BAKER SIDESTEPS ON ASSESSMENTS

State Chairman Will Leave Collection of Campaign Fund to Committee

WOMEN WILL BE NAMED

The assessment of officeholders and other means of financing the fall campaign will be referred to a Finance Committee, which he will name soon. W. Harry Baker, Republican State chairman, asserted today.

At the reorganization meeting Sat-urday, when Baker was elected chair-man, Gifford Pinchot, Republican nom-inee for Governor, served notice he would not tolerate assessment of ofpaign along strictly business lines."

Said Mr. Baker. "It is my intention to get in touch with the three principal candidates and learn their wishes. Nothing savering of factionalism will

Mr. Baker said he would name a Fi-mance Committee of fifteen members and an Executive Committee of fif-teen members. Women will be named to each, he said.

Major David A. Reed, a nominee for United States Senate, at the committee meeting Saturday, said he favored "voluntary" contributions from officeholders. Senator Pepper, nominated for the balance of Senator Penrose's term, said he believed in leaving the question of Mr. Baker conferred here today with deny it. Mrs. Barelay II. Warburton, vice chairman; Senator T. Larry Evre, of Chester County, and others.

PINCHOT JUNTA TO MEET HERE JUNE 20

Milford. Pa., June 13.-The fiftcenth member of the unofficial commission to costs.

make a survey of State finances, Mrs.

William Thaw, of Pittsburgh, has magist William Thaw, of Pittsburgh, has telegraphed her acceptance to Gifford Pinchot at Grev Towers.

Shortly after his arrival from Boston, where he has gone on a brief business trip with his wife, Mr. Pinchot expects ham Dougherty, of Cross Ronds, Wynto receive acceptances from the three cote, with whom she lives. remaining members of the commission, which will number eighteen. The first meeting has been called for June 20, and will be held in the City Club, Phil-•delphia.

Since the meeting of the Republican State Committee in Philadelphia, Saturday, many letters and telegrams have been received at Grey Towers, con-gratu ating the Forester upon his deter-mined stand against the bosses in de-claring himself against assessment of Miceholders to raise campaign funds.

Following his return from Boston, the Forester will confer with General Asher Miner, his defeated candidate for the chairmanship of the State Com-mitree. Thursday he will confer with William S. Buckland, Pinchot leader of Montgomery County. The following The following ton, to de iver the commencement ad the Freeland Mining and Mechanical Institute.

Mr. Pinchot will be in Philadelphia to, address the initial meeting of his finance survey commission, and will then return to Grey Towers.

About September 4 he will begin a State-wide tour by automobile and will. as he did during the pre-primary days, make five or six speeches daily. By his cause personally to the great ma-jority of the voters before the general election in November.

Arrest Mrs. Brunen in Murder Probe

Continued from Page One She called neighbors, she said, and they

ummoned a physician. Mrs. Brunen was questioned by De-Poulton, an officer of the Boot and tecrive Parker, but at first only in a Shoe Workers' Union.

perfunctory fashion, as he wished to full her into a sense of security. Her mail and telephone calls were watched from the time of the murder, and she was followed when she left home. Circus Man Feared Death

Various persons were questioned by the police, but all released. Mrs. Elizabeth Jaeschke, a sister of the murdered man, caused a sensation when she revealed a letter written to her in Chi-cago by Brunen, in which he predicted that he would be murdered, and begged his sister to show the letter to the authorities in that event. He said in the letter that he feared his wife was plotting against him. Detective Parker kept secret his moves until April 29, when he an-nounced that he had arrested Powell three weeks previously as the murderer. Powell had confessed that he had fired the fatal shot. Parker announced. The confessed murderer asserted that he had been hired to commit the crime by Mohr, who was arrested in Camden

According to Powell's confession, Mohr said he wanted Brunen killed for his brutality toward his wife and her mother. Mohr denied the charges in every detail.

Hurls Subpoena

Continued from Page One pushed the maid aside, the latter said,

and ran up the stairway.

$2875 Necklace Missing

Investigation disclosed that the stranger was not the only thing that suddenly left the house. On a table near the door of the library past which he made his way to and from Mrs. Chambers' room there was a pearl necklace valued at $2675.

