Behold the Graduate, Standing Proudly Before the World in the Full Bloom of Youth

An Old, Intimate London Friend, Newman Hall
 In whose home I tarried, said this:
 "Work for some good, be it ever so lowly,
 Work for some hope, be it ever so lowly,
 Work, for all labor is noble and holy."
 To have something to do is worth while, even if there be no necessity driving us to it.
 Occupation drives away care and the small troubles of life.
 The busy man or woman has no time to fret or worry.
 There is a joy in being useful that no idle man knows, any more than the mole in the ground.

[Signed] John Wanamaker

June 6, 1922.

Polished and finished and ready for life with its struggles and victories, its cares and joys.

The fair girl graduate or the man graduate will carry memories of Commencement Day throughout the years—will be consoled by them in failure, will be cheered by them in despair.

So let the day ring joyful, with showers of gifts—the finest and best.

And in this treasure-land of pretty things at Wanamaker's is everything a youthful heart could yearn for.

Her Graduation Gown Really Must Be of Snowy White

IT IS the color that is important, not so much the material. In fact, one can choose from crepe de chine, Canton crepe, Georgette crepe, voile and organdie with the comfortable feeling that any one is in good taste.

The tendency is all toward the dress of utmost simplicity, perhaps the only trimming being fagoting or flowers made of the material itself. Some of the loveliest of such dresses are in crepe de chine, Canton crepe and Georgette crepe with prices starting as low as $18.75 and going up to $55.

In fine white voile and organdie, there are some exquisitely dainty styles, ruffled a bit or scalloped, but always simple and youthful. Some of the voiles are entirely hand made. Prices start at $17.50 and end at $32.50.

All are dresses one will wear all Summer, and white promises to be even more fashionable than ever. Sizes in all styles from 14 to 20.

Exquisite Are the Hats Planned for Girl Graduates

Once upon a time only an all-white hat was considered appropriate for the many affairs taking place during Commencement Week, but now the pretty, delicately tinted hat trimmed with flowers or feathers is generally preferred.

Quite the loveliest of its kind is a large flat straw hat in hydrangea blue, almost covered with an uncurled ostrich feather in pale orchid. Or if orange is becoming, one would be strongly tempted to choose a hat in this shade trimmed solely with fine cream lace.

But there are the loveliest shades of pink, blue and yellow straws and natural-colored leghorns, any one of which would be most effective with a white dress. $12 to $25 are the prices.

(Second Floor)

FINE French Perfume Pleases Every Girl

and the graduating young woman is no exception.

A dainty gift of the famous extract Fleurette at $5; or the much-liked Fleur d'Or at $6.50, each in its unique little Paris bottle and box, will be sure to please her.

Perfume droppers of decorated crystal are much used for gifts, $1.25 to $7.50.

(Main Floor)

IMITATION Jade Ornaments

are among the pretty things people are selecting for commencement gifts to girls. There are strings of oval or round beads in varying lengths, bead and other types of bracelets, and black cordeliers with imitation jade pendants.

Prices range from $1.25 for one of the cords with pendant to $15 for a necklace.

(Main Floor)

First Among Graduation Gifts Comes a Good Watch

No matter whether it is for a young woman or a young man, it will be welcome.

For a girl graduate a 14-kt. gold wrist watch would be particularly nice. Many different kinds in well-known makes are here from $33 to $215.

Or there are gold-filled wrist watches for as little as $18 to $41.

The finest of all, of course, are the tiny platinum wrist watches set with diamonds. Priced $450 to $705.

For a young man graduate it should be preferably a 14-kt. gold watch from $34 to $310. Or barring that, a gold-filled watch from $19 to $71.

(Main Floor)

COMMENCEMENT Slippers

may be of fine white canvas with one strap and high or low French heel. Priced $9 and $12 a pair.

Or of white kid or buckskin, with one strap, at $15 a pair.

Or white satin at $12 a pair.

Attractive white satin sandals, cut out on the side and fastening with one pearl button strap, are $15.

They have moderate French heels.

(First Floor)

A FAN for the Graduate's Gift

It may be of white gauze, perfectly simple or lace trimmed or gilt or silver spangled, or it may be painted gauze. It may be of ostrich feathers, long or broad, but always picturesque in shape, and lovely in color—green, sapphire, orchid, rose or pink.

Prices $3.50 to $20.

Now That He's Ready to Graduate

The young man is thinking of prosaic things—CLOTHES, real smart, good clothes and if he is going to keep abreast of the class

He Will Want at Least Two Mighty Fine Suits

First of all blue serge for Commencement Day. More than likely his father wore blue serge when he graduated and it's a safe statement his grandchildren will do the same. Blue serge suits, in smart young men's models, are priced $35 and $40.

Then a light suit for the other merry affairs. Probably a sports model with a half belt in the back, patch pockets and all the other fixings that mean youth and love of the great outdoors. Priced $28 to $35.

(Third Floor)

He Steps From the Platform Into the World—a Man, in Brogues

It's almost a rule that a young man wears black shoes at the graduation ceremonies, but being black, they needn't be staid or out of fashion.

For brogues come in black—brogues that are just as smart and just as good to see and to wear as the tan ones. Of black Scotch grain calfskin, enlivened by small, neat perforations. Smart, solid brogues and priced $10.

(Main Floor)

If He Picked Out His Own Shirt It Most Likely Would Be White

White and silk broadcloth, the neatest shirt a man could wear in Summer—and serviceable.

