Along Comes June With Brides and Sweet Graduates, the Wanamaker Waist Sale and Countless Bits of Finery for Summer

"It Is Easier for You Not to Begin to Go Wrong than it is to turn around and start to go backward to where you began wrong," were words spoken by President Garfield, who was brutally shot to death, to the great sorrow of the entire world.

The writer, being in London at the time, remembers especially the grief evinced by the Queen, members of the Houses of Commons and Lords, Mr. Spurgeon, Lord Kinnaird and Sir George Williams.

We cherish the memory of the noble Garfield, and may well profit from his example and the words that begin this piece, that seem like a little gospel out of the past.

Lace Handkerchiefs for Brides and Others

Exquisite bits of daintiness with the sheerest of linen centers and real lace edgings. The favorite is duchess lace.

They are frequently used for wedding or graduation gifts and equally appropriate for birthday or other anniversary reminders. From $8.50 to $150 are the prices.

Note—Unless otherwise requested, all gift handkerchiefs bought during the month of June will be tied with white ribbons the color of the pearl, the birthstone for June.

A New Trimming for Summer Dresses

Quite appropriately it is made of true Summer dress fabrics, organdie or gingham.

It comes in the form of wide bands of open-work scroll pattern of either the tiniest checked gingham or plain-colored organdie. Price 85c a yard.

(Main Floor)

New Silk Poplins in Old Paisley Patterns

Wonderfully effective for bags, coat and wrap linings and even gay wraps.

For men they make handsome lounging robes. There is a warm glowing crimson printed in rich colors and softer effects in blues and grays. Priced $5 a yard; 40 inches wide.

(First Floor)

Young Women Are Really Partial to the New Checked Gingham Dresses

Cool and pretty, what could be finer for a Summer day? And a gingham dress washes so well it always looks fresh and sweet.

Two attractive new styles, one piped with white and the other having white linen collar, cuffs and trimming. In small checks of red, brown, navy, green or orchid, $11.50. Sizes 14 to 20 years.

(Second Floor)

There Are Beguiling Novelties Among Women's Fine Sports Dresses

Made of rich knitted silks in various weaves, the dresses are the sort that will be worn a little later at the fashionable mountain and shore resorts.

They have short sleeves as a rule, and the skirts are often figured; also one dress will have a cape to match and another a gayly striped scarf. One or two styles are even combined with Georgette.

The colors are lovely—silver and green, tan and brown, gold and navy, purple and white, navy and gray, black and gray, sunset yellow.

There are only fifty—and prices range from $50 to $100.

(First Floor)

Pumps and Oxfords of Cool White Canvas

Light as thistledown on the foot, and cool as nothing, are slippers and pumps of finest white canvas.

A dainty one-strap slipper with graceful arch, narrow toe, light turned sole and low French heel is $9; and a round-toed one-strap slipper of the "Marv Jane" type, with low, covered heel, is also $9. At $9.50 are fine white canvas oxfords with extension sole and military heel of ivory white leather.

The Famous June Sale of Waists Opens With the Roses

5000 waists are in it to start with—waists which are only $1 to $4.85—fresh, smart, and exactly the kind women are keen to lay in for the Summer's wearing. And the prices are astonishingly low.

732 Waists at $1

Include tailored voiles, batistes and dimities, in white and a few colors, such as flesh, ecru, blue, bisque, lavender and rose. Lots of styles, including some with Peter Pan collars and a few with filet lace.

1425 Waists at $1.65

Samples and overlots, some at half. Mostly tailored white dimities, a few with colored cuffs and collars and colored bindings.

550 Waists at $1.85

All white dimities, tailored; especially wanted to wear with slip-on sweaters and sports suits. Some having short sleeves and narrow frillings are a good deal in evidence.

450 Waists at $2.25

Semi-tailored and lingerie white voiles, often made up with filet and Valenciennes.

300 Silk Blouses at $3.85 and $4.85

Tailored white tub silks at the first price; samples of novelties in colored silks at the second. A few dainty, creamy nets are included in this group.

1650 Hand-Made Waists at $2.85 to $4.85

Refined and dainty Porto Rican things with uncommonly fine hand-work embroidery and filet lace—the waists which are more wanted than any others.