The pearls were missing after the process server, David Hartman, thirtyone, of Brooklyn, left the house. Detecstreet station, responded to a notice to the police of the violent intrusion of the process server. Durning found the sums mons had been issued in a suit by the uardians of a boy struck last March by the Chambers' automobile. Through the Hartman. The process server was taken to confront Mrs. Chambers. She identified him, and he admitted forcing his way to her while in her bath and throwing the summons at her.

station. He was president of the Lambskin Club, a Masonic organization composed of police and firemen in this composed of police a Hartman denied seeing the pearls, at was held on a charge of stealing tem and another of disorderly conduct or his alleged rough usage of the maid of misconduct toward Mrs. Chambers.

Mies leabel Frazer, Wyncote, Agrees With Magistrate

a diam

MISS ISABEL FRAZIER

the State Motor Vehicle Act and mod-estly responding with "Yes, sir." and

"no sir," in perfect tune with a "fatherly" lecture by Magistrate Still-

Miss Frazer drove through Ardmore

Slender, with brown, bobbed hair

Stillwagon-so young he at first and wearing a sports suit and sweater, doubted whether she had a license to

"She saved herself $10." said the magistrate after the hearing. "Most others would have talked themselves into the fine. She nodded her head out

Miss Frazer is a sister of Mrs. Gra-

OPPOSED BY LABOR

Federation Declares Measure

Destructive of Sea Power

BRITISH LEADERS TO SPEAK

By the Associated Press

Strength for the movement in the addressing a dinner given by the gar-ment workers, referred to Mr. Schlesinger as "the prospective fraternal del-egate" to the meeting of the British

Aside from attending the convention as delegates, chiefs of the rail unions that are about to take a strike vote plan a series of meetings this week to consider various questions before beginning a canvass of the strike vote.

B'RITH ABRAHAM ELECTS

Philadelphia Is One of Five Cities

Seeking Next Convention

not be concluded until late tonight.

A faction of the New York delegation had come to the shore prepared to back former Grand Master Gastav Hartman, of New York, in opposition to present Grand Master Levy. However, nothing came of the movement.

At antic City, Philadelphia, Boston,

FUNERAL FOR PATROLMAN

sonic Honors

Patro man Edwin R. Keck, who was killed Saturday when a motorcycle

creshed into a trolley car, was buried this afternoon with Musonic honors from an undertaking establishment at Tenth street and Germantown avenue. The Police Band attended the fuattached to the Fourth and York streets

Fire Destroys Hampton Store

after the next convention.

neral.

York and Saratoga Springs are

of Crash Burled With Ma-

Keck was a bandsman and was

Atlantic City, N. J., June 13. - Mu-cinal Court Judge Aaron J. Levy, of Congress.

workers.

licensed to drive, but owns two cars.

the girl looked very young to Magis on Saturday at thirty miles an hour.

By not pretending to know all about

'Fundamentalists" Plan Many Changes in Present Belief of Northern Churches

By the Associated Press Indianapolis, Ind., June 13.-With vention of the Northern Baptist Churches gaining momentum, everything was in readiness for the opening of the convention here tomorrow. Continuation of board meetings, which oc-cupled most of the time of the delegates yesterday, were on the program or today.

The "fundamentalists"—those who believe in literal interpretation of the Bible-were said to be gaining strength will hold a pre-convention meeting this afternoon. It will be led by Dr. J. C. Massee, of Brooklyn, N. Y. The "fundamentalists" would present a reed to the convention which if ratified would make serious changes in the present belief of the Northern Baptist Churches, it was said by mem-bers of the more conservative element of the convention delegates.

Although William Jennings Bryan, ormer Secretary of State, is an elder in the Presbyterian Church, he will address the fundamentalist group at a meeting tonight. He is to arrive late wagon on the evil of speeding, Miss Isabel Frazer, a popular 1921 debu-tante, escaped a $10 fine yesterday. this afternoon.

