The Amenities of This Business Are the Growth of Years

Get your dictionary and see what that old, littleused word means.

Chambers' Twentieth Century Dictionary says, it means "pleasantness, as regards situation, climate (atmosphere), manners, disposition."

All our sixty-one years have been a diligent, steady pulling together into our convenient building, of all needful, indispensable merchandise of the most reliable character, and placing it on exhibition to be seen and at the service of the people, without tumultuous excitements or pompous urgencies to purchase.

Be at home as you like, when it suits you, even if only to keep out of the heated streets.

Mark Lovely Colors in the Wanamaker Chamois-Lisle Gloves!

Yes, we're particular about that. No other chamois-lisle glove quite equals the delicately-graded color range.

They offer so many beautiful shades of mode, of gray, of pongee, and of beaver, it would be almost impossible not to find the shade you desire. Besides chamois yellow,

Young Girl's Bedroom in Old Curly Maple

THE ANTIQUE SHOP has done a room in old curly maple that will delight some one seeking suggestions for a sunny, cheerful bedroom, say for a young girl. All the pieces are of old Pennsylvania origin.

The centerpiece, of course, is the bed-a charming old maple fourposter of rather small size, with paneled headboard and bell-top posts. Above the posts rises a gracefully arched tent top of red and white English glazed chintz, with valance of ball-fringed white voile.

The dainty bedspread, the ruffled drapery of the dressing-table, and the curtains at the windows all carry out this sheer white voile and pink glazed chintz combination-as fresh and charming as apple blossoms!

In addition there is a beautiful old chest of drawers in curly maple; an unusually interesting little sewing table with three drawers, and three attractive chairs.

The Antique Shop will sell the pieces separately or together. If simpler beds are preferred, a pair of old maple low four-posters in the same room offer themselves reasonably.
