THE WEATHER

60 72 73 72 77 78 79

NIGHT

EXTRA

VOL. VIII.-NO. 226

to Jump From Speeding Auto Patrol

S FINALLY SHACKLED

00-Pound Prisoner Knocks Detectives About in Fight in Wagon

TAY HAVE PLANNED SUICIDE

Counded Man Will Get New Grilling to Connect Him

Selden and Lehrman in the patrol when sprang up suddenly at Broad street Hunting Park avenue, and hurled brack at the side curtains, hoping to Me of him.

Again at Broad street and Girard venue he made another sudden atempt. He jumped up wildly, and with a push in either direction hurled the factives away from him. They closed stantly, and after another brief fight him down in his seat once more. The patrol was bowling steadily down inc. Once again at Broad and Spring Orden streets the prisoner made a adden leep for the back of the patrol, it took the combined strength of detectives and crew to hold him.

Is Finally Shackled

sther, though his legs were freed so is could step on the prison tower ele-word in the courtyard. The detectives the they were convinced he had tried in the convinced he had tried

"No man in his senses would have straighted to hurl himself out of a paint going at that speed." said Destite Golden, "unless he was trying to "unless he was trying to

As he was being taken downstairs the cell room on the sixth floor the detective bureau on the fifth the detective bureau on the fifth the inder looked several times toward iron railing that guards the stairetives were quick to interpret is glances as an impulse to jump the all in an effort to escape or commit saids. He was hustled quickly to the Cloude was taken to City Hall for a mar-chamber" examination by Captar of Detectives Souder and Lieutenaut Balanaw of the murder squad. They will try to get a detailed statement from the prisoner, hould be a chean some the prisoner, hoping to obtain some class which will make it possible to ether confirm Cieuso's suspected con-section with the Ward case, or to elim-inste him as a possible factor in this refined on Page Twenty-two, Column Four

TROLLEY HITS CHILD; MOTHER IS BLAMED

legistrate Rebukes Her for Allow-Ing Child to Wander Off

Mrs. Rene Marzian, 8088 North

The same detaining the girl at the Morals Court until she is called for by some relative, or further facts about her be-

McDermott was arraigned this morn-as before Magistrate Dorn, in the before Magistrate Dorn, in the same station. He was discharged the police testified he was not response for the accident to testimony, as with his mother and grandmother. The child, accord to testimony, as with his mother and grandmother. The child, accord to testimony, as with his mother and grandmother. The country of the steps of his left the country of the cou andered off.

DOG GIVES FIRE WARNING

Pouses Dr. A. T. Ross, 3336 North 22d St., in Time to Halt Blaze the barking of a dog, Tige, saved members of the family of Dr. Alfred Ross, 3336 North Twenty-second from possible injury this morn-when fire broke out in the doctor's as the result of a short circuit on vires in a sterilizer.

PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY, JUNE 5, 1922

Screen Star to Wed

Evening Public Tedger

Published Daily Except Sunday. Subscription Price $6 a Year by Mail. Copyright, 1922, by Public Ledger Company

PRICE TWO CENTS

Former Actress Ill les Police and Attempts

AFTER HIS THIRD BREAK

John Cleuso, held as a suspect for Wew York police in the Ward-Peblackmail and homicide mystery, made three desperate attempts to regain liberty today when he was being in a motor patrol from the Twenseed street and Hunting Park averation to City Hall.

Genso, whose 200 pounds of bone auscle made him a difficult man to was sitting with Detectives

The detectives grabbed him, and the for a few moments wrestled about a foor of the patrol. Members of patrol crew jumped into the fight, the prisoner was subdued. He sat

After this third attempt the detectives set handcuffs on him and got out a set of legcuffs, with which they shackled him to the floor of the patrol.

When the prisoner was taken out at City Hall, his hands still linked to story, though his legs were freed or Frank H. Warner, an attorney, said Heilman was willing to enter the bond provided his place was not closed. Neotiations for a sale of the saloon are near completion, Warner said, and if the saloon is closed, the property would then be placed in control of the United States Marshal, and Heilman would not doubt of his authority to enter such

LILLIAN RUSSELL

Former stage beauty and prima doma, now Mrs. Alexander P. Moore, of Pittsburgh, who is reported seriously ill, the result of an accident she suffered while returning from a trip to Europe recently

IN "SERIOUS CONDITION"

Pittsburgh, June 5.—(By A. P.)-

Lillian Russell, the famous actress, is in a critical condition at her home here.

