WHY do so many enthuse about wimning girls? I am not referring to bathing beauties. I mean girls who actually get some place in the racing game. The reason is a simple one. They are good to look at.

Swimmers usually are evenly proportioned and have a clean-cut appearance. And the swimmers are as wholesome as they look, both physically and mentally.

Sir Arthur to Introduce Baseball in England

Atlantic City, June 19.—Sir Arthur Conan Doyle is planning to introduce baseball in England. If he could get a pair of good baseball men to make a lecture tour of col-leges in England and get English newspapers to print the rules of the game daily for perusal by the public, baseball would be received with "wild enthusiasm" he is certain.

"Baseball is a noble game," said Sir Arthur, who is making a short stop at the Hotel Ambassador. "I enjoy watching it immensely and have even played it. I was once a member of an impromptu team of Englishmen and played against an impromptu team of Americans, all in Switzerland at the time. Our side won. You may be sure, however that neither team would have qualified for the big leagues. I was shortstop on that occasion."

RISLEY LEADS GOLFERS

Field of Fifty in Annual At lantic City Tourney

Atlantic City, June 19. - Maurice Risley, Atlantic City amateur golf king. topped a field of more than fifty in the annual tournament for the Country Club of Atlantic City title played over the Northfield course. The first round of match play will be heid on June 24, and the championship will be decided on week lates. one week later.

Owing to a strong northerly breeze that blew over the links, the scores were higher than usual, and Risley turned in a card of 81 for the eighteen holes. He required a 41 on the outward journey and recorded 40 strokes coming back home. His score was 10 above par. Forty for the last nine is considered grand golf, and more so with a high wind. Harry J. Gormerly was right on Risley's heels with an 82. It took Gor-merly forty strokes to negotiate the first nine, but he stumbled coming to the clubhouse with his forty-two. He was one better than Risley going out.