Much interest is being centered around the successor to Mrs. Helen Montgomery, of Rochester, N. Y., as president of the convention. The Rev. ecording to testimony. She did not Frank M. Goodchild, paster of the Central Baptist Church, of Brooklyn, Y., is a strong contender for the fundamentalist. considered a elected, he would be the first active paster to be president of the conven-tion. The first president of the condrive a car. An examination of auto-mobile records showed she not only is vention, which was organized in 1907 After fining her $10 and costs, which amounted to $3.50. Mr. Stillwagon knocked off the fine, saying it was the first offense. Miss Frazer paid the was Char'es E. Hughes, present Sec retary of State. W. S. Abernethy, pastor of the Baptist Church at Washington, D. C., of which President Harding is a member, will be a speaker at the conven-The curtailment of expenditures was the principal subject of discussion before the General Board of Promotion. Many persons connected with the board are advocating its abolishment or the resome of its members so as to limit its expenses. Abolishment of some of the foreign missionary workers was also advocated.

BAPTIST PASTORS PUT BAN ON TEACHING OF EVOLUTION Demand Professor Either Repudiate Theory or Be Ousted

Nashville, Tenn., June 13.—(By A. P.)—Unless Prof. C. W. Davis, member of the faculty of Union University. Inimical to Public Interest and | a Bantist institution at Jackson, Tenn., eliminated from its teaching staff, or declares publicly his repudiation of the theory of evolution, all financial and moral support of the Nashville Baptist Pastors' Conference will be withdrawn from the institution, according to resolutions adopted by the conference,

The resolutions declared the theory of evolution dangerous and destructive Cincinnati, O., June 13 .- The Ship and out of accord with the teachings Subsidy Bill now pending in Congress of the Baptist Church. The action of was condemned by a resolution unanimously today by the American Federation of Labor as inimical to public interest, and destructive of the public interest, and destructive of the control of tacobic action of tacobic action of the control of the contro terest, and destructive of the Nation's hope for seapower. The program for today calls for addresses by British labor leaders who were sent to this country as fraternal delegates from the British Trades Union the messages of the fore'gn leaders the convention delegates e.c. Continued from Page One

pected to learn policies practiced abroad that might be applied in this country, and also be informed of the labor movement abroad, especially in They oppose action on aid to shipping the labor movement abroad. the aspects applicable to both American at this session because it will be impossible to secure action on it in the Senate before November. With regard The British delegates are H. H. Smith, acting president of the Miners' Federation of Great Britain, and H. C.

to the Senate, they appear to be on sure ground. I learn that the private estimate of the most active Senate leaders of he date by which it will be possible to obtain the passage of the tariff bill through the Senate is October 1. convention to elect Benjamin Schlesinger, of New York, president of the International Ladies' Garment Work-This will be in the height of the camers, as one of the federation's two delegates to the British labor congress, was forecast by Samuel Gompers, who, in addressing a dinner state by can be passed before election.

The House leaders believe it would be good politics to pass the Muse's Shoals bill before election, even though the Senate will be unable to act on it, and that it would be bad politics to pass the subsidy bill under such circumstances. Perhaps a compromise will be reached by which both bills will be put through the House.

May Pass Trick Bill

So as to make the compromise a little nore feasible the Muscle Shoals bill may go through in a form that will not be acceptable to Mr. Ford. Members up for re-election may then say that they voted Muscle Shoals to Ford on the terms legally possible, but that Ford would not agree to them.

That is the line which the majority

New York, was unanimously re-elected in in the House Committee on Military Affairs took in its favorable report on grand master of the Independent Order of Brith Abraham today at the closing the bill. The Government built during Subpoena

Subpoena

At Author's Wife

Other offices fil'ed without opposition were, grand secretary, Max L. Holling the property of the Alabama Power lander, of New York; grand trustee, Henry S. Nadelweiss, of New York, and chairman of yaw, Jacob Ascher, of Boston. There are spirited contests must have it. The Government maintains with as many as four and five canditations that it cannot let him have the not be contested and ballotine will steam plant at Muscle Shoals on land that did not belong to it, but is the property of the Alabama Power Company. Mr. Ford insists that this steam plant is essential to the Muscle Shoals of New York, and chairman of yaw, Jacob Ascher, of Boston. There are spirited contests must have it. The Government maintains that it cannot let him have the not be conditionally as a subject of the war a steam plant at Muscle Shoals on land that did not belong to it, but is the property of the Alabama Power Company. Mr. Ford insists that this steam plant is essential to the Muscle Shoals of New York, and chairman of yaw, Jacob Ascher, of Boston. There are spirited contests must have it. The Government maintains that it cannot let him have the steam plant at Muscle Shoals on land that did not belong to it, but is the property of the Alabama Power Company. Mr. Ford insists that this steam plant is essential to the Muscle Shoals of New York; and chairman of yaw, Jacob Ascher, of Boston. There are spirited contests must have it. The Government main-