150 Women's Velour Coats Are Now Down to $30

Exactly five of the most popular styles that have been here this Spring, all of them have been higher priced and some considerably higher.

Good coats for women who want something different from tweed for traveling or for cool days to wear over the finer frocks. A number have the larger sleeves and wide cuffs, some belted, others loose. Not only are the sizes complete, but the colors include fawn and wood brown, pilgrim and eagle gray, black and navy blue.

(First Floor)

The Six Sought-for Colors in Canton Crepe

are the rich dark blues, black, gray, beige, pink and white.

An exceptionally good assortment of these colors is here in the favorite Summer silk, as well as in the allied weaves of crepe de chine and satin-back crepe. Better quality silks and priced $2 to $4.50 a yard. All 40 inches wide.

(First Floor)

New Figured Voile Frocks for School-girls

That is, for girls of ten, twelve, and fourteen years who want something cool for morning or afternoon.

There are two new styles at $6.50 each and so pretty one would never suspect they were so inexpensive. Both have white organdie collar and cuffs and the colors are green, rose, orange and navy.

(Second Floor)

Undermuslins for Girls Who Like Dainty Things

Low-neck nightgowns in nainsook, silk muslin or crepe de chine, $1.25 to $7.

Figured crepe pajamas, $2.50. White sateen princess slips, $2.50.

Bloomers and step-in drawers, crepe, nainsook, silk muslin and pink or white silk, 65c to $3.75.

Petticoats in sateen, cambric and silk with hemstitching, scallops, embroidery or lace trimming, 95c to $5.

(Third Floor)

include many models with closed back and clasped front. In combinations of coutil and elastic or elastic and broche, they are $1.65 to $6.50.

In the same materials with laced back they are $2 to $4. Dainty satin girdles are $2 and $3.

(Third Floor)

White Petticoats, Large Sizes

White sateens with double panels front and back and tailored flouncings.

Good for $1.

(Third Floor)

More Irish Laces From China, Also Robe Patterns

1100 yards of fine hand-made lace in Irish designs, and all at amazingly small prices.

Edges 1 1/2 to 3 inches wide, $1.25 and $1.35 a yard.

Insertions 1 1/2 to 1 3/4 inches wide, $1 and $1.15 a yard.

Also more imported robe patterns of fine batiste, with beautiful hand embroidery, in several designs. The price—$21.75 each—is little indeed for the quality.

(Main Floor)

All the Colors of a Summer Sky Gleam and Glisten in the Beaded Bags that just have come from across the sea. And all the colors of the flower-dotted fields are in them, too.

Glad, brilliant, sparkling colors in strange designs that seem to have been born in Egypt or some sequestered spot in the mysterious, legendary Orient.

For the most part, the bags themselves are sand color—like desert stretches—and over it flowers or queer, fantastic figures are traced in greens or reds or blues, accentuated with scarlet or yellow and brown or orange. In a word, they are bags of just the high, startling colors. Madame wants to carry with her airy, Summer frocks and for sports.

But the superiority of the bags is in the making. Every one hand beaded—or rather, hand crocheted, for each bead is crocheted in place separately. Such bags will be the heirlooms of the next generations.

And so much goodness is priced between $20 and $50 which is unusually moderate for hand-done, imported beaded bags.

Glassware Purchase Extraordinary! $12,960 of Fine Crystal for $5248

A CASH PURCHASE from one of America's largest manufacturers of every odd lot and discontinued pattern in his factory.

The goods are ready—nearly 15,000 pieces of finest thin-blown crystal glass, every piece beautifully etched in a chrysanthemum pattern or a dainty fern design.

The assortment embraces everything for the everyday needs of the home and table at less than half the market value. People will buy for future as well as for immediate requirements.

One of the most important lots is a remarkable collection of stemware at 50c a piece. Finest crystal—choice of seven different shapes—goblets, sherbet glasses, tall footed ice creams, parfait glasses, fruit salads, plain and optic styles, 50c each, which is less than half the regular price.

Another lot at 40c includes one and a half, two, three, four and five ounce stemware glasses, all decorated with a deep etching.

Vases at 25c—six-inch size, in a variety of shapes, all decorated, thin-blown glass.

