

LARRY BROWN planting the ivy

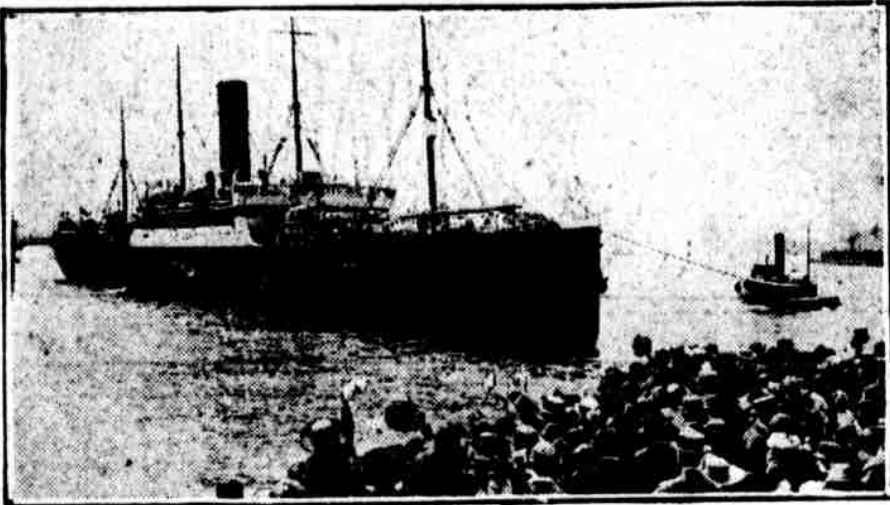

THOUSANDS CROWDED THE DORMITORY TRIANGLE FOR THE EXERCISES

JOHN MURRAY SHEEDY, 1922 class president, puts robe on THOMAS B. K. RINDE, 1923 class leader

EVERYTHING THAT GOES TO MAKE UP A CLASS DAY WAS CARRIED OUT BY THE STUDENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA. LARRY BROWN, THE STAR RUNNER, LOOKED STRANGE AS A SPADEMAN, BUT HE DID HIS PART WELL. THE 1922 CLASS IS GRADUATED TODAY

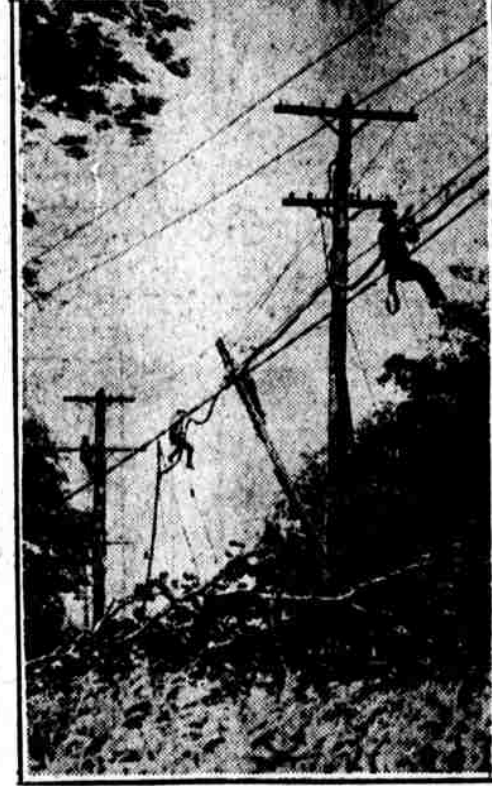

BON VOYAGE. The White Star liner Haverford sailed from Philadelphia for Queenstown and Liverpool yesterday, carrying 210 passengers, including several missionaries and many art students

FOUR PHILADELPHIANS who are attending the Bryn Mawr Summer School for Industrial Workers. Sarah Fridgout, Elizabeth Rudolph, Minnie Rubenstein, Bertha Kipniss (left to right)

VICTIMS OF NEW YORK STORM. Mrs. B. A. Wranna, Brooklyn, and daughter were killed in Red Lion Inn

WORKMEN REPAIRING damaged telephone lines at City Island, New York. The wires were torn down during hurricane Sunday night

FIGHTING PLANE LAUNCHED FROM U. S. S. MARYLAND. It is believed that this practical plane catapult used in the launching test will be adopted by the navy for all large ships

SIX GENERATIONS—CAN YOU BEAT IT? They're all residents of Lancaster County. Left to right: Mrs. Elizabeth Rupp, great-great-grandmother; Mrs. F. Mae Guidar, grandmother, who is holding Wilbur G. Royer; Mrs. Sarah Miller, great-great-grandmother; Mrs. Nellie M. Zug, great-grandmother, and Mrs. Hilda Royer, mother of the baby