A abama Power Company.
The Alabama Power Company will not consent. The legal question is not quite so simple as I have made it seem here, for the Alabama Power Company has a shadowy contract with the Govcrnment regarding the steam plant. Mr. Ford says he will take his chances on getting that steam plant if it is voted to him and indemnify the Government against loss through a law suit,

Muscle Shoals minus the steam plant, and there stands, for the present, what may be a major political issue in all agricultural sections of the country. AS HOUSEKEEPER, WOMAN

PROVES GOOD WRECKER

The majority of the House Military Affairs Committee voted to let him have

Changes Her Mind and Smashes Hubby's Furniture

Intent upon taking charge of the cottage of her husband, from whom she has been separated for ten months. Mrs. Alice Henderson went to National Park, N. J., yesterday, but after she had entered through a window she changed her plans and wrecked his home

DEBUTANTE'S NOD SAVES BAPTISTS LINE UP OIL MAN CHARGES KIDNAPPING PLOT FOR CONVENTION

Emanuel Barrett, Columbia Avenue, Says Two Men Tried to Lure Him Into Car

CONTEST FOR PRESIDENT BOTH SUSPECTS ARE HELD

An alleged attempt to lure Emanuel Barrett into a motorcar from his home. 6119 Columbia avenue, was related to-day to Magistrate Reashaw. Barre t is

Barrett testified Hughes came to his home Sunday night and asked if he, Barrett, had a son in an institution was told the boy had escaped and was on a wharf along the Delaware River.

Barrett said he hurried into the house, called up the institution and was in the navy and was a chief gunner's the vict in the navy informed his son was asleep in bed at mate. that moment.

car. The three visitors drove away.

Counsel for McKinley asked Barrett if McKinley's mother had bought $10.-000 worth of stock in a concern which Barrett headed. The witness said she

WEEKS HALTS AIR STUNTS BY "DAREDEVIL" HERRICK

Refuses Filer Army Plane to Take Congressman on a "Thriller" Washington, June 13. - "Lonely

Manuel" Herrick, Oklahoma's eccentric Congressman, will do no more 'arial' stunts over the Nation's capital in an army airplane,

He has had all the thrill he will get from joyriding through the ambient atmosphere in these parts-at least for

Secretary of War Weeks, by refusing permission to Herbert J. Fahey, a commercial flyer, to take the beauty-con-test Congressman for a flight that was have been a thriller, has written the last chapter of a controversy that be-gan with a challenge from Fahey to Herrick, and the latter's acceptance. Herrick had taunted Fahey with doing "mi'k-and-water" flying on a previous flight. Fahey replying, promised him a hop that would "make you lose more than your necktie." Herrick promptly accepted, on condition that an army irplane be procured for the occasion When Fahey challenged Herrick for "real dare-devil flight," he pointed out that he was eligible to fly an army plane, being an officer in the reserve corps. But before the flight Fahey incurred the ire of officialdom by flying his plane over the Lincoln Memorial while President Harding was speaking at the dedication exercises. The result was Fahey lost his commission.

WHITE SLAVE TRADER HELD

Notorious Woman Was Leaving Austria With 20 High-Born Girls Berlin, June 13.—One of the biggest captures of white slave traders in many months was effected yesterday when Mary Probst, one of the most notorious white slavers, was arrested at Fold-kirch, on the Swiss border.

The woman, in the guise of a principal of a girls' school, was leaving Austria with twenty young women, nearly all of whom were members of a principal of a girls' school, was leaving Austria with twenty young women.

aristocratic but needy Austrian families, and all between the ages of seventeen and twenty.

Having correctly estimated the alluring power of the dollar, the Probst woman sought out a score of the prettiest high-born girls and laid before their parents the old story that there many rich Americans waiting for were the chance to marry such beautiful, educated and accomplished girls.