She is suffering from a complication, caused by a slight injury suffered while on shipboard when she was returning from her late European tour investigating immigration conditions for the

Mrs. Moore's condition this morning was very serious, according to Dr. L. W. Swope, the attending physician.

FEDERAL WRIT STOPS

be able to complete the sale.

Though the saloon was not ordered closed Federal attorneys said the fact the court compelled Heilman to file a bond was a signal victory for the Government, for the reason that here-tofore the courts have issued only temrestraining orders, without

DYING MOTHER'S WISH

Wanted to Escape Convent
Fear that her family would carry out er mother's dying wish that he had been something to be established to be es her mother's dying wish that she be placed in a convent was the motive of story told to the police here today by nineteen-year-old Ann Boyle, a run-away girl, who says she is the daughter

John H. Boyle, of Riverside Drive, New York City. Word has been received from the New York police that no John Boyle is known at that address. Authorities

The girl apparently has been living a believer, was rebuked by a magistrate today for allowing the child to stay from her side.

According to testimony, the boy wilked into the side of a slowly moving tested was bumped. The nose was bumped. The nose are the broken.

According to testimony, the boy wilked into the side of a slowly moving testered in a house near Twelfth and Green streets, where she was taken by a young man whom she met at Fiften and Market streets on the afternion of her arrival here.

Early today, according to her story, the occupants of the house, baving been crowd threatened Bernard Mcbenefit, 841 East Hilton street, the seconan. Several men tried to drag from the car. The crowd was from the car. The crowd was by Street Sergeant Wirtafter and Patrolman McDevitt, who say the accident.

Hoon of her according to her story.

Early today, according to her story.

the occupants of the house, having been suspicious for some time, took her to Broad Street Station and gave her into the care of the agent of the Travelers'

Aid Society, with the idea of having her returned to her home.

Instead of doing that he took her to ple Ceremony London, June 5.—(By A. P.)—Vis-ount Grey of Fallodon, and Lady Henconner, widow of the late Baron llenconner, were married yesterday at he parish church in Wilsford, County Lady Glenconner is a sister of the late George Windham, M. P. once Chief Secretary for Ireland. She is noted for her beauty, is an accomplished nusician and has attained some fame as an author.

married in 1895, died about fifteen years ted by the dog's barking, Cal-a son, reshed downstairs and ford Manor, the residence of Lady Glen-conner. The ceremony was simple and was attended only by a few villagers. At the conclusion of service Viscount Grow and his brick returned to the

'17, MAJOR SAYS

M. W. Nicholson Tells Court-Martial 'High-Placed Enemies' Seek to Oust Him

SERIES OF PERSECUTIONS STARTED IN PHILIPPINES

Charges War Department Aids in Attempt to Railroad Him From Army

Major Malcolm Wheeler Nicholson, on trial by court martial at Camp Dix or writing the "Prussianism letter" to President Harding, declared today that ne had been "hounded" since 1917 by high-placed enemies in the service who were trying to railroad him out of the

In a lengthy statement to the Court Martial Board the major related at ength what be declared had been a series of persecutions. He said:

"This goes back to the year 1917 and to the Philippine Islands. I served under Colonel T. B. Dugan, Ninth Cavalry. The reputation of that officer is well known throughout the service. While in command of the Ninth Cavalry he had about a third of the regiment. ment on sick report, drove four of-ficers to permanent ill bealth and drove LILLIAN RUSSELL REPORTED officers temporarily insane.

did not have any trouble until the last month or two or my service with him. I fought to keep my men out of the heat of the dangerous after-noon tropic sun, while he was disobey-ing orders and insisting on drills at lliness Due to Accident She Suffered on Ship While Returning to America Mrs. Alexander R. Moore, formerly Accusations Proved False "As a result he attempted to hold up my promotion to captain by a list of accusations against me. The dcpartment commander, Brigadier Gen-eral Charles K. Bailey, supported him. The promotion board protested at having to handle the case. General Bailey insisted upon it. I appeared before City them. Colonel Dugan's accusations die. were shown to have been false. I was recommended for promotion. Colone: Dugan was being investigated by the inspector general when I left the Islands, but was saved from punishment by the War Department. He was promoted to be temporary believing

FUTURE LIQUOR SALES
FUTURE LIQUOR SALES
Saloonman Gives Bond Not to Break Volatead Law Again
A temporary injunction restraining John B. Heilman, a saloonkeeper, 43 North Thirteenth street, from further violations of the prohibition law wan issued by Judge Thompson today, and Heilman is required to enter a $1000 bond that he will obey the injunction pending a hearing of the prohibition law was pending a hearing that the will obey the injunction pending a hearing that the will obey the injunction pending a hearing that the will obe temporary brigadier ("He deserved it. I did right. I should have killed him before I did."

