Member of English Bar Put to Death for Murder

London, May 31.—(By A. P.)—Ma-jor Herbert Rowse Armstrong, a leading Welsh solicitor, who was convicted last month on a charge of poisoning his wife, was executed in the Glou-cester jail today. He is the first member of the English bar to be executed for murder.

Major Armstrong was originally arrested on a charge of attempting to poison Oswald Martin, a fellow solicitor, but went to trial on the capital charge after the exhumation of his wife's body and the discovery that she had been poisoned.