Eight-inch size, 40c; 10 and 12 inch sizes, 50c; all are less than half regular.

Tumblers at 25c. Ice tea and table tumblers, plain and

When a Man Steps Out in the Open World Amid the Sunshine and the Flowers

He's judged. Judged by men, judged by women for the kind of a man he is.

Like it or not, but it's the little words and the little gestures and the little acts done or undone that carry a man to the mighty heights of business success and surround him with happy friends.

Outward signs, every one of the points of judgment.

And No Outward Sign Speaks Louder Than the Clothes a Man Wears

There's the background for the words and the gestures and the acts.

A good suit is a good recommendation—it tells louder than words what a man's judgment is, what his tastes are, how his thoughts run.

And three generations of men who count for anything have known that the most stylish suits and the substantially good suits are at Wanamaker's.

Plenty of choosing at $40 and $45.

(Third Floor)

Boys' Wash Suits

The best grades are here in full assortment at the lowest prices for suits to which the word best can be truthfully applied.

Sizes and styles for boys of all ages from 3 to 18 years at $3.75 to $12.

Washable trousers in sizes for boys of 6 to 18 years at $1.50 to $3.

In All, There Are Eleven Styles in the New Semi-Soft, Web Collar

And men like every one of them. Every style is comfortable for hot days, every style is smart and neat to see.

What is more, of all collars the web collar has proven itself to be the most practical for the Summer.

Light, comfortable, will not wilt and is easily laundered.

At 25c here are 3 styles; at 35c there are 4 styles; at 50c there are 4 styles.

A Few Hundred Men Can Make a "Good Buy" in Shoes—at $9.75

To be exact, 564 men can, for just that number of the better shoes have had the prices shorn for speedy close-out.

Every pair has been selling for a great deal more. Every pair is part of the fashion stock that came in for this Spring.

There are tan shoes and black shoes, there are high shoes and low shoes in the lot, although by far the majority are low ones.

Better shoes, better made and better looking, at a special price.

A Pretty Porch, With an Oval Rug, Seems an Ideal Spot to while away a Summer's afternoon.

There is something so dainty and charming about an oval rug that the porch seems pleasanter and an oval rug looks cooler and wears better out of doors if it is a Japanese Rush Rug.

New Japanese Rush Rugs in both the oval and oblong shapes are here. 6 x 12 ft., $21.50; 6 x 9 ft., $16.50.

A Chinese grass rug, too, is a mighty good covering for a porch floor. 9 x 12 ft., $8.75.

(Seventh Floor)

A Carload of White Mountain Refrigerators

has come in, which means a fairly good shipment. And White Mountain means a mighty good Refrigerator, so tomorrow is a very good time to start saving ice and food in your home.

$65

is the price of any refrigerator in the lot. Every one of 125 pounds ice capacity—35 inches long, 22 inches deep, 50 inches high. All are porcelain lined and equipped with the Duplex Aerated ice grates.

(Fourth Floor)

Imported Dotted Swisses, $1.25

One of the finest swisses St. Gall makes, at a special price.

In beautiful clear red, navy, light and china blues, brown, orchid, jade and black; all dotted in white. 30 inches wide.

(First Floor)

Mahogany Floor Lamps

Fine ones of solid mahogany, with fluted columns and fitted for two lights. Complete with cord and plug, $13.50.

Cool, summery-looking shades of printed cotton to go with them are $6.

In Summer Furniture, It Is the "Cheery," Not the "Weeping" Willow

"Weeping willow" is all wrong. There is no such thing in Summer furniture.

Gay, cheery, flexible, comfortable, convenient, novel, practical willow is all right, and there is plenty of it.

Reed and willow are twins, or pretty near it.

Both are of the wicker family. For porch, veranda, or Summer living-room wicker furniture is just delightful.

Choose it in the natural color, or in any number of finishes, including attractive two-color effects.

Choose suits or individual pieces, plain or upholstered in pretty cretonne.

Choose where the most attractive and satisfactory kinds are shown in greatest variety.

It takes hickory, maple, oak and a vast deal of rustic cedar pieces to make up the assortment shown here, and a large and interesting assortment indeed.
