EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, SATURDAY, JUNE 10, 1922

I PONT HEIRESS READY TO COOK ON HONEYMOON

mocratic Stepdaughter of Powder Multi-Millionire Will Wed Penniless Student Now Rhodes Scholar

Well Trained as House wife; but Hopes for Brilliant Career on Operatic Stage Even After Marriage is an iron gate at the entrance ifred I. Du Pont's home, rs, near Wilmington, Del. Alfred This iron gate is so constructed that not only prevents sightseers from enthe curlous passeraby.

the curious passersoy. And for many years this gate was rmbol, an indication of the sheltered led by Alicia du Pont, daughter of second wife of Alfred du Pont by art Alicia went abroad in the fall at Alicia went abroad in 1920, and on the Aquitania again Barold Glendenning, whom she had known in 1918 during the war, in he went to the Carney's Point at of the du Pont Powder Works chemist in the Government service. The friendship continued after they bed Europe, and last week word the Wilmington that she had been have to the penniless Rhodes scholar eighteen months, and would marry on June 28.

in June 28. They have married poor men iterses have even married their the all-day picnic by Alfred du Pont and talk with them. To ber they were people—just as interesting as any titled count or lady she had met abroad.

starved sculptors. it seldom, if ever before, has ar announced that she would marry Alicia Not Snobbish; niless son of a mail-carrier, and who had ambitions to become this case mail-carrier's son is a Rhodes

Nother Was Secretary to Millionaire Suitor

Alleia du Pont is nineteen years old. the is the step-daughter of Alfred I. a Font, the daughter of his second rife, who was Mrs. George Armory Gddox, Maddox being one of du Pont's

The providence of Philadelphia, also had been diverced. It was as a result of this second mar-rage that the fight for control of the a Pont Powder Works began and that Affred I, du Pont was ousted as vice president and director through the loss of his $58,000,000 suit. On her mother's side of the family the second Mrs. du Pont was of the du Pont blood, her mother being a daughter of Alexis I. du Pont, who was caughter of the family in America—a French. refuges who camp. caughter of Alexis I. du Pont, who was what Alicia wanted more ther congeniality and similarity of the rongeniality and similarity of the more cond caughter was marked. But the more con-ther so the du Pont family

Alicia duPont, stepdaughter of powder millionaire, who will be bride Howard Glendenning, now a Rhodes scholar of a lovable disposition and very popu-lar, though she was little known in Wil-mington—the iron gate doing its duty last year it was changed to Glendenin keeping her sheltered and protected. ning in honor of the promoter. Among her father's workers at the The home is a comfortable two-story

Among her father's workers at the The home is a confortable two-story frame house, an unpretentious Ameri-can home, with a large porch almost all the way around, surrounded by shrubs and trees. In no way is the contrast between the material position of two families more clearly shown than by a comparison of their homes: the Glen-der the start and the start and starts and the starts blant she was a great favorite-espedenning home, small and simple, and the du Pont home, the palatial Nemours, which contains more than a bundred rooms and grounds of 2000

Shuns Class Distinction

acres. The du Font house is built along French lines. The main ballways ex-tend the entire depth of the house, with long French windows on a level with the floor at either end. They open The gardener's baby was just as in-teresting to her as the baby of any of her multimillionaire friends. She had abso-lutely no idea of class distinction, she was never snobbish or "stuck up." Her mother decided early in life that her education should be such that she would denote the such that she would the such the such that she would the such the such that she would tha Almost as great a contrast can be wife, who was Mrs. George Armory Modox, Maddox being one of du Pont's meretaries. Mr. du Pont's marriage to Mrs. Mad-in, who was Miss Alicia Bradford, of Minington, took place in 1920, after in her own name. She went to the in her own name. She went to the funeral in the severest of black dresses with a narrow white band in the neck. People saw her, nodded their heads approvingly and said. "Alicia always did dress simply and in the best of the sa a nawlt of this second mar-time a securit of this second mar-

Anniversary Values for Monday!

STRAWBRIDGE & CLOTHIER

SEMENT STORE

Just judge this new Lower-Priced Basement Store by these values on sale Monday!

And know that behind every transaction-even at these very, very low prices — there is that guarantee of complete satisfaction—the SEAL OF CONFIDENCE.

New Lot of Girls' Gingham Frocks

95c

Plaid and check gingham Wash Dresses, some of which are worth three times 95c. In almost every color, prettily made, many with patent leather belts, and contrasting collars and cuffs.

Copenhagen blue Balkan Blouses, too, and strongly made Middles with collars of red, Copenhagen and navy blues or self-color. These are at the same special price-95c.