Miss Beale, lying on her cot with a bullet wound in her breast, told of what led up to the shooting of Anderson and herself.

"I don't love any woman yet, he told me," the nurse said, "and declared: 'Peg, I'm a devil. I love no woman.

"We sat there for our last hour to gether, he describing each of his former loves—their eyes, their hair, their hearts—then I killed him.

bond that he will obey the injunction pending a hearing on the suit of the Government to close his place. Assistant United States District Atfrom the War Department stating that I was in class tree, or class C-o'scers who were not considered worthy of promotion. But I was told that 'by hard torneys Jones and Anderson had asked the court to order Heilman's place closed immediately pending the final hearing, but Judge Thompson expressed work and attention to duty,' or words to that effect, I would better my condition. As I was working at totp speed, as my chief had protested agains my demotion because of the value of the service I was rendering, I-saw nothing > Charges Against Deportment "In spite of this year and nine months persecution of me, and the hell through which it has put me, and the suffering it has caused my family, the War Department is not yet through. I have been put in Class B again, with I have been put in Class B again, with the very same things against me I fought out before, with added matters based upon my fight for justice in the last case. They have not obeqed the law and investigated the complaint against General Bailey. They have put the complaint on my record for me to

'I am going to continue to fight DYING MOTHER'S WISH

CAUSES GIRL TO FLEE

Young N. Y. Woman Says She

CAUSES GIRL TO FLEE

The case has reached a stage now wher ecerything done to me by the War Department only makes the day of reckoning come and the case only makes the day of reckoning come and the case only makes the day of reckoning come and the case only makes the day of reckoning come and the case only makes the day of reckoning come and the case only makes the day of reckoning come and the case of the case o

BLANCHE SWEET TO WED

Movfe Actress Will Marry Marshall Nellan, Picture Producer

Los Angeles, June 5.—(By A. P.)— Miss Blanche Sweet, motion picture actress, and Marshall Neilan, motionpicture producer and director, will be married in New oxrk some time this month, according to word received here CHILD STRUCK BY AUTO Mr. Netlan is in New York and Miss

Sweet will leave here today for that

Can Cupid Fetter Untrammeled Art?

CANNY CUPID, of Chicago's Gold Coast-famed highway of multimillionaires, has put his shackles on the rampaging lion of New York and Chicago's Stanislaus Szukalski, the unconventional, whose bizarre statues have shocked and delighted the artistic world, has had his shaggy, flowing locks clipped. He has discarded his ragged clothes and patched shoes for more conventional garb and has married Helen Louise Walker, heiress to millions and darling of Chicago's social world. And the artistic world is marveling and asking, "Will fettered matrimony conquer untrammeled

This strange romance of society and studios, of poverty and millions will be told in a full-page feature article in tomorrow's Evening Public Ledger,

Private Sleuths Will Tear Lid Off Protection

MEN OUTSIDE DEPARTMENT ARE GATHERING EVIDENCE

fice From Maryland

Special investigators today are burrowing down to the roots of organized startling as last Thursday's raids are expected within a week.

norning from the Wellwood Club at harlestown, Md., said: "There is lots doing but I won't discuss it now." Director of Public Safety Cortelyou is 'sawing wood and saying nothing." The entire gambling inquiry has been hedged about with secrecy to guard against "leaks" from within.

le declined to give his reasons.

Plans for last Thursday's raids were made without the knowledge of Assist-ant Director of Public Safety Tempest and Captain Van Horn. .

Mr. Tempest declined to talk about the fact that he was ignored in the

The Assistant Director pointed out that three of the raided poolrooms had been given a clean bill of health within the last six weeks.