Having succeeded in securing her vic-tims, the white slaver was crossing into

Switzerland when the authorites be-came suspicious and started an investi-

TEN YEARS FOR McCOMSEY Assallant of Chester County Girl

Speeded to Penitentiary

West Chester, Pa., June 13.—Three days after his capture by a posse, Charles McComsey, twenty-three, a farmworker of Point Lookout, Lancaster, was on his way to the Eastern Penitentiary to serve a term of ten years. Also he was fined $1000.

McComsey pleaded guilty before Judge Butler to attacking Mary Shoff, elevenyear-old daughter of Henry Shoff, of Lower Oxford Township, and was sentenced at once.

BOYS ROB WOMAN

Mess in the Germantown Hospital. Throughout the winter she had suffered from nervousness, and about four week ago had a complete collapse. She was then taken to the hospital from leveral years ago connected with the firm of Strawbridge was until several years ago connected with the firm of Strawbridge was active until recently in numerous charitable organizations, and was a member of the Calvary tenced at once.

BOYS ROB WOMAN

Unarmed, They Get Victim's Handbag and $2.30

Held up by two boys, who were unarmed, at Thirty-sixth and Pearl streets last night. Mrs. Sarah Parks, 331 Saunders avenue, fought ten minutes to retain her handbag, which contained $2.30. The boys, each of whom was about thirteen years old, finally succeeded in escaping with the bag after breaking it from the strap to which Mrs. Parks clung.

EXONERATES AUTOIST

Man's Leg Is Broken, but Says Was His Own Fault

Fred Stewart, fifty years old and in Cooper Hospital with a broken angle received when knocked down by a motorcar driven by Emil Kaminski, re-fuses to prosecute the motorist.

"It was my fault," said Stewart, who lives at 731 Spruce street. "I have no complaint to make." He was struck at Fifth and Federal streets last night.

Specialized in Church Thefts . Milwaukee, June 13.—Roy Marsden, thirty-seven, admitted to Milwaukee police today that he robbed poor boxes in thirty-ttwo Mi'waukee churches, the police announced. His church thefts, the police assert, netted him nearly $1000, including the money from purses left in pews by communicants when they walked to the communion rail.

Easton, Md., Store Burned conduct toward Mrs. Chambers.

Phillipsburg, N. J., June 13.—Fire to unknown origin which started at 4 o'clock this morning destroyed the gening destroyed at City Hall, received a telephone call from a neighbor, and arrived home in time to save a few pieces of furniture. Then he preferred charges the section of the city and firemen batter of the comprehensive destroyed the gening destroyed the gening destroyed at City Hall, received a telephone call from a neighbor, and arrived home in time to save a few pieces of furniture. Then he preferred charges the board of the store and dollars. The Ademeit family escaped from the spartment in night and she was held in $200 bail to keep the blaze from spreading. Deaths of a Day

CLARENCE E. PORTER

Widely Known Insurance Man Vic tim of Heart Disease

Clarence E. Porter, one of the best-known insurance men in Philadelphia, and vice president of the Alfred M. Best Company, of New York, died yesterday from heart disease at a hotel where he was staying temporarily. He recently returned to Philadelphia from Chicago, where he had been Western manager of a large London insurance company.

He is survived by his widow, two daughters, Mrs. Florence Brooks and Mrs. Ethel Barnes, and a son, Clarence E. Porter. Jr. Funeral services will E. Porter, Jr. Funeral services will take place tomorrow at 10:30 A. M. from 1820 Chestnut street. Mr. Porter was born in Philadelphia in 1863 and attended the local schools.

day to Magistrate Renshaw. Barret is an oil and gas stock promoter.

Harold McKinley. Front street near Vine, was arraigned on a charge of attempted abduction. Detectives say they traced him through an automobile license number.

As the hearing began, a witness saw Fred Hughes, Twenty-ninth street near Wharton, in the room. She pointed him out as the man who had called Barrett to his door Sunday night.

McKinley and Hughes were held in $900 bail for a further hearing next Monday.

Mr. Porter was born in Philadelphia in 1863 and attended the local schools. He was at various times president of the Spring Garden Fire Insurance Company, the American Fire Insurance Company and the Insurance Company of Pennsylvarda. His home was on Drexel road, Overbrook.

