More of the All-Wool Government Blankets at $3.65 Each $70 for a Bale of 20

Last lot of these good blankets disappeared in a single day and many people have been waiting for this shipment.

The blankets are olive-drab in color and were made for the U. S. A. (so stamped and inspected) by the best mills in the country.

They are new, perfect, and all-wool—tests showed 99.14 to 99.88 per cent all-wool; 4 to 4 1/2 pounds in weight; measuring approximately 66x84 inches.

Their Summer Uses Are Limitless Campers, yachtsmen, hikers, motor gypsies, outdoor sleepers need them.

People with seashore bungalows will get enough for all beds. Even stay-at-homes can use these blankets in couch hammocks, to spread on the ground for picnics or to toss in the car at night.

Institutions and settlement houses will find these blankets the best values in years. Uncle Sam Paid $7.35 to $8 for These Blankets

The mill cost today (wholesale lots) is more than our price—$3.65. Not since the war have new all-wool blankets been offered for so little.

Announcing a New Departure in Corsetry—Gardenia Corsets Designed Especially for Junior Girls

There has long been a need for very light, very flexible straight-line corsets designed especially for slender, immature young figures.

A clever woman, of long experience in corset making, has given this a great deal of thought and has produced for the Wanamaker Down Stairs Store the Gardenia Corset.

Gardenia corsets are entirely different from women's corsets. They are cut on absolutely straight lines, have almost no boning and a wide use of elastic webbing instead.

Materials are daintiness itself—pink poplins and satin-striped fabrics, with dear little bows, touches of lace and satin reinforcements.

Models start with a light little hip band which is only 9 inches deep to a corset which any small woman would like.

Prices range from $2.50 to $5.50.

A Sale of Blouses, $1.85 Manufacturer's samples and some blouses from our own stock of which there were just one or two of a kind.

Women's Low White Shoes Celebrate Their "Coming Out" With a Low Price—$5

We have taken particular care with the materials and finish of our white shoes. This season we are able to get finer, better-weaving canvases for one thing, and we have insisted upon neat finish in the bindings, etc.

White soles finish pumps of white canvas with buttoned instep straps and covered medium heels.

Smart oxfords combine fine white canvas and white calfskin admirably. The straight tips, waistbands and back straps are of calfskin with well-cut perforations.

Sports Oxfords and Calfskin Pumps, $5.75 Oxfords have corrugated soles and flat heels of flexible white fiber.

Pumps are entirely of white calfskin and have wing tips, buckle straps and low heels.

Note: The low shoes in both groups have white welts in the soles. Let us show you what that means.