When he held hearings on denewals of poolroom licenses, Mr. Tempest said Lieutenant Carlin, of the Eleventh and Winter streets station, testified there was no gambling at 35 North Eleventh street, 48 North Eleventh street and street, 48 North El 1226 Filbert street. Charles Danher and William Isaacs were the alleged proprietors of the North Eleventh street places. The as-sistant director mentioned their names sistant director mentioned their names but said he could not recall the name of the eproprietor of 1226 Filbert street. The alleged proprietor of the Filbert street poolroom gave his name after the raid as "William Harris," although he was believed to be "Dick" Kelker, a widely known member of the sporting

Two partolmen were suspended after the raids Thursday. Director Cortel-you refused tday to make known their

he said.

Three other patrolmen were sus-pended today, although the offenses alagainst them occurred several weeks ago during a raid by Lieutenant Lee, head of the vice squad.

MRS. PETTIT WEDS

Former Army Man

Katherine Howell Petrit. figured in the sensational suit for $18,-000 brought against her by her chauf-feur and self-styled "social, blave." and later in the action for $150,000 brought against her by the latter's wife, for alienation of affections, was married last Thursday to Daniel E. Daly, that the new Mrs. Daly, who was the wife of the late Horace K. Pettit, of band in a cottage at Saranoac Lake

END OVERSEA FLIGHT

After Series of Mishaps Pernambuco, Brazil, June 5 .- (By

A. P.)—The Portuguese naval aviaarrived here shortly after noon today the Portuguese airmen flew first to the Canary and then to the Cape Verde Islands. Leaving the Cape April 18, they reached St. Paul Rock. some 800 miles toward the Brazilian Thompson later surrendered to the this gap, planned a round trip flight to drains Mount Airy and Germantown, olice. circled the rock on this attempt May 11, but met with another mishap. Only the motor of the machine was saved. The siffnen were picked up and taken to Fernando Noronha and there WAGGED A WOBBLY TONGUE saved. The Judge Lent a Sympathetic Ear from Portugal, in which today's flight

BOY KILLED BY AUTO

Cyclist's Neck Broken and Driver of Car Held Without Ball Fred Macht, fifteen years old, 2770 East Venango street, was killed today while riding a bicycle south on Emer-ald street below Westmoreland. He mony in a minor case and turned an ald street below Westmoreland. He obliging ear toward the wobbly one. was struck by an automobile driven by

Lasker, Harding'LiveWire,' Genie of Ship Subsidy Bill

PROBE IS BEGUN Shipping Board Head, Energetic and Flattering, With Publicity Knack, Inspires President to Press Measure on Congress

> By CLINTON W. GILBERT Staff Correspondent Evening Public Ledger Coppright, 1922, by Public Ledger Company

Washington, June 5 .- The prom- President is traditionally a ship subsidy inence of the ship subsidy as an issue man, dating back to the time when he before Congress is due to the pressure was a young pupil of Mark Hanna. of one energetic personality. And that personality is no. President Harsing, his advice, once made a campaign in personality is no. President Harding bis advice, once made a camp but Mr. Albert D. Lasker, the head of Ohio upon shipping legislation. Shipping Board. President's Shipping Dream

LAST-MINUTE NEWS

3 KILLED IN CALIFORNIA POWDER MILL EXPLOSION

injured and two storehouses wrecked today when an explosion occurred at the plant of the Trojan Powder Company at San

FEW PRIMARY ELECTION RETURNS FAULTY

elaboration by the State Bureau of Elections. In one or two instances there were incomplete returns on election of State com-

matteemen, notable Camron County, which returned a woman

HARRISBURG, June 5 .- Less than half a dozen returns of

OAKLAND, CALIF., June 5 .- Three men were killed, three

Mr. Lasker presses upon Mr. Hard-ing and Mr. Harding presses upon Con-Mr. Harding dreams of putting ing and Mr. Harding presses upon Congress. The head of the Shipping Board has had a personal success in Washington. He came here almost unknown, his only connection with the Administration being due to the fact that he had handled the Republican campaign advertising in 1920.