EDWARD A. DAUSCH

Served on Olympia Under Admirai Dewey—Was Forty-five

Edward A. Dausch, who served on Edward A. Dausch, who served o Dewey and took part in the Battle of he said, "you will often hear people Manila Bay, died Sunday at his home, say or imply: Are not the French too 2351 East Boston avenue. He was exacting? Could they not show more in the navy and was a chief gunner's mate. In the early part of the Spanish War he was on the Raleigh, but Baldwin, 4527 Sansom street, and other guests, went to the sidewalk and noticed McKinley and another man in the car. The three wintercore is the control of the car. The three wintercore is the car of the car of the car of the car. He remained in the navy and was placed on the reserve list a few months before the United States entered the war with Germany. He was called into > clerical duty at the League Island Navy Yard. He was attached to the air-craft department at the time of his He was a member of Naval Camp No Masonic fraternity and the Foresters He is survived by a widow, one daughter, two sisters and a brother. He will be buried in Mount O ivet

William T. G. Sims

Cemetery, Brooklyn, with full military

William T. G. Sims, for forty-five years an employe of the firm of William Eyres & Son, died yesterday at his home, 3419 North Fifteenth street. He was sixty years old. He was a member of Fidelity Lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and of Narragansett Tribe of Red Men. He is survived by a widow. Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 o'clock at his home. Interment will be in West-

Richard M. J. Reed Funeral services for Richard M. J.

Reed, 2232 Huntingdon street, will be held this afternoon. He will be buried in Mt. Peace Cemetery. The Rev. George Kunz, pastor of the Church of the Brethren, and the Rev. Samue Nichols, pastor of the Primitive Methodist Church, will officiate. Mr. Reed was discharged at the close of the Civil War with the rank of lieutenant colonel and served for a number of years as a major in the Third Regiment here.

Charles R. Fries

The funeral of Charles R. Fries, retired manufacturer, who died yester-day at his home, 5931 Cobbs Creek Parkway, will be held on Thursday afternoon from his late home. Burial will be made in West Laurel Hill Cemetary. Mr. Fries was sixty-four years 222 South Front street. Born in when quite young and embarked in the business which he continued all his life He retired two years ago. Funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. William Newman Parker. Mr. Fries is survived by a widow and a daughter, Mrs. R. B. Voorhees.

Elias W. Edwards

The funeral of Elias W. Edwards, etired groceryman, will be held at 2 clock tomorrow afternoon from his ate residence, 2045 North College avelate residence, 2045 North College avenue. Mr. Edwards, who was seventy-eight years old, had been an invalid for the last four years. He is survived by his wife, Mary E., and one married daughter, Mrs. Miriam E. Carpenter, Twentieth and Parrish streets. Interment will be in Westminster Cemetery.

Mrs. Clara 8. Strawbridge

Mrs. Clara Stetson Strawbridge, wife of George Stockton Strawbridge, died last night following a month's ill-ness in the Germantown Hospital.

Mrs. Emma C. Norris Mrs. Emma C. Norris, widow of Alexander Garesche Norris, died yes-

support. He was taken into custody under a writ of ne exeat, to prevent his evading the later summons.

COURSE OF FRANCE

Denies Nation Is Militaristic. More Lenient Than Germany in 1870

SAYS AGGRESSOR MUST PA

By the Associated Press Chicago, June 13.—The course of France with respect to reparations, her army and her part at the Arms Conference were defended by Jules J. Jusserand, the French Ambassador to the United States, in an address today at the commencement exercises of the University of Chicago.

the commencement exercises of the University of Chicago.

The Ambussador denied that France was militaristic, declared France had been more lenient with Germany than the Germans had been with the French after 1870 and asserted that the ambitions of France in the Washington Conference were in reality modest and ference were in reality modest and aimed only at resuming the rank France had held before the war.

"When reparations are spoken of,

They wish they could, but how can they? It is a question of overloading the victim to spare the aggressor. Some body must pay for those reconstruc-tions; why should it be those on whom they were inflicted? Toward the enemy we have been more lenient than they "France is not a militaristic coun-

Her army is not an enormous one and is steadily decreasing year by year; military service is now een months and will soon be, if no untoward event interferes, of one year.
"Our military expenses reached dur-ing the last year of the war, 1918, the ssal sum of 36,000,000,000 francs. the cannon. In 1919 they were 18,000,000,000 will be master of ceremonies at the francs: in 1920, 7,500,000,000; in 1921, time; Thomas C. McEachin will read 6,300,000,000; in 1922, 4,900,000,000. "But yet people say: France, with all that, is the strongest military The answer is, why not? Is there any nation with better reason to be on her guard? If she does not guard herself, who will guard her? Is cago, as presentation speaker, will there one with better reasons to desire supply the humorous element of the not to suffer again what she alone did

"A good deal has been said on the occasion of the Washington Conference about our supposed naval ambitions. The country was filled for a while with truth to say, American protests.' Our ambitions were in reality modest ones and aimed only at resuming in this re-spect, as well as for trade, industry agriculture, etc., the rank we had held before the war."

