HONORS AWARDED TO 51 AT PENN STATE

545 Students Receive Degrees at Sixty-second Annual Commencement

GIRLS FINISH FARM COURSE

State College, Pa., June 13.—The sixty-second class to be graduated from the Pennsylvania State College, the largest in its history, received degrees at the commencement exercises this morning. The class numbered 545, with twenty-six candidates for advanced degrees.

The principal commencement honors went to Sherman I. Strickhouser, of York, and Miss Cordelia L. Pharo, of Bethlehem, who had led their class for four years. Strickhouser, a chemist, was awarded the John W. White Fellowship, valued at $400, for advanced study at another institution. Miss Pharo won the John W. White Medal, valued at $50. President John M. Thomas delivered the commencement address and awarded the degrees.

The five living members of the class of 1872 were awarded honorary certificates in commemoration of their fiftieth graduation anniversary. They are A. Crandall, Chicago, Ill.; M. A. Eider, Philadelphia; T. W. Finley, New Salem; H. C. Leman, Leacock, and J. L. Matthews, Pittsburgh.

First Honor Students

First honors at the graduation exercises were awarded to forty-five men and six women students whose final average of grades was 85 per cent or over. Those so honored were:

Joseph S. Adams, State College, Pa.; Basora, Maravarez, Porto Rico; Jonas B. Baughman, Philadelphia; John B. Bowers, State College, Pa.; Frederick T. Bear, Lindfield; Rolf H. Beck, Kane; Edmund L. Bloch, State College, Pa.; Charles B. Borden, State College, Pa.; William C. Braun, Beaver Falls; Winston A. Brown, State College, Pa.; Orville S. Brown, State College, Pa.; Charles W. Decker, York; George H. Dell, State College, Pa.; William J. Dierick, Carlisle; William B. Derr, State College, Pa.; Miss Emily A. Gray, Philadelphia; Cecil R. Hamilton, State College, Pa.; Edward H. Harman, Washington, D. C.; Charles W. Heppner, Jr., Pittsburgh; Joseph H. Hines, State College, Pa.; E. Hoffer, Shikung Spring; Clyde M. Hator, State College, Pa.; Edward J. Hering, Reading; Edward D. Klingner, Pine Station; Luther M. Linderbaum, Allentown; Barclay S. Leachman, Philadelphia; Arthur D. McKinley, Sharon; Guillermo Medina, Fajardo, Porto Rico; Charles A. Myers, Summerdale; W. Ya. Harold J. Niemeyer, Wilkes-Barre; John M. Pappas, State College, Pa.; Joseph L. Pharo, Bethlehem; Donald K. Phillips, New Castle; Arthur G. Pratt, Camden, N. J.; Lathron L. Reimay, Allentown; Otto R. Ritzman, Philadelphia; Miss Dorothy R. Rogers, Scranton; Robert F. Stover, Blue Bell; Sherman I. Strickhouser, York; John P. Styer, Lancaster; James H. Taylor, State College, Pa.; Merchantville; N. J.; John A. Umholtz, Harrisburg; Frank W. Watson, Kelleysville; Albert J. Weaver, Reading; Albert J. Weaver, Philadelphia; Dean D. Winger, Pittsburgh; James H. Zimmerman, State College, Pa.

Girls Graduate in Agriculture

A feature of the exercises was the graduation of four young women from as many different courses in the School of Agriculture. This is the first year that more than one girl has completed an agricultural course. Two of the four are from Philadelphia and vicinity.

Miss Emily Ashton Gray, of Philadelphia, who won the Sharpless Dairy Husbandry Scholarship this year, is one of the graduates. She has specialized in dairy production and will be employed by the Interstate Dairy Council in Philadelphia in educational work among the milk producers in the Quaker City territory.

Miss Josephine Hollingsworth, of Allentown, received her degree in a horticultural and eventually plans to manage a fruit and truck farm. She has earned the distinction of not only being an excellent student in agricultural subjects, but she is the most versatile girl athlete ever graduated from Penn State.

The other agricultural girls are Miss Virginia A. Perry, of Prospect, who specialized in agronomy, and Miss Laura M. Phillips, of Edwardsville, Luzerne County, who graduated in chemical agriculture.

RUTGERS HONORS EDISON

Ten Other Honorary Degrees Awarded to Eminent Americans

New Brunswick, N. J., June 13.—(By A. P. Thomas) Edison, now in his seventy-fifth year, today was given the honorary degree of doctor of science at the 150th commencement of Rutgers College. The other honorary degrees, including a degree of master of science to Parker Gilbert, 1912, undersecretary of the United States Treasury, were conferred in addition to 107 undergraduate degrees and seventeen graduates.

