

| We Envy YouYour FIRST Reading |
| :---: |
|  |  |
|  |
|  |
| Bryan T. Holland |
|  |  |
|  |
| A book to read, and read |
| again, for its charm,humor and gentle, kindly |
|  |  |
|  |

The
Unspeakable Gentleman

|  |
| :---: |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |
|  |  |

SEARCH

| We Envy You |
| :--- |
| Your FIRST Reading |
| of |
| Aagrant Tune |
| Br |
| Bryan T. Holland |
| Grandson of Mrrs. Gaskell of |
| "Cranford" |
| $\begin{array}{l}\text { A book to read, and read } \\ \text { again, for its charm, } \\ \text { humor and gentle, kindly } \\ \text { spirit. } \\ \text { SMALL, MAYNARD \& COMPANY }\end{array}$ |

| A NOVELIST WITH A MOR |
| :---: |
| $\begin{array}{c}\text { Margaret Deland Has Written } \\ \text { Another Great Moral Tale }\end{array}$ |

and
and

|  |  | long and much too delicately phrased to  TRIP OF THE ELKS  FROM COAST TO COAST  "Coast to Coast With the Elks"  F. Huntziger Company, Ca  and observations of three Philad  members of "B. I'. O. E."' in by nutotruck over the old Nan  Angeles. This Elk trio. starting  months ahead, acted as a vangu a delegation of 550 brothers  Philadelphia Lodge for an annua  The itinerary took the trio throug  twelve States and they offel Fiks headquarters in more |
| :---: | :---: | :---: |

FOUR GOOD BOOKS

"Any one toho objecte to "Wolla at Mo best" taughting should NOT reud clatims one critte

| Cyril Alington's  now. noval | H. G. Welle' |
| :--- | ---: |
| new novel |  |

THROUGH THE SECRETPLACES
OFTHSHEART
$\qquad$
is N. P. Dawwon's opinion. sho further callo it
story with a inet woill writion
 comedy as has appearted in atong
time."-Cincinnati Timet-Start. 1.75

THE PRINCIPLES OFINTERIOR DECORATION
By Bernerd C. Jekweny

Another wottenews to Grith of the Rusian
domoerrocy"
RUSSIA
TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW
By Peul N. mumuthoo

THE MACMILLAN COMPANY
64-66 Fifth Av
Ma
wilon
thon
plet

You Book ReadersYou Book Sellers-

$\qquad$ get," but every one will know in the bottom of his of the carnage. To us it seems a duty to keep alive tortan of the carnage. To us it seems a duty to keep ailive for ourselves and for the generation now maturing the rich treasures of bravery full-tested and the stern realitics of he horrible

Do not say "forget the war!"
We say "remember it!"

$$
\begin{aligned}
& \text { A wonderful literature can blosoom from the mud of the } \\ & \text { trenches. It is apringing up now. It is the stronget }
\end{aligned}
$$

trenches. It is springing up now. It is the stronget weapon for peace. Believing thiw, we are publishhing tuch
a novel as "Way of Revelation" by Wilfrid Ewart -a a novel as Way of Revelation by Wifrid Ewart - truly thrilling ingerest. We publish this and will pubbisit other novels of the war-because we feel that thise who

We Say

"Remember the War!"
D. Appleton And Company

Publiahert of "Way of Revolation"
 Modern Library):

