Cool Breezes Forever Play Behind the Granite Portals of the Wanamaker Store and Soft Lights Fall Upon a World of Dainty, Summer Beauty

How Much There Is for Old and Young to Learn to Do

The darkest shadows any of us can get under are those a man makes for himself when he gets in his own light, persuading himself to believe that his neglects, mistakes and age have passed him along to a time when it is impossible to be of use to himself, his family and his neighbors.

We must always live—

"For the cause that lacks assistance,
For the wrong that needs resistance,
For the future in the distance,
And the good that I can do."

[Signed]

John Wanamaker

June 10, 1922.

A Lovely New Silk Cape With a Fox Fur Collar

A real Summer cape of an exquisite silk, which one hardly knows how to describe, the weave is so novel. It is light, even though made of the silk doubled instead of a lining. To give fullness, there is shirring over the shoulders.

At the bottom are two wide tucks and the fox collar is dyed to match the color of the cape—for example, a beautiful biscuit shade, cobweb gray or black.

The price is $135.

Dark Lace Gowns Are the Greatest Favorites

Not only is a gown of black, blue or brown lace almost invariably becoming, but it can be used for so many occasions—for informal dinner or for the restaurant, for Summer evenings.

And the new gowns are graceful and artistic in design, with airy side draperies, and airy sleeves or draperies which take the place of sleeves, and the general clinging effect.

some combined with a silk crepe or with Georgette. The girdles are one of the most novel features, being beaded in colors which are a complete contrast to the color scheme of the dress.

Prices are $47.50 to $60.

An Aristocrat Among White Buck Oxfords for Women

Priced $15 a pair. A new white buck oxford with black patent leather saddle is $13; and a new one-strap pump of white buck is $10; both with low broad heels and soles of white leather.

New in Canton Crepe Dresses for Young Women

Would you call it a new wing panel dress? No other name seems to fit the graceful draperies which extend down each side of the skirt.

Otherwise the lines are just about as simple as it is possible to have them. Silk gartering at the hip and bust line and around the neck and sleeves. It is truly a delightful dress and so different! In white, navy or black, $37.50.

Another new arrival is a lovely little Canton crepe frock for afternoons. It is copied from an

Antiques

What charming things may be done with unrelated old furniture!

The Antique Shop shows a delightful bedroom setting composed of eight old pieces of furniture from almost as many different sources, grouped into a harmonious suite by means of personal thought and clever decoration. All, regardless of original woods, have been painted a soft, mellow antique ivory, with deep coral striping and a motif of baskets of roses.

The decorative effect is completed by ruffled bedspread and dressing-table draperies of red-dotted white swiss.

As finished, the suite comprises a quaint low four-post bed, complete with all modern fittings; chest of drawers, dressing table, drop-leaf bedside table, rocker and straight chair, both rush seated; and two mirrors.

The quaint old pieces were decorated in our own studios, and similar pieces can be decorated to your personal order.