Mr. Harding dreams of putting Mr. Harding dreams of putting and putting dreams of putting putting dreams of putting and putting dreams. American shipping back on the seas. The Oriental imagination of Mr. Laster expands this dream into a very big one in which the President will have a large place in history as the creator of American mercantile power. So one should not take Mr. Harding dreams of putting and putting dreams. advertising in 1920,

He is both energetic and insinuating, ing's pressing for a ship subsidy as He worked his way in close to the long-delayed assertion of his lead-President. It will be recalled that he ership. With a lesser person than Mr. was one of the guests on the recent Lasker at the head of the Shipping Mayflower trips, when, it is believed. Board, the President would incline to the difficulties of the Republican Party put off subsidy legislation until after received a thorough discussion. He took Mr. Harding's imagination from the Mr. Harding's imagination from the outset. The President describes him as because they can not see any votes in "One of the livest wires in the counbecause they can not see any votes in passing a subsidy bill now. After No-

Named Ship After Harding And remember the naming of the big merchant ship President Harding after the occupant of the White House. The honor was modestly rejected, but one is moved none the less by flattery of that kind.

from a poor young man to one of the great advertsing men of the country. Mr. Lasker is direct, as this little incident shows. He "lays it on thick. He is not easily discouraged. He keeps everlastingly at itl. known as pushing. He is aggressive in a smiling sort of way, having something of the art which Disraeli used to employ in talking to his Queen Vic-Moreover, his path is made a little press and at the same time there is Lorenzo, eleven miles from this city.

WITH PEPPER ON

Senator and Major Reed Form Coalition and Are Believed to Favor Baker

CHAIRMANSHIP

THREE FAIL TO AGREE AFTER HOUR CONFERENCE

Bitter Fight Is Seen When State Committee Meets Saturday

NOMINEE SILENT

Pepper Promises to Issue Statement From Capital This Afternoon

Washington, June 5. - "A friendly disagreement' over the Republican State chairmanship of Pennsylvania was the sole outcome of a conference held here today by Gifford Pinchot and Major David A. Reed, of Pittsburgh, Senator Pepper, respectively the Republican nominees for Governor and for the two Pennsylvania senatorships,

Although the three conferred in Sen-There is the same knack of getting ator Pepper's suite at the Powhatan Hotel for more than an hour, they failed easier for him by the fact that the Continued on Page Twenty two, Column Three to get together on the chairmanship. The guarded expressions which came from the three individuals interested permitted the clear inference that when the State Committee meets next Saturday it will witness a fight to the finish by the Pinchot forces for control, with Pepper and Reed going along with the Vare-Leslie-Sproul organization in supporting Harry Baker.

Pinchot's Choice a Problem Pinchot is said to be holding out for Colonel Ashur Miner, of Wilkes-Barre, as his choice for State chairman. He does not expect to support John S. Fisher, of Indiana County, the Grundy candidate, desiring to get as far away from "machine influence" as possible in the selection of a chairman. Pinchot was silent as the conference at the hotel broke up. He said smil-ingly he had no statement to make. Senator Pepper and Major Reed, who have formed a coalition on the chair-manship and other matters of interest in the campaign, came to the Capitol

Pepper Believed to Favor Baker It is understood Pepper's statement will contain an indorsement of Baker, and that when the State Committee meets he and Reed will Baker's selection as State chairman. Pinchot is expected to spbmit his own recommendation to the State Committee. That will precipitate the fight. Senator Pepper said following today's ssue a joint statement defining their conference:

"All I can say is that we reached I will submit a recommendation to the State Committee, and Mr. Pinchot will submit a recommendation. It will then be up to the State Committee to name its chairman. I expect to have a state-ment about four o'clock outlining the position of Major Reed and myseif. We Sewer Collapse on Courtland Duruth Star Beats Costello by have many things to talk over in the meantime.

Senator Pepper added that though be and Pinchot might disagree on the work together in the campaign and would both support the choice of the committee.

"Was the State chairmanship the only subject discussed?" he was :-ked. "Absolutely." Senator Pepper said. except that we talked over the question of a platform and came to the conclusion that there was no necessity for adopting one at the committee meeting Saturday. It would only mean repetition and confusion. A platform can be adopted later, if necessary. That is our viewpoint. On the other hand, State Committee insists on it-we want

MD. BANK $150,000 SHORT Union Bridge Cashier Now Under $15,000 Bond Washington, June 5.—(By A. P.)— Shortage of at least $150,000 has been uncovered in the accounts of the Frist National Bank of Union Bridge, Md., in was said today at the office of Comptroller Crissinger of the Currency.

E. F. Olmstend, cashier of the bank, is at liberty under $15,000 bond.

WIFE GOT $12 IN SIX YEARS Gloucester Man Given Chance to Pay or Go to Jail

William Nash, thirty-two years old. of Gloucester, celebrated his tenth wed-ding anniversary today by explaining to Continued on Page Twenty-one. Column Three

FIGHT KNIFE DUEL

Judge Shay in Camden Criminal Court why he had given his wife, a cripple.

