EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER-PHILADELPHIA, TUESDAY, JUNE 20, 1922

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Speaks of Miss Homer's Wedding. She Tells of a Tennis Tournament and of a Party at Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brinton Coxes'

VIOLA HOMER will be married to-day. She is the niece of Miss Con-stance R. Beale and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Homer, you know, and she is to marry George Knox Me-liwain. He went to Princeton and then to Penn, where he took electrical engineering. He is a member of the Delta Phi Fraternity at Penn, as are most of his ushers.

maid of honor and Mary Page Platt and Mrs. Unton Sullivan for the brides-maids. The ceremony will take place at noon at St. James' Episcopal Church, Twenty-second and Walnut streets.

The ceremony will take place at noon at St. James' Episconal Church, Twenty-second and Walnut streets.
Tonight there will be several parties for brides-to-be. Mr. and Mrs. Wil-liam Newbold Ely will give a dinner for their daughter, Dorothy, before her wedding rehearsal. Dot will marry "Herb" Warden tomorrow at St. Thomas' Church at Whitemarsh, and Mr. and Mrs. Stacy B. Lloyd will give a dinner for Hannah Elliott, whose marriage to Walter Pew will take place on Saturday at Calvary Church. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd will give one of Hannahs bridesmaids.
MR. AND MRS. GEORGE MeFAD-MR. And Mrs. Herbert E. Diller have

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE McFAD-DEN are planning another tennis tournament for their daughter. Carotournament for their daughter. Caro-line, I hear. Last year they gave it just about this time, but this summer it is not to be until July 7. because the college exams are now being held and most of the boys are taking them. The tournament is to be at their place, I hear, and will be lots of fur. Last year Ellen Harrison and Charlie Har-rison, 3d, won it. At least, I think Ellen was the sister he played with. However, they are all very good.

MONIGHT there will be a very in L teresting entertainment at Haffod. Penllyn, the counitry place of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brinton Coxe. It will be in the ballroom and will consist of tableaux and dancing. Among these who will take part in the tableaux are who will take part in the tableaux are Mr. and Mrs. Coxe's daughter. Mrs. Andrew Porter, Betsy Davis, Cornelia Rankin, Elennor Gummey, Tibby Tay-lor, Kay King, Mary Garnett and Mary Ernestine Coleman. I think the tableaux will be lovely as the "models" are all most attrac-tive, and I hear that some of the cur-tive, and I hear that some of the curtains to be used are from the School of Industrial Art, and that a great many of the costumes have been brought from abroad. Besides all this, Mary Ernestine Coleman, the heroine of Ernestine Coleman, the periode of Why Not 1922, will do a clog dance, and Mrs. Charles Willing will sing. The entertainment is under the di-rection of the Messiah Church Service League. As you know, the Church of the Messiah is that quaint little church at Gwynedd, where Catherine Coxe and Andy Porter were married last June, and where all the people around Penllyn and Gwynedd go.

NANCY WYNNE

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Mr. John White Géary, of Sunset and ermantown avenues. Chestnut Hill, Mr. John White Geary, of Sunset and Germantown avenues, Chestnut Hill, and Mr. Robert Leaming Montgomery, of Ardrossan, Villanova, have issue" invitations for a party on Friday, June 23, at the Fishhouse, in honor of their daughters, Miss Mary de F. Geary and Miss Helen Hope Montgomery.

An autumn wedding of much inter-est will be that of Miss Frances Jem-nings Ross, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George G. Ross, of Fort Washington, and Mr. William E. M. Pcole, son of Mrs. George P. J. Poole, of 1128 Spruce street, which will take place early in November, at Holy Trinity Church, Nineteenth and Walnut streets, and will be followed by a small reception for the immediate families and a few in-timate friends at the town house of

Ir. and Mrs. Henry Homer, you know, nd she is to marry George Knox Mc-lwain. He went to Princeton and ngineering. He is a member of the lelta Phi Fraternity at Penn, as are aost of his ushers. Viola will have Dorothy Burr for her maid of honor and Mary Page Platt and drs. Upton Sullivan for the brides-

Brown, of the South Forty-Inith attest. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert E. Diller have returned to their home, 527 South Forty-second street, from Lancaster, where they were the guests of Mr. Diller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Diller. They will leave for a motor trip through the White Mountains the latter part of the their children, of 1044 De Kalb street, have left for Ocean City, N. J., where they will spend the summer. Mrs. Albert P. Lewis, of 4906 Walnut

Mrs. Albert P. Lewis, of 4906 Wainut street, has been entertaining her cousins, Dr. and Mrs. Harry L. Smedley, who have been spending a year in California. Dr. and Mrs. Smedley, who formerly lived in Media, will return to the West within a few months.

