UNE, the month of brides and roses, and the sweet young graduates, also brings the season's richest offerings to the housewife.

brings the season's richest offerings to the housewife.

In planning the Sunday menu, try to spend as much of this day, if possible out doors, close to Mother Nature, and if you do not care to spend the entire day, then by all means arrange for a few hours. I am arranging the menu today to feature a packed lunch and the hot meal in the evening, thus giving the housewife an opportunity to enjoy the day with the family. In place of buying cold cooked ham, purchase on Friday, either a four and a half pound but or shank end of ham, cook slowly, allowing about twenty-five minutes to the pound and cool the ham in the water. It should be placed in the refrigerator to chill, and then cut in thin, cold slices for the luncheon that is to be colded and corried. The leftover ld slices for the luncheon that is to be packed and carried. The leftover meat may be utilized through the week by making ham patties, ham loaf or having grilled ham for the breakfast. The market basket will require four and a half pounds butt end of ham, eggs, veal cutlet, strawberries, garden onions, radishes, potatoes, oranges, to-matoes, bananas, snap beans, apples, pareley, onions, green peppers, celery and the usual weekly staples.

Ham Sandwiches

The usual type of ham sandwich soon The usual type of nam sandwich soon palls on the appetite, and a little time and trouble required to make the ham andwich attractive is well worth while. Mince fine two green peppers and about half a cup of the green tips of some garden onlons, and then put sufficient ham through the food chopper to measure two cups when chopped fine. Turn in bowl and add

One-half teaspoon of mustard, One-quarter teaspoon of paprika, Fire tablespoons of mayonnaise and blend together. Butter the slice of bread on the loaf, and then cut thin, lay nice crisp leaf of lettuce on the bread, and spread the prepared ham mixture on the other slice. Put together, trimming crusts with sharp unife, and cutting slant-wise. Wrap standwiches in wax sandwich paper, and then wrap the entire package in heavy torel.

Chocolate Cake Place in mixing bowl

One and one-quarter cupe of sugar, One-half cup of shortening, One-half cup of cocoa. One teaspoon of vanilla.

One teaspoon of cinnamon ream well and then add One egg. Cream well and then add ree cups sifted flour Two level tablespoons of baking powder,

One cup of milk,

Beat to smooth batter and then add One cup of seeded raisins, One-half cup of cocoa. One-half cup of finely chopped nuts.

Mix the fruit in well, and turn in well greased and floured square pan, and bake in moderate oven for forty minutes; cool and ice with water icing. The question of making coffee on pic-

The question of making coffee on pichics is always a most important one, and the picnic luncheon seems to lack something until you serve the coffee. Some plans that suggest themselves to you are to take an old-fashioned coffee pet along and brew the stimulating baverage as our grandmothers did, namely by open fire, or to take in themos bottle, or else to have the coffee all made and simply reheat.

To prepare the cup custards, rub the custard cups liberally with butter, and place in bottom of each cup five strawberries. Then fill the cup with the custard mixture, set the cups in deep baking pan, and fill the pan about two-taked the depth of the custard cups with cold water; place in slow oven and bake until the custards are done. To tak, insert the tip of silver knife in the custard, and if none adheres to the knife, it is sufficiently cooked. Remove from the oven and cool, then place in refrigerator to chill until needed.

Dainty to Make

Once in a while you make for yourself a particularly nice camisole, so the next time you do why not fashion it like this one? It is of fine white naiusook, hemstitched around the top and edged with a narrow filet lace. A dainty bit of adornment is given to it by three tiay, vertical lines of hemstitching, made quite far apart, with two rows of feather stitching tucked in between them.

Things You'll Love to Make
