander of the Raleigh

THEY SAW THE PHILLIES TAME THE GIANTS—and enjoyed it, too. Knights of the hard boards at Broad and Huntingdon streets, during the holiday baseball battle between Philadelphia and New York

NEW CHAMP "BUNKERED." Miss Joyce Wethered, English golf champion, in difficulty

MRS. J. I. MAETERLINCK will sing at fair in aid of Jefferson Hospital

MISS MOLLY THAYER took part in the Pennsylvania and Middle States tennis tourney

BEFORE THE DAYS OF AUTOMOBILES. Broad street from Columbia avenue, looking toward City Hall. Miss Virginia A. Price, 3025 West Susquehanna avenue, is the contributor. Send all your old-Philadelphia photographs to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER