Have You Been on an Excursion Into the Mystic Land of Fashion Lately?

The Writer Spent a Happy Day at Canterbury, England with Canon Farrar, so gentle and courteous, in his own home, close by the Cathedral.

It is a pleasure to give simply his own words, which are so well worth keeping. Here they are, word for word. Cut them out to save and read often:

"Do not be troubled, if in spite of all that thou triest to do, the times are out of joint and things go wrong, and thou seemest to do no good. Even thy poor good deeds cannot die, and when they are taken from the hands of time, years afterwards, it may be that they shall rise in golden grain."

June 5, 1922.

For Commencement Gifts—Choose Books

For the young girls there are special books, such as "The Girl Graduate," "The Girl Graduate Scrap Book," and dozens of others with places for signatures and all sorts of records of the great day.

For both girls and men there are modern and classic fiction, biography, books of poetry and books in fine bindings, history, and such interesting recent examples as H. G. Wells' "Outline." Business books are an especially good choice for young men with their way to make. Some people who don't wish to give books give book-ends—here in great variety at $1.75 to $17.50.

Mirrors Versus Eyes

An old poet says "the truest mirror that an honest wife can see her beauty in is her husband's eye."

Most women, however, want a real looking-glass for practical service. And it generally happens that a fine mirror is among the most welcome gifts for a bride.

Among the hundreds of mirrors suited for gifts in the Picture Store, there are in particular some five-foot mantel or buffet mirrors that are exceptionally good for $40, $42.50 and $45.

They are in three sections, with miter-cut ends, and attractive frames of decorated dull gilt.