$12 in six years. They have a child seven years old.

"Two years ago Judge Kates ordered him to pay me $12 a week." said Mrs. Nash. "He made one payment, then went away. This is all the money I have had from him in six years." 'I ought to send you to jail." the

PARK HEADS RE-ELECTED

Stotesbury Again Chosen President of Fairmount Commission

Members of the Fairmount Park Commission met at noon today in City Hall for reorganization. The meeting lasted only about five minutes as all officers were re-elected and there were no opposing candidates. The officers E. T. Stotesbury, president; the Price, vice president; the price of th

Nurse Says She Killed Collingswood Man as He Posed Mr. Cortelyon was questioned about that phase of the gambling investiga-tion. His only deply was that the in-formation was known only to himself as "Heart-Breaker" IS NOT SORRY SHE DID IT Peggy Marie Beale, Springfield, Ill., nurse, who killed Frank W. Anderson, of Collingswood, N. J., in a Kansas City hotel Saturday, says she wants to "I want to die," she gasped when doctors of the hospital told her that she would probably live. Then she beckoned to a nurse. "I'm not sorry I shot him."

BLANCHE SWEET

Movie actress, who will wed Mar-shall Nellan, motion picture pro-ducer and director.

hearts—then I killed him.
"Oh, I am glad he is gone, for his death will let other hearts live. Told of Other Loves " 'Will there be more loves? I asked there will. Maybe I'll go back to some of the places about to be raided?' the Director was asked.

"All that I that I'll the I'll 'All that I'm sorry for is that I didn't kill myself, too. There is nothing more for me."

Meanwhile the body of Anderson which awaits the directions of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Anparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Anderson, of Collingswood, has not been without visitors. Women called to see the body of the man whom Peggy Beale called "the perfect lover." the man who, according to the girl, boasted to her of his fifty conquests in love—herself the fifty-first.

The echo of another romance was seen in the story of a women who called the in the story of a woman who called by telephone at the hotel where Anderson and Miss Beale had lived for a week as man and wife. The woman asked for Mr. and Mrs. Anderson. When the hotel clerk told her what had happened she screamed.

Screams at News of Tragedy "Dead," she cried. "Oh, no, I can't believe it."

believe it."
She asked where the body could be seen, and a woman about thirty years of age called to see it. "How could she," she exclaimed. "What devils The names of fifty women from all parts of the country jotted down in his little black bood were not his "love roster," said Mrs. William Stineman.

1816 Norris street, aunt of Anderso but he showed it to other women to make them jealous. Mrs. Stineman said that Anderson Continued on Page Twenty-two. Column Six

Ardmore Girl, on Way to School, Suffers Serious Injury On her way to school this morning ten-year-old Dorothy Love, 307 Aubrey avenue, Ardmore, stepped in front of an automobile and was knocked down coast, but smashed their machine in an

HE TOOK NINE SWIGS AND

Recalling Days Bygone

He was bent on having what was known in pre-Volstead days as "a high old time." But many swigs of home brew had not drowned his caution. staggered into the Fourth street and Snyder avenue police sta-tion today as Magistrate O'Connor was holding court. "Wanna meet 'zhudge.' 'he told a sergeant. O'Connor halted the testiand come before you let me go, will you? Tha's a good feller." O'Connor recognized the man and gravely promised to free him provided Lc didn't commit murder.

Mayor and Cortelyou Indicate

'Something Doing Soon." Mr. Moore Says on Return to Of-gambling in this city and results as Mayor Moore, on his return

Director Cortelyou was asked why he employed special investigators instead of having the evidence dug up by regu-lar employes of the Budeau of Police.

or of Assistant Superintendent of Po-lice Kenny. Information Kept Secret raids. "I have nothing to say," he insisted. "The places raided had all been pinched a number of times before.

fraternity.

Self-Styled "Love Slave" Marries a former army officer.

Word has been received in this city Germantown, is living with her hus-

Portuguese Aviators Cross Atlantic

g flown in their hydroairplane Fernando Noronha, thus comleting their trans-Atlantic flight from Starting from Lisbon early in April

John Thompson, 146 Sheldon avenue, Ardmore, who was driving the car, picked up the child and took her to the Bryn Mawr Hospital. Her condition is critical.