FRANCE TO SEND EXPERTS

Minister at Hague Not to Attend Preliminary Conference

Paris, June 13 .- (By A. P.) -- France will be represented at the conference at The Hague on Russian affairs by a group of experts, the Cabinet decided today. The idea of having Charles Benoist, French Minister at The Hague, take part in the preliminary conference was Premier Poincare, in his note to the British Government in reply to the reold. For many years he conducted a cent British memorandum, does not tinware manufacturing establishment at cede an inch from the position taken in the memorandum of June 1. He insists that if the Powers come to an agreement in advance and present a united front to the Russians at The Hague, and do not permit them to stray from the point, they can and will accept all required of them. Premier Poincare says that if experts are sent to The Hague from France they are likely to favor a proposition for the sending of an expert commission to Russia to investigate conditions there, if Russia will consent. FLEE BLACK ROCK HOME

Earl Carlson and James Dixon have disappeared from the Montgomery County Home, at Black Rock. They had been paroled last week from the county Prison that they might work on the county farm. Carlson would have been discharged in August and Dixon in September.

LOUGHLIN.—On June 8. CORA BELLE LOUGHLIN.—On June 8. CORA BELLE LOUGHLIN.—Her husband. George F. Loughlin. resires to thank the friends and neighbors for their kindness and assistance during her iliness.

CLIFFORD.—June 12. EMMA VIRGINIA (nee McEwen), wife of Wilford Clifford. Funeral services Thursday. 2 P. M. residence, 7511 Oxford ave. Burholme, Pa. Interment private. Friends may call Wednesday, 7 to 9 P. M., without further notice.

TOOLE.—On June 11. LAWRENCE C., husband of ELLA TOOLE. Funeral Wednesday, at 8:80 A. M., late residence, 6015 Spring st. High mass of requiem at Our Lady of the Rossry Church, 10 A. M. Interment St. Denis' Cemetery, McGOWAN.—June 18, 1922. THOMAS P. McGOWAN.—June 18, 1922. THOMAS P. McGOWAN. husband of Catherine C. M

Cemetery.
BRUESTLE.—June 11, EMMA (nee Voigt). widow of Adolph Bruestle, aged 61. Services
Wednesday, 8:30 P. M., residence, 4910
North 9th st. Interment private, Greenmount Norris, who was Miss Emma C. Wilson, lived at the Hotel Hamilton until about a year ago when she went to Havans.

Nabbed on Non-Support Charge
Charles H. Bock, of 329 Walnut avenue, Merchantville, N. J., was arrested today pending service of a chancery court writ. His wife charges non-support. He was taken into custody under a writ of Research into custody wife of Jehn F. Hoas.

Norris, who was Miss Emma C. Willow North 9th st. Interment private, aged 61. Services North 9th st. Interment Private, 4910 North 9th st. Interment Private, aged 61. Services North 9th st. Interment Private, 4910 Nor HOAG.—June 11, 1922, NETTIE B., beloved wife of John F. Hoag. Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral services. Thursday, 2 P. M., late residence, 2924 N. 12th st. Interment private, Mount Peace Cometery. Friends may call Wednesday evening.

Income Tax Payments for Quarter Are Due

The second installment of your income tax must be paid by Thursday if you would escape the penalty. Internal revenue officials do not anticipate any ruch, as many have paid their tax in one lump sum, while others have already sent in their tax for the quarter.

