Nancy Wynne Speaks of Parties for Girls Who Are Soon Going Abroad—She Goes to a Tea and Chats of Various Things

TODAY the only doings will be three dances, all for the younger crowd. Katherine King, the daughter of Irving King, of Germantown, will give a small dance at Tip-top Farm, the country place of her parents at Penlyn, for Mary Fahnestock, Mary and her mother and father, Mrs. and Mrs. James Fahnestock, and her sister Charlotte, all going abroad soon.

Another "farewell" party tonight will be an informal one, which Mrs. Mathews will give before she leaves for Europe on Saturday. Baba, or Catherine, as her first name really is, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Mather, of Avondale Cottage, Havertown, and is one of the most attractive sub-telbs.

The third dance will be the Junior Charitable Dance at the Merton Cricket Club. It is to be given by the Cradle Club of St. Vincent's and is in aid of an open-air pavilion for the little orphans and foundlings of a home where more than 240 are cared for, I hear.

The dance is for the crowd from about thirteen to 15 years of age. There are to be prizes and a lucky number dance, which is always very exciting. The dance, which is an annual affair, was held at the Merton Golf Club last year, but tonight it is to be at the Merton Cricket Club.

THE Tolbert Richardsons' tea in Germantown yesterday was splendid. "Gracelle," the daughter and the guest of honor, looked well in a white crepe dress made simply with panels on either side, extending below the hem of the skirt. She wore a large and yellow sarakropis. Mrs. Richardson was handsome in a costume of lavender crepe. After the garden party there was a dinner for the debutantes, who received, and additional guests, about sixty altogether.

"CLIFFY" FURNESS, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adalberto Furness, will be the guest of honor at a dinner-dance which her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Winter Baily, of Roselwyn, Stratford, will give next Wednesday. Mrs. Winter Baily is the aunt of Cliffy.

MRS. JACK CLAGHORN wore the best-looking cape yesterday. It was dark blue silk duvetyne, and she was wearing it over a black canton crepe dress with a small black hat of horsehair trimmed with several white water lilies. She and Jack Claghorn live in that attractive house on St. Martin's lane in Chestnut Hill, cat-a-corner from the Joe Wayne place. They have one child, a daughter, who is three years old and is about two and a half years old.

Mrs. Claghorn was Anne Strawbridge, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Strawbridge, of Thorwouth, Germantown. She has several brothers, Clayton, who married Margaret Lu Rue, and Freddy, whose wife is Emily Claghorn, the Morris Clothiers' eldest daughter.

N., which took place at the Navy Yard yesterday. Mrs. Francis, formerly Mrs. Page, of Aramank Farm, Virginia Adams Nulton.
