Nancy Wynne Speaks of the Dance at Merion Tonight and of a Wedding to Take Place in Washington. Some Good-Looking Costumes

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

PESTERDAY and today we seem to have a full in the June gaveties, ally, June is getting to be as busy as Christas holidays, and it's awful'y correction the big hotels; though of course in winter they are given look so well. It's quite a change and much more interesting than always having series in the big hotels; though of course in winter they are the place course in winter they are the place

A WEDDING of interest in Philadelhis will take place in Washington on June 24, the same day as Hannah Elliott and Walter Pew's wedding here.
It's the marriage of Eleanor Johnstone and Major Macy Hall, U. S. A., and the ceremony will be performed in St.
John's Episcopal Church there.
Eleanor is the daughter of Mrs.
James Johnstone, of Washington, and has often visited the Sanders twins.
Anits and Estelle, of 1225 Locust areet. They are going down for the wedding and will stay in Washington with another friend of theirs there, Carolyn Nash. The Rev. Robert Johnson, former rector of the Church of the faviour, will officiate. He officiated at Lenore McCall and Norman MacLeish's wedding, you remember. A reception will follow the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother, 1018 Twenty-first street N. W., Washingten.

WRS. "HECK" WETHERILL al-M ways looks stunning. I saw her resterday at the Bellevue wearing a dark blue Canton crepe dress with open-work on the neck and sleeves, and a work on the neck and steeves, and a large gray chiffon hat trimmed with gray flowers. Mrs. Jack Mason, Jr., is another attractive person. She was Arnes Brockie, you remember. I saw her a few days ago in a dark blue crepe de chine dress with a large black straw hat trimmed with red flowers.

BOBBY had been a bad boy one day.

arier than usual and without any special good night. He was very azious to have his mother come up and tuck him in, but he could hear the voices of "company" on the porch below and was afraid to call.

Suddenly his mother and father and nly his mother and father and their friends were quite startled when they heard a rumbling, tumbling noise at the porch roof, and were more starsti'l to see a shoe fall over the pass. They picked it up and found a piece of paper inside on which was written: "I'm a good boy now and all ready for bed. Please come tuck me in. bobble."