All groups in sizes 6 to 14 years. Strawbridge & Clothler-

50c Baby Creepers and Rompers of a good quality of striped and checked gingham, or all-white material. Washable, sturdy, and attractive. Sizes 6 months to 4 years. All worth half

$1

-30C.

Windsor Crepe

Night Gowns

$1

Hundreds of these women's cool

Night Gowns of Windsor Crepe, in white, flesh pink, and dainty allover flowered effects. All with round neck, and neatly finished with stitch-

Strawbridge & Clothier-Lower-Price Basement Store

Introducing Ramona Corsets Sold Only in This Basement Store

to

Ramona Corsets are made expressly for us. They are not on'y up-to-the-minute in style, but of exceptionally fine quality, scientifically designed and made to give long, comfortable and satisfactory service. We believe them to be absolutely the best Corsets obtainable at their low prices. Illustrated are several of the most desirable models for all figures.

Corsets : $2.00

For slender to average figures; made of pink coutil, with elastic top, flexibletop front clasp to prevent "digging in," and long over the hips and back. An unusually desirable model. Exceptional at $2.00.

$1.95

$1.95

Corsets : $2.50

For average to stout figures; made of pink coutil, with low bust and long hips. reinforced. Three pairs of hose supporters. A most desirable, comfortable, figure-molding Corset at an extremely low price-$2.50.

$1.95

$2.50

Designed particularly for stout fig-ures, and for general hard wear. Well boned throughout, with graduating front clasp, reinforced over abdomen, medium high bust, long over hips. Most unusual value—$3.50. Strawbridge & Clothier-Lower-Price Basement Store

Monday A Happy Day for Misses-

Newly arrived dresses, at several prices, have come in and are ready to greet Miss-14-to-20 bright and early Monday.

Gingham Dresses One-third Under Price

be as unaware as possible of artificial barriers between persons, and that she would not consider the family tree the most important thing in a person's life. Girl Lives in a Palace, the Boy in a Cottage arrative members of the du Pont family Aquitania.

champloned the cause of the first Mrs. Affred I. du Pont, and open friction was finally the result. And when the second Mrs. du Pont took her place as mistress of the pala-tial home. "Nemours," she brought with her, her daughter, Alicia, who took the du Pont name. Aduitania. And on the Aquitania was Harold Glendenning. And on the Aquitania the idea of becoming Mrs. Harold Glendenning be-gan to have its attractions for Alicia. No Glamour or Riches in Life of Glendenning

in Life of Glendenning

Alicia Learned to Cook

and to Manage House

and so the daughter of the woman who had coused a social and political phenomy which shook the States of phenome should make an associal and political phenomy who had coused a social and political phenomy which shook the States of phenome should be associated way. And the states of phenome should know at least the of the social way in the

And so the young heiress grew up in a samosphere of beauty. luxury, intel-cual superiority and talent. Her and her semerirable considering her and her education, which had in chemistry, which was his favorite

He entered Dartmouth College in September, 1917, and tutored students to get the money to continue his edu-cation. When he was only twenty years old he received his A. B. degree.

After his graduation from college he went to the du Pont Powder Works

In Life of Glendenning The second Mrs. du Pont was a woman of beauty, splendid intellect and a lover of literature. These things Alicia inherited from her mother. She has always been fond of reading, and her general characteristics are revealed in her mother gave her a beau-the child came and stood by her mother. "Why, dear?" queried her mother. "Because," said the child, "they are all about horrible common people who st galwass killing some one ""

"We dear?" queried her mother.
"Breause," said the child, "they are in the data of the maximum and the more fractionating, and the shelps."
Mise duriting some one."
Mise always killing some one."
Mise always been fond of music, "in the saile of the pennites scholar who will be graduated from the shear always been fond of music,"
The has always been fond of music, "in the sailed for England on the swear since in the was a small child scholar who has been dead for seven shear always been fond of music,"
Whe has always been fond of music, "is oppend three years allo and his father, "is oppend three years allo and her solar who has been dead for seven swears allo and her work of the off the seven seven she was a sing tractice looks."
When her was a sing tractition of the degrees. Here in June, 1923, doctor of philoson avenue. Norwalk Postofice for the format. They live with Mrs. Gleendenning is taking engineering as the twenty-three years oid, and the solar who has berde do not return to this twenty-three years oid, and her mother. Laura Berna accompanied by Alicia. Bernam, They live with Mrs. Gleendenning, a mil-curite of the of seven short, Laura Bernam, They live with Mrs. Gleendenning, the leand a free set has accompanied by Alicia. Bernam, They live with Mrs. Gleendenning, the leand a free set here in Norwalk, are in moderate inform. They live with Mrs. Stored and the docks of the former. Laura the beat set to be the server with the set of the destruct. Major and his bride such and the wedding of his own daughter, the edding druggists of the town. The lean here wedding of his own daughter, the set of the developed the surroun

