Tigers' Win Over Yanks With Second Rookie Pitcher Makes Race a Tight One

BOTH A'S AND PHILS WIN

WITH Ruth and Meufel back in the game, the Yanks will make a runaway of the American League race. The Bustin' Person and his brother mauler have been doing active duty now for almost a month, and the Yanks are far from having an easy time of it n Ban Johnson's circuit.

A glimpse at the percentage table this morning reveals the startling news that the prides of Gotham, when the Giants are away, have the slender margin of a half game over the peaky Browns, in second place. Not only that, but the entire Langue is having a battle royal for positions that ham't been equaled in many years.

Less than a hundred points separate the third place nine from the one in with places changing daily. If the other six clubs in the League can hand the Yanks and the Browns a numof defeats in the next month, probbly three or four teams will be batting for the lead during the merry baseball month of August.

The Rookles Star

The marvel of the two triumphs from the Tiger angle is the hurling of the recruits. On Wednesday Oleson, who hurled for Cornell not so long ago, had the better of Waite Hoyt and yesterday Stoner held the hardest hitting aggregation in the American League to three hits. Carl Mays, the submarine artist, was the victim yesterday, the Tigers getting nine safeties, enough of them being bunched in the eighth to give two runs and insure the victory. The Cobbmen are now nestling in third place with a .500 percentage, after a remarkable climb from the depths.
