SUMMER RESORTS

of forests, giant mountains, enchanting lakes, on, on to the chosen spot - the Camp in the Wilderness overlooking the Lake of Lakes.

Magic days — dip of paddle, casting of fly, grim battle with game fish, hike to surmounting peak, the glowing camp fire with its companionship and savory cheer, then to dreamless sleep. Days full to overflowing with rejuvenating joys.

It's decided! - A motor trip to the Pine Tree State, land of wonderful roads, where this year the obnoxious detour is to be eliminated by the State Highway Department. You speed over smooth roadways, along a fascinating coast with wooded heights. curving bays, famous beaches, quaint seaports and interesting cities.

You linger for a day or two at a winsome resort for a game of golf, a swim in the surf, charmed by the dancing and social delights; and then again the call of the road. REMEMBER - Maine gives everyone 30 days of touring without registration of any kind. No fees or costs of any character.

Thoroughly modern railway systems operated under convenient schedules. Steamboat lines affording opportunity for interesting short trips. Special flying boat service may be arranged, on application, between New York and Maine coast points. Competent licensed guides available for all regions. It's always vacation time in Maine.
