

ORANGEMEN DENY K. K. K. 'FRATERNITY'

Supreme Grand Master Declares Organization Has Nothing in Common With Klan

ANOTHER PLOT, HE ASSERTS

New York, June 20.—The Loyal Orange Institution of the United States (official title of the Orangemen), through its Supreme Grand Master, George Weir, yesterday denounced both the Ku Klux Klan and the formation by its leaders of a secret political organization to swing the pendulum of racial and religious bigotry over America.

Also it developed that the Atlanta Kluxers promoting "the Great American Fraternity," as they have named their projected super-organization, assumed more authority than they possessed when they undertook to include the Loyal Orange Institution, the Junior Order of United American Mechanics and the Sons and Daughters of Washington among the bodies whose members they are plotting to consolidate for nation-wide underground political activity. High officers of all three organizations declared none of them had been consulted about the scheme.

Backs Masonic Indictment
Speaking for the Loyal Orange Institution, Mr. Weir said his attitude toward Ku Kluxism was on an exact parallel with that expressed by Supreme Court Justice Arthur S. Tamm, grandmaster of the Grand Lodge of Masons of New York State, who condemned the Klan as anti-American and declared any Mason joining it would have his right to continue as a Mason in good standing seriously questioned.

"The Loyal Orange Institution," said Mr. Weir, "has no sympathy whatever with the Ku Klux Klan. We are not linked up with the order in any way and will not be linked up with it. The assumption of right to include the Orange Institution in the list of orders whose members shall be eligible for admission into this 'Great American Fraternity' is audacious and wholly unwarranted."

"There is nothing secret about the Loyal Orange Institution. We don't wear masks and we don't associate with any one who does. We stand four-square out in the open for the principles of pure Americanism, free speech, public schools, the right of every man to worship God as his conscience dictates, and to vote his convictions whatever they may be. We engage in no conspiracies against any sect, race or group."

Reputed by Other Societies
Mrs. Lottie A. McClure, of Jamaica, L. I., state secretary of the Sons and Daughters of Washington, generally regarded as an anti-Catholic organization, also passed up to the Klux promoters in Atlanta responsibility for including the name of her organization in the advertisements of the "Great American Fraternity."

"I have never heard of the Great American Fraternity," she said. "And I am sure there has been no communication between its officers and the Sons and Daughters of Washington."
The Junior order of United American Mechanics, which, in Atlanta at least, is regarded as extremely friendly to the Ku Klux Klan, has no official information on the Kluxers' new scheme, according to Franklin S. Ferry, New York State secretary of the order.

Los Angeles, Calif., June 20.—William S. Coburn, former Grand Goblin of the Ku Klux Klan, walked out of the courtroom yesterday while his bond was being fixed at $5000, and is being sought by the Sheriff.
When Coburn departed the Sheriff thought he was in custody of a deputy. Later a check disclosed that he was alone.

TAFT YIELDS TO LONDON SCRIBES AND CAMERON

Chief Justice Visits English Courts and Calls on King George
London, June 20.—(By A. P.)—Large forces of London's men of the pen, the pencil and the camera laid siege to William Howard Taft today and captured him bodily. Their ranks comprised newspaper men, photographers, moving-picture operators and cartoonists, all clamoring at once to see the Chief Justice of the United States. He finally surrendered to all four divisions, being interviewed, photographed and caricatured at the same time.

Otherwise the Chief Justice's second day in London was spent for the most part in visiting the English law courts. He was accompanied by Sir John Simon, former Attorney General, and other leaders of the British bar. He had luncheon with Ambassador Harvey and later called on King George, to whom he presented a message of greeting and friendship from President Harding. The Chief Justice and Mrs. Taft will be presented to King George and Queen Mary tomorrow by Ambassador and Mrs. Harvey.

The former President is being surrounded with luncheons, banquets and unrelenting festivities. It is feared he will not be able to give as much time as he expected to the study of English judicial procedure.
The pressure of his engagements is reminiscent of his presidential days, hospitals, charity enterprises, civic organizations and societies of disabled soldiers on all sides swamping him with invitations to make addresses.

HAGUE EXPERTS NOTIFY MOSCOW OF COMMISSIONS

Heads to Insure Unity of Action on Russia to Be Named Tomorrow
The Hague, June 20.—(By A. P.)—The conference of experts rested today while notification went forward to Moscow of the formation of sub-commissions which will negotiate with the Soviet delegation in regard to Russian affairs.

The president of the main commission and the chairman of the three sub-commissions will be elected tomorrow. These four heads will form a sort of central committee to insure unity of action.
France's decision to participate in the conference is explained as contingent solely on the condition that the meeting "is merely a reunion of experts and referendum"; in other words, that all decisions shall take the form of mere suggestions to their home governments and that all political questions be prohibited.

France also reserved the right to withdraw her delegates at any time, the attitude of the Soviet representatives appears to render it necessary.

MESSAGERS TO WEAR RED

New York Brokers to Test Plan to Scare Away Freebooters

New York, June 20.—A new plan to defeat the schemes of robbers who prey on Wall Street messengers carrying great sums in securities to and fro throughout the financial district will be inaugurated today.

Abandoning the old theory that a messenger should look as inconspicuous as possible, several brokerage houses have decided to test the anti-theft by arraying their messengers in bright red coats and hitching five-pound portable safes around their waists. The idea is to let the whole world know a messenger when it sees one. The brokers figure he would be a bold highwayman who would hold up one of these mobile safe deposit vaults.

The safe is a trick affair. A steel chain encircling the messenger's waist under the coat is padlocked inside the safe. The messenger doesn't know the combination of the safe and besides has to come back to get free, as the key to the padlock is kept in the office.

My dear Mr. Gillette:
Your letter of March 30th received. I have used the new razor constantly ever since you sent it to me and it has given me the greatest satisfaction. It is infinitely better than the old one. The question of adjustment was always a troublesome one to me. Now I keep it screwed down tight and have not the slightest difficulty. I am well pleased with it and heartily congratulate you upon this invention.

I hope I may have the pleasure of seeing you soon, to renew our old acquaintance.

With kindest regards, I am
Sincerely yours,
C. M. Schwab