It's mighty certain that white silk broadcloth shirts will be worn by many a young man on graduation day, and thousands more will be given as graduation remembrances.

Particularly good shirts are here, either with neckband or collar attached, for $8.50.

200 Women's Wonderful Gingham Dresses Only $6.75

The gingham is fine and closely woven and soft and the colors are clear and pretty—greens, reds, blues, yellows, browns and black with white.

All the dresses are in checks, large and small; there are probably a dozen styles including circular skirts, and sizes for everybody from 34 to 44 inches.

Women who like to be prettily dressed at slight expense are likely to buy such things by the half dozen.

(First Floor)

For Baby, More Lovely Hand-Made Things From Paris

Another shipment of adorable frocks, both long and short.

To say they are hand made of the mull, batiste or nainsook, and most exquisitely hand embroidered and lace trimmed (real lace mostly), gives no idea of their prettiness.

(Third Floor)

And with all the fineness and beauty, they are cheaper than any we have had. Priced $2.25 to $16.50.

With them came another collection of charming caps at $3 to $5.50; bibs at $2.25 to $5, and pillow cases at $3.75 to $8.50. All hand made and hand embroidered.

French Hand-Made Lingerie for Girls

Little girls and big, for sizes run from four to sixteen years.

Made by hand of durable yet dainty materials, in good, practical styles, and beautifully hand embroidered. A girl will enjoy wearing them. Nightgowns at $5 to $6.75. Chemises at $3.25 to $4.50. Drawers at $2 to $3.75. Drawer-bodies at $2.75 to $3.50.

(Third Floor)

Costume Slips and Camisoles

Five new styles are in today: one of lawn with the hem double to the hip—price, $3.50; two of nainsook with camisole tops at $3.50 and $3.75; a fourth and fifth with lace, double panels and camisole tops—prices, $3.50 and $3.85.

Also 300 camisoles of radium and crepe de chine, tailored and lace trimmed in pink, white and orchid—price, $1.

(Third Floor)

1550 Newcomers in the Waist Sale

300 Porto Rican waists at $1.85. Exceedingly pretty things with hand-made collars and cuffs.

250 Georgette and crepe de chine waists and over-blouses at $3.85.

Samples and surplus lots; some white, most of them colored, many beaded.

1000 waists at $1.65.

Dimities and cross-bar muslins chiefly, and chiefly white; a few have a touch of color.

(East and West Aisles)

6000 Yards of Checked Dress Gingham, Special at 20c

A substantial American gingham in checks of several sizes.

Black and white, blue and white, pink and white, red and white, brown and white, green and white and lavender and white.

Excellent for dresses, aprons, children's sturdy frocks and Summer porch cushions. 27 inches wide.

(West Aisle)

Dollar Petticoats for Summer

Strong and serviceable affairs of white sateen, made perfectly plain and with a double hem reaching to the hip.

Price, $1.

(Third Floor)

Imported Gloves Special at $1

Chamois lisle in the sixteen-button length, with an excellent suede finish, and in good shades of beaver, ponce and gray as well as black and white.

1900 More U. S. Army All-Wool Blankets at $3.65

(For Which Uncle Sam Paid $7 to $8 Each)

Buy a Bale of 20 for $70 (Up Stairs and Down Stairs)

Please mark that these are all new blankets, in original bales. Do not confuse them with "re-claimed" blankets.

They are stamped U. S. and with inspector's tag; specially constructed for army use over these specifications; 4 to 4½ pounds weight, 66 to 68x84 to 88 inches in size.

Splendid for boy and girl campers, hikers, Summer tenters along the shore, motor "gypsies," bungalow colonies, outdoor sleepers, yachtsmen; as well as all who use this sort of blanket indoors in Summer homes, for beds, couch covers, even for baby on the floor or grass.

On sale on the Sixth Floor and in the Down Stairs Store regular blanket sections, with the blankets open for inspection and wrapped for quick taking away or delivery, in lots of one or two and in bales.

Institutions, settlement houses, camps, schools, fresh air homes—will buy the bale and save money—in bales of 20 the blankets cost only $3.50 each or $70 the bale.

(Sixth Floor and Down Stairs Store)

The Best Panama Hat a Man Could Wear is the soft, supple, comfortable natural panama, in the natural color and the natural shape.

And the best natural panamas to be had are at Wanamaker's.

Young men and men not so young have been buying all they could get, for it's the finest hat in years.

Prices start at $12 and go up to $100, with the greatest choosing at $15, $18 and $20.

(Main Floor)

Summer Lamp Shades

Cool, pretty and bright: parchment shades painted in a dozen different designs. Size 16 inches, being designed for table lamps. Price, $12.

(Fourth Floor)

A Clean, Odorless Home

is the home where Wanamaker Chlorides have been brought to chase dirt and foul scent.

Chlorides are splendid as deodorant and disinfectant.

Price, 45 cents the quart bottle.

(Fourth Floor)

Summer Door Curtains Mean Cool and Inviting Rooms

Assortments are excellent in cotton, and cotton-and-silk madras.

Mostly in sunfast colors, and all the new iridescent shades are included, notably blue, gray, green and brown.

Prices, $8, $9.50, $13.50 and $16 a pair.

Snowflake stenciled door curtains in blue, old rose, tan and green, the colors stenciled in oil, are especially good value at $3.25 a pair.

(Fifth Floor)