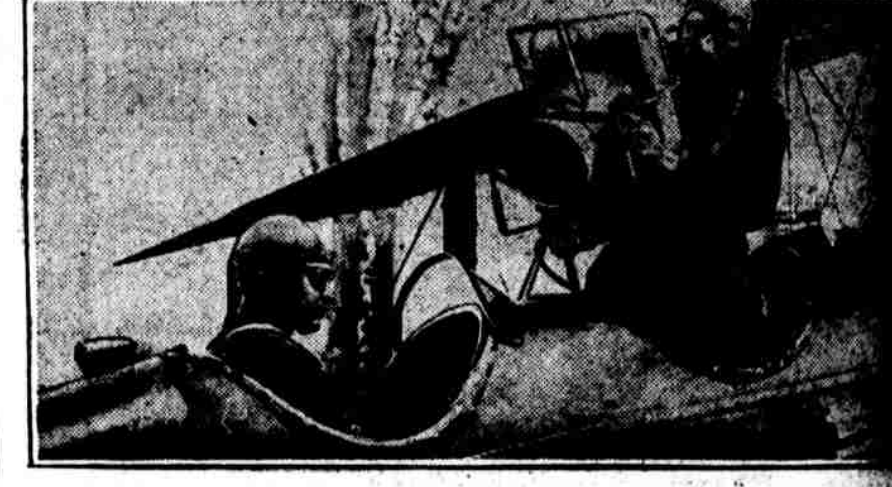

ROLANDO RICCI, Italian Ambassador, will spend the summer in his homeland

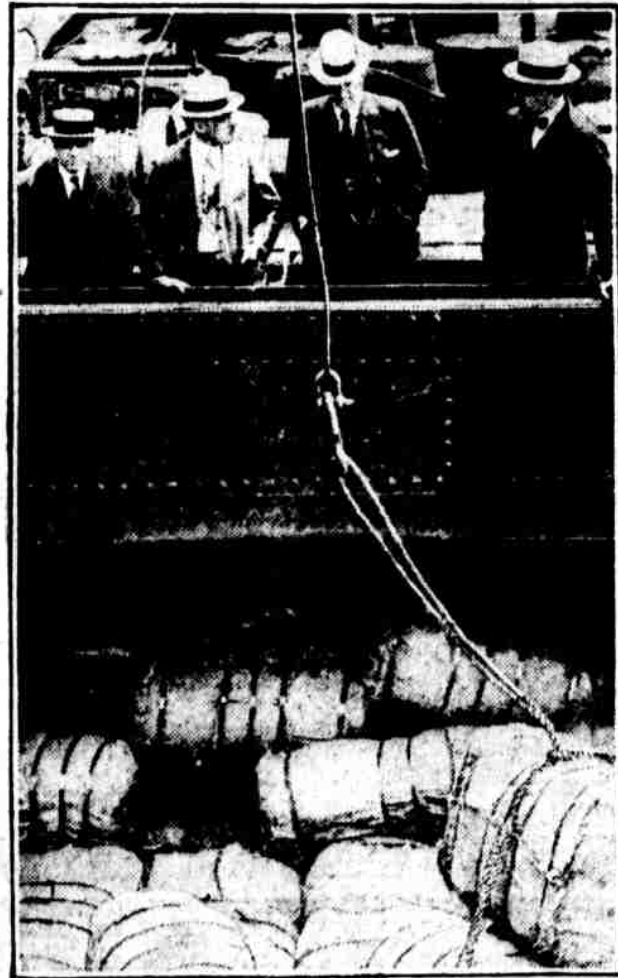

LONDON "BOBBIES" DO WILD WEST STUNTS. The London mounted police at annual exhibition demonstrated their ability to throw the lariat in the lassoing contest

MRS. IDA J. DUTTON, recently married to Job E. Hedges at Norristown

FLIER IN FIVE-MILE PARACHUTE LEAP. Captain A. W. Stevens (right), of the army aviation forces, broke the world's parachute-jumping record at Dayton. He suffered no ill effect. The plane from which he leaped was piloted by Lieutenant Leigh Wade (left)

SECOND NEAR EAST RELIEF SHIP SAILS. The cargo of the S. S. Sabotowan contains tons of gifts from the schoolchildren of Philadelphia

BORIS BAKHMETEFF, Russian Ambassador, said good-by to President

CONTENDER FOR MORVICH'S CROWN. R. T. Wilson's speedy colt, Pillory

FAIR AGRICULTURISTS. Graduated from Agricultural School of Penn State. Left to right: Laura M. Phillips, Edwardsville; Emily Armstrong, Philadelphia; Josephine Hollingsworth, Ardmore, and Virginia A. Percy, Prospect

HELEN DAHL, ANNA CHAMPAGNE THEY MADE THEIR OWN DRESSES. Pupils at the Thomas Junior High School hold class-day exercises today

FAMOUS RUNNER AND WIFE. Mr. and Mrs. James E. (Ted) Meredith on the beach at Cape May. They live in New York

LADY CHANCELLOR II, owned by Mrs. Alfred Wolten, 428 Pearl street, Camden. The English bulldog won a blue ribbon at the Devon show

DR. WILMER KRUSEN talks on civic duty in Editorial Page interview

FRED STAREK, Cincinnati newspaper man, made director of War Finance Corp.

"HONEYMOON EXPRESS," "Old No. 5" elevator, used by young couples bound for Marriage License Bureau, will be replaced

A WEST PHILADELPHIA SILK MILL THIRTY YEARS AGO. Operated by Mrs. T. Harrop, it was located at the corner of Forty-third and Chestnut streets, now an apartment house section. Frank H. Maurer, of Merion, is the contributor. Send your old Philadelphia photographs to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER

FORTY YEARS WITH P. R. R. John Lyle Johnson, station master at Broad Street Station, has been pensioned. He is shown with Mrs. Johnson

MRS. LEO JAMES ERLER, who married Captain Erlar, U. S. A., at West Point last week

SIR CHAS. HIGHAM in this country to invite advertisers to convention in London