Thompson later consequences.

the automobile passed over him. Robertson was arrested and held without bail by Magistrate Renshaw to await the action of the Coroner.

The son you are Leoning rea way found in the help wasted columns.

The son you are Leoning rea way water, either, until noon years.

----HOOVER SHATTERS LOGAN RESIDENTS

Street Brings Demands for elected in a field of twenty.

Quick Repairs

Alarm has seized residents of Logan along the line of the Wingohocking Boat Club, won the amateur single sewer, which collapsed along Courtland sculls championship of the world this sewer, which confided at the street Saturday, between Twelfth and feating Paul Costelle, of the Vesper A great envity in the street marks John's Boat Club, and W. E. Garrett curred. Along the botom rushes a turbid stream of water and refuse, open According to Chief Vogelson, of the Bureau of Survey, no damage has yet been done the houses in the neighborhood, the break affecting only the street and sidewalks, including gas, water and underground telephone lines, broke when the sewer colinpsed. The crater in the street extends from curb to curb. Workmen have been busy shoring up the sides to prevent if possible any further movement of earth. The residents along the "canyon, however, fear that any more rain may cause a further earth slide, a buckling of their house foundations from under-

O. J. Frank, in the plumbing business at Thirteenth and Courtland streets, said today : The sewer is entirely too small. It dous strain upon its walls. mishap. | now extends, as you can see, from side walk to sidewalk, and I figure about 100 yards in length. What I am alarmed about is the chances for a fur-ther earth slide, which might have dis-'I recall the collapse that occurred in August, 1019, along Courtland street.

east from Old York road. A motorcar tumbled in at that time. I made an examination and warned the city and thorities the sewer could not stand the strain puot on it, and urged that it be enlarged. I am looking now for it to collapse right here at my corner. "Eight years ago it did co Connor halted the testiminor case and turned an toward the wobbly one,

'I knew you thirty-five William Robertson, eighteen years old,

North Thirteenth street, spoke of her "Zhudge." I knew you thirty-five William Robertson, eightern years old, sorth Interest of the situation. Sorth Interest of the situation of the situation. Sorth Interest of the situation of the situation of the situation. Sorth Interest of the situation of the sit

SCULLING RECORD

to act, for the conditions all favor Gov-

But Mr. Lasker is one of the do-it-now sort. He brings into politics the habit of putting things through without delay, which has lifted him in business

Lasker Has a Knack

ain ability to deal with men which few business men bring into politics. He

He has along with this force a cerernment aid to shipping.

Two Lengths in Gold

CAVITY FROM CURB TO CURB SETS MARK OF 7:24 FLAT Walter L. Hoover, of the Duluth

the spot where the sewer break oc - Gilmore, of the Bachelors' Barge Club, in the Gold Challenge Cup race of a if a platform is to be adopted-if the mile and a quarter. Hoover's time was 7.24, breaking all to have something to say about it. to the sky and giving forth noxious previous records, including Jack Kelly's mark of 7:35. All of the contestants finished in record-breaking time. The pase set was energy-sapping and thrilled the thousands who lined the course on the river bank. It was estimated that there were close to 6000 spectators standing at points of vantage and there were hundreds of automobiles jammed along the drive.

"It was the fastest race I ever rowed." Hoover admitted when reached the clubhouse. It is now Hoover's ambition to capture the Diamond Sculls. He was undecided about entering the English race

"I leave for New York tonight," he stated, "and sail for England tomor-Hoover's margin of victory was two lengths over Costello. Gilmore, the last man to finish, was not much more than six lengths behind the winner.

FIGHT KNIFE DUEL in Back: Sailor Arrested

Fred Stross, twenty-two years old. 422 High street, Germantown, is in Germantown Hospital with twenty stitches in his back following a knife duel with William C. Halloway, a sailor from the U. S. S. Bridgeport. sailor from the U. S. S. Bridgeport. every week, and if you don't, to jail Halloway was arrested and said his you go sure." home is in Augusta, Ga.

The stabbing grew out of an argument which started on the corner o

Sprague street and Germantown avenue. Halloway pulled a knife and at-tacked Stross, who defended himself with a similar weapon. A large crowd gathered and a squad of police was sent to the scene. Halloway's thumb was ilmost severed in the encounter. Halloway was held under $300 hall for a further hearing June 13 by Magistrate Lindell.