JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Speaks of the Comings and Goings of Debutantes and Others-She Tells of Miss Strong's Musical Ability

PEOPLE do go away later than they used to, and parties last even into July. The Henry Brinton Coxes' annual Fourth of July party and the Cassatts' dance for Sallie Henry on July 3 will be the last big parties.

However, a great many families have already gone away, and numbers of others are planning to go soon. Today Mrs. Albert Pancoast and her daughter, Mrs. Joe Widener, leave for Santa Barbara, Calif., and the Wutts girls, Marian, Eleanor and Posey, with their aunt, Mrs. Edmund McCullough, sail for Europe on the Rotterdam. On Saturday a party chaperoned by Mrs. Henry McIntire sailed for Naples on the Providence, Baba Mather, Ethel Norris, Lenette Jeanes and Mrs. McIntire's daughter Gwendolen. I hear that they are going on a tour for three months and will visit about every country imaginable.

London, They will later visit France, Switserland and Italy before returning to this country.

Mr. and Mrs. Gouverneur Cadwalader, of Hawkswell, Fort Washington, will leave early next month for Dark Harbor, Ms. Albert Draper Whiting, who has been spending a few days in Atlantic City, returned last evening to her home. 1523 Spruce street.

Mrs. Herman Harjes, of Paris, will arrive early next week and will spend a few days at the Ritz-Cariton.

that they are going on a tour for three months and will visit about every country imaginable.

Lots of debutantes are going abroad for the summer, too. To get a final polish before they burst upon a startled world. I suppose. Babs Clayton and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clayton, left last week, and Lucylle Austin, and her father, Mr. Richard Austin, are sailing in a week of two. Dolly Duane, who is coming out at a tea on December 9, I think—tea dates are changeable things—is going abroad soon.

December 9, I think—tea dates are changeable things—is going abroad soon.

NOT all of next winter's debs will be in Europe by any means. Bunny Geary has just come back, or so I heard, and so has Evie Martin. Lots of girls will be at Northeast, which is always popular. Anna Moss will be at Northeast, which is always popular. Anna Moss will be at Northeast, which is always popular. Anna Moss will be at Northeast, which is always popular. Anna Moss will be at Salary and will return in the autumn.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Cadwalader Evans, of 1702 Pine street, will sall for a trip abroad on June 28 on the Aquitania, where they will spend the summer traveling on the Continent.

GREAT many girls are very mu-A GREAT many girls are very musical. I hear that Sylvia Strong, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alan Hartwell Strong, expects to study music next winter and will not have any formal debut, though several parties are to be given for her. She has been at the National Cathedral School at Washington this season and has just Washington this season and has just come back to Philadelphia after going up to Princeton to the unveiling of the Battle Monument. She and her parents stayed with their cousins, the Bayard Stocktons.

When Sylvia was at school she gave a recital, as you know. She really is quite an accomplished violinist. This Friday she is leaving for the Chicago Musical College; later in the summer she will join her parents at Saunders-town, R. I.

MOMORROW night there will be an entertainment at Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brinton Coxe's place, Haffod, at Penllyn. There will be tableaux and clog Penllyn. There will be tableaux and clog dancing by Mary Ernestine Coleman, who did such fascinating steps as the heroine in "Why Not?" It will all be in the Coxes' attractive ballroom and will begin at 8:15. The official title of the party is "A Varied Entertainment Under the Chairmanship of the Messiah Church Service League."

haven't anything.—''
"Yes you have," interrupted the young person briskly, "I know exactly what I want. You have them all the time. They're those embroidered things and they're called Manila, I know."
"The only thing we have in embroidery would be one of these," the saleswoman tried hard to please. "This is Philippine.—"

"Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brandenstein, of 827 Gilham' street, Lawndale, gave a party last Saturday evening, June 10 in honor of Miss Porothy M. Gibson, of Lawndale, whose engagement to Mr. Harry Spangenberg, of Burholme, was announced by her father, the Rev. Alexander Gibson, D. D., of the Lawndale M. E. Church.

A dinnar-dance will be given at the Bala Golf. Club on Science. The young person who knew exactly what she wanted smiled a sheepish smile and became a young person who knew almost exactly what she wanted.

"'Oh, yes." she murmered apologetically, "Philippine—that's it!"