Uncommon Sense : Manners Will Make a Market

The is a lout when he applies for a position—which he never gets. He is a lout when he falls into the hands of the law for some minor of-fense, and usually gets an extra month's sentence because his loutiahness preju-dices the Judge against him. The than to be a lout, but downs of the well-mannered man markes his own market, and if he can market, of course, that he has the base the ba

Ready-to-Wear Sports Hats Strawbridge & Clothier-Lower-Price Basement Store Savings of a $1.95 A Very Special Full Third Special Purchase Group Women's Hats in shapes, materials and colors that will be seen at all the smart summer resorts this season. In the group are Hats of organdie, crepe Georgette and satin, as well as banded sports Sailors of fine straw. A limited quantity at this price-$1.95.

Dainty Trimmed Summer Hats, $2.95 and $3.75

You may choose your Hat from models of satin or crepe, silk-embroidered or self-trimmed. In white, sand, navy blue and white. Worth a great deal more than this Lower-Price Basement Store has marked them. → Strawbridge & Clothier-Lower-Price D.

Fresh Group of Dresses of Imported Gingham $4.95

How quickly they bought up the first lot of these Women's Summer Dresses of imported gingham! We have obtained another lot, just as attractive, just as worthy, just as low in price. They will greet you Monday morning—checks of all sizes in every wanted color. Some straight-line models, others with plaited panels, plaited organdie collars and pockets, embroidered figures and lace. Sizes 34 to 44. In short, a wonderful collection at a wonderfully low price—$4.95.

New Lot of $13.75 Silk Dresses for Women Arrive

These are the same sort of Dresses that brought such crowds of purchasers to this Lower-Price Basement Store this week.

Fashionable summer Dresses of foulard, printed Georgette, or crepe de chine, charmeuse and Spanish lace. Beaded, embroidered or plain. Sizes 34 to 44. One-third to one-half under price-$13.75.

Ber Strawbridge & Clothier-Lower-Price Basement

$2.50

Styles that hardly a Miss can resist, and a quality that calls for more than a $2.50 price-elsewhere!

American gingham, chiefly checked, with some plaids, in every conceivable summer color. All with short sleeves, some with contrasting collars and cuffs of organdie and linene. Straightline and waist-line belted models, some plaited, some ruffle-trimmed. They will be quickly sold at $2.50.

Numerous styles of silk Dresses at far less than regular prices-$8.75 and $11.75.

Silk and Wool Capes-$9.75 to $19.75.

Wool Fabric Wraps, more than onethird under the usual price—$19.75. Misses' Coats of Herringbone Tweed and Polaire Wool cloth, at average savings of one-third — $7.75 to $22.75.

Full-Fashioned Silk Stockings 95°

Women's Stockings in two sizes,

8 to 10. Slightly imperfect, or they would sell for one-half more. Full-fashioned silk, with cotton tops and soles. In black or white, and about 3600 pairs to supply what is sure to be a large demand.

Strawle des 2 station-1 ower Price Rassment Storn

Women's Ribbed Cotton Union Suits-Special at 45°

With many in extra sizes at 55c. All are one-third under the regular retail price: of fine ribbed cotton with band top, low neck, sleeveless and either tight or loose knees. Buy your share from this collection of 3000. Lower Price Basement Store

Women's Petticoats of White Tub Silk $1.95

Double panel, front ad back. Finished with hemstitches. They will sell quickly, for they are well made, and a full third less than usual in price-$1.95.

Strawbridge & Cothier-Lower-Price Hasement Store

Gingham Pantie Dresses, Every One at Half Price 75°

Mothers will see these identical Pantie Dresses in the same quality of checked gingham selling for twice this checked gingham sching for die plain price. Many colors, bound in plain shades, embroidery-trimmed pockets. Sizes 2 to 6 years-75c. Strawbridge & Clothier-Lower-Price Basemont Store

Bungalow Aprons Special Value 75c

> Aprons so attractive you might imost take them for house dresses. Of checked and striped gingham, fig-ured percale and plain chambray in a great assortment of colorings, and in all women's sizes. Dozens of models, all finished with rick-rack braid or plain binding. Worth from one-third to one-half more than 75c.

Strawbridge & Clothler-

ing. One-third under price-$1.00.