Internal Revenue Collector Mc-

Caughn sees a falling off in the tax this year. The reasons given are greater unemployment and the reac-

'70, when the fortune of the be the Ivy exercises, when Burnham war had been favorable to them. They made us pay for what the war had cost ivy beside Nassau Hall and make the them. As compensation for the immense treasure we had to spend in this war to defend ourselves against their unprovoked attack, we ask nothing. For the rest, their duty is to make stones marking the locations of the ivy plants of nearly every class since the university was founded. Cannon exercises take place later in the afternoon around the old revolu-tionary cannon in the middle of the main quadrangle of the campus. At this exercise the seniors in cap and gowns symbolize severance from their alma mater by breaking clay pipes on the cannon. William F. Stevenson the class history, and Burnham Carter, participating again as class poet, will read the ode.

Charles Denby, Jr., of Washington, D. C., has been elected to deliver the class oration. Louis E. Tilden, of Chi-supply the humorous element of the ceremony.

The 175th commencement will take place the next day on the steps of Nassau Hall. The undergraduates who will participate will be Oscar Swenson, of Arlington, N. J., valedictorian, and R. Miles Warner, of Muncie, Ind., salutatorian. After the exercises President and Mrs. John Grier Hibben, of the university, will give the graduates a farewell reception.

Police Are Still Searchin Clues to Persons Who Ha Been Reported Missing

PROBE BRONX CALA

By the Associated Press

PRINCETON CLASS

DAY MEN CHOSEN

BURNHAM Carter, of Plainfield, to Plant lvy in Historic

Ceremony

EXERCISES NEXT MONDAY

Special Dispatch to Eversias Public Ledger Princeton, N. J., June 13.—The annual class day of the senior class of princeton University will be held next Monday, the day before the commencement exercises.

The first of the day's ceremonies will be the Ivy exercises, when Burnham Carter, of Plainfield, N. J., will piant ivy beside Nassau Hall and make the ivy oration. This ceremony is historic at Princeton. On the walls of Nassau Hall, which is the oldest college building in America, are inset stones marking the locations of the stone locations of the stone location. The stone location location is substituted to grow the stone location loc New York, June 18 .- The dead

Tem explosion, according to insecompanies covering such risks.

Freak stunts of the storm constant appear. A roof from a church it vers was lifted off the edifice by gusts of wind and dropped into attention and insecompanies. When receiving five people. When receiving five people. When receiving five people with the people when receiving the people when receiving five people.

CANADA TO HALT INDIANS WHO SEEK NATIONAL PL

Orders Arrest of Tribesmen H by Descendant of Tecumsell A. P.)—A detachment of royal Odian mounted police was stational the National Park at Point Pelee, as farewell reception.

EXERCISES AT AMBLER

Graduation exercises were held today at the School or Horticulture for Women, Ambler, Pa. A reception to the graduates will be held in the evening, following which there will be a lecture by James Otto Thilo.

eroachment upon the lands and to a rest the tribesmen as trespassers.

At the head of the Indian "invasion" was Archie Dodge, a member of Toctawatami tribe and a descende of Tecumseh, leader of Great Brims is recognized as the head of the tri
is recognized as the head of the tri being the great-grandson of the in chieftain.

Bracelets Of Important Jewels For Graduates

J. E. CALDWELL & CO.

GRESTMUT AND JUNIPER STREETS

Cool-Comfortable

cooler than Mohair-and more dressy! Business Suits, made-to-order, $115 up Golf Suite, ready-to-put-on, also made-to-order

Robert Stewart, 1501 Walnut St. Sporting and Mufti Tallors : Breeches Makers

IMPORTERS, DESIGNERS & MAKERS OF WOMEN'S & CHIL

DREN'S APPAREL OF THE HIGHEST CHARACTER FOR

New York Store, 15 East 47th Street

Dresses of Distinctive Style

Of very fine materials, including Canton Crepe of excellent quality. Plenty of navy blue and black as well as white.

Summer Frocks

Of gingham, Normandie Voile, uncrushable of real filet and hand embroidery.

16.50

8.50 to 19.50

linen and imported dotted Swiss. Edgings

We Servicites in Apparel that Standarises the Larrer Waman car and the only one without regrets." Copy of testimonial mailed on request.

A four-five passenger Touring, $10,900

The Car Without Regrets "The Rolls-Royce is my twenty-seventh

10 Exclusive Rolls-Royce Designs of Open and Closed Coach Work

> PENNSYLVANIA MOTORS, INC. CHESTNUT AND SIST STREET