Honorary degrees follow:

August Hecker, of New York, philanthropist and trustee of Rutgers; J. L. D.; George A. Osborn, 1897, librarian of Rutgers College, and Morris M. Davison, of Cornwall, N. Y., manager of arts; Edward L. Stevens, New York, former secretary and acting director of the Hispanic Society of America, and Dr. James Westfall Thompson, professor of medical history in the University of Chicago, doctors of literature; Prof. John W. Bearislee, New Brunswick Theological Seminary; the Rev. S. E. Enaura, president of the United Church of Japan, and the Rev. John Hart, Neshaun, N. J., doctors of divinity.

LEHIGH GRADUATES 135; FLOYD W. PARSONS SPEAKS

Noted Writer Delivers Commencement Address at Bethlehem

Bethlehem, Pa., June 13.—(By A. P.)—At the fifty-sixth annual commencement exercises at Lehigh University 135 students were graduated, representing fifteen States and two foreign countries. The commencement address was delivered by Floyd W. Parsons, 92, of New York, the noted writer.

Honorary degrees were conferred as follows: Doctor of laws, H. S. Drinker, D. D., president of Lehigh University from 1907 to 1921; master of science, Prof. P. B. de Schweinitz, a member of the university faculty in machine design and who retired at the end of the term after serving the institution fifteen years.

RAIDERS CLIP WHISKERS

Armed Men Cut Beard of Candidate for Irish Parliament

Dublin, June 13.—Three armed young men knocked at the door of the apartment of Darrell Figgis at midnight last night. Mrs. Figgis opened the door and the men pushed her and rushed Figgis into his study.

Figgis was told that the men had instructions to cut off his whiskers. Notwithstanding the pleas of Mrs. Figgis, the raiders seized her husband and clipped off the greater part of his beard and mustache.

Figgis, who is chairman of the Irish Constabulary Drafting Committee and an independent candidate for Parliament for Dublin County, says he would easily recognize the miscreants.

LENINE NOT PARALYZED

Russian Premier's Brother Ascribes Illness to Overwork

Moscow, June 13.—"Lenine has not lost any of his faculties, and is progressing satisfactorily," Dimitri Oulianoff, the Premier's eldest brother, told the correspondent today.

"All rumors that he is paralyzed are absolutely untrue. He is able both to write and walk. At least two months will be required, however, for a full cure, and then he will certainly need a few months of rest."

M. Oulianoff attributed the illness solely to overwork.

SHRINERS LAY CORNERSTONE

W. Freehand Kendrick, Father of Hospital Idea, Makes Address

San Francisco, June 13.—The Myrtle Shrine of the Nation paused in its joyous golden jubilee assembly yesterday to lay the corner-stone of one of the six hospitals for crippled children that the Shrine is building in various parts of the United States.

The speakers included W. Freehand Kendrick, of Philadelphia, past imperial potentate. Mr. Kendrick is credited with being the "father of the idea of Shrine hospitals for crippled children."

ELECT NEW COLLEGE HEAD

Dr. Cora H. Coolidge Chosen President of Pittsburgh School

Pittsburgh, June 13.—(By A. P.)—Dr. Cora Helen Coolidge, of Fitchburg, Mass., former dean of the Pennsylvania College for Women, has accepted the office of acting president of the college until a permanent successor to Dr. John C. Acheson can be chosen.

The post was offered to Dr. Coolidge after a meeting of the Board of Trustees last week. She was dean of the college for eleven years and was acting president for one year during that period.

Sewing Made a Pleasure

WE WILL GIVE ONE of the Wonderful New Willcox & Gibbs

Portable Electric Sewing Machines

to the person that sends or brings to us (in two hundred words or less) the best "reason why" a woman should own and use this machine.

For the second best reason a $25 credit allowance will be made on the purchase of a W. & G. machine. For third best, a $15 credit. Fourth best, a $10 credit. Each of the next ten a $5 credit. Contest open to everybody except our own employees. Closes June 30.

The W. & G. Portable Electric Sewing Machine gives you the means of getting "motive power" from any electric current instead of sapping your own nervous energy. It does all the high-class sewing that any other standard machine will do and will do it in any room in the house having an electric socket. The speed can be controlled, fast or slow as you wish it. Sew any weight material with equal efficiency. No bobbins to wind. No tensions to regulate. Your old machine taken in part payment.

You will find it very convenient to have one with you on your summer vacation.