SOUTH PHILADELPHIA

Miss Annabel V. Thomas, of 1721 Mifflin street, mas returned home after spending a few days in Atlantic City. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Nolan, of 1920 Flisgerald street, are being con-gratulated upon the birth of a daughter, Madeline Nolan. Mr. Robert Douglas McGowan and Mr. John Felix Harrington have re-cently returned from Chester Springs, Pa., where they had been the guests of Mr. Edward Peter Duff at his summer

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Watson, Schuylkill avenue. Jeffersonville, are i ceiving congratulations on the birth a daughter, Kathryn Watson, on June Mrs. Watson will be remembered Miss Elizabeth Kulp. ottage.

Friends of Mrs. Lee Masterson will be glad to hear that she is recuperating from a recent illness. Mrs. Masterson was Miss Mary Murray, of 1804 Tasker street.

STRAWBERRY MANSION

Mr. and Mrs. Wolf Srolovitz, of 2237 North Thirty-third street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Jeanno Srolovitz, to Mr. Nat L. Berko-witz, also of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Halmowitch have returned from their wedding trip. Mrs. Halmowitch will be remembered as Miss Gertrude Feldman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Feldman.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Sochel, of 2622 North Thirtieth street, announce the marriago of their daughter, Miss Henrietta C. Sochel, and Mr. Judah Schlein on Wed-

MISS VIOLA BEALE HOMER BRIDE OF MR. MCILWAIN

Bride of Today

10

W sills

VILL

MRS. GEORGE KNOX Me-ILWAIN

Who was Miss Viola Beale Homer, nicce of Miss Constance B. Beale, of 254 South Twenty-first street, before her marriage at noon today

DELAWARE COUNTY

Pnoto by Bachrach

Ceremony Took Place at Noon at St. James' Episcopal Church

Ceremony Took Place at Noon at St. James' Episcopal Church A wedding of much interest took place at moon today when Miss Viols Beale for the deam of the and Mrs. Henry Homer, became the bride of Mr. George Knox Mcliwain, son of Mrs. George Knox Mcliwain, also of this city. The ceremony was performed in St. James Episcopal Church, Twenty-second and Walnut streets. The church was deco-rated with lilles, paims and ferns. The Rev. Dr. John Mockridge, rector of the church, officiated. The bride wore a gown of ivory white satin, trimmed with pearls, and wore a girdle of pearls. Her long court train, extending from the shoulders, was of bands of net and satin and her veil of tulle was surmounted by a cap effect of old family Russian lace, with a cluster of orange blossoms at each side. She carried a shower bou-quet of lilles of the valley, white or-chids and Sweetheart rose. Miss Dorothy Burr was the maid of honor. She wore a frock of/ tearose organdy trimmed with hemstitching and a girdle of teasons satin. Her hat was of horsehair of the same shade, draped with shadow lace and trimmed with a streamer of the lace and a clus-tor fearoses. She carried a bouquet of tearoses. Mrs. Upton Sullivan and hiss frances Beale, the small daugh frocks of delphinium blue organdy, with girdles of tearose satin, and hats of horsehair, trimmed with lace and tea-roses, similar to the matron of honor. They carried bouquets of tearoses and blue delphinium. The flower girls were Miss Frances Beale, the small daugh-ter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard T. Beale, and Miss Allaire Croser, the daughter of horsehair and shadow lace, trimmed with eatorses, and carried bunches of teroses and delphinium. Mr. Meade Fletcher was best man hus con Garnett and Mr. Algernon in the usher's included Mr. S. Davis page, Jr., Mr. George A. Armistead, ir. Muscoo Garnett and Mr. Algernon jewelry.

Miss Dorothy German, of Johnstown, is the guest of Miss Mildred Danne-hower, of 1103 West Airy street. Clapp. A breakfast followed at the home of the bride's aunt, Miss Constance R. Beale, at 254 South Twenty-first Mr. and Mrs. George R. Ralston, of West Main street, are spending several weeks in Atlantic City. street On their return from a wedding trip. Mr. and Mrs. Mcliwain will live in Oak Lane. Dr. H. H. Drake, of De Kalb street, has returned from Portland, Me., where he was visiting his sen-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Davis Saul, at their summer home there.

DISTELL-LEVY

DISTELL-LEVY A pretty wedding will take place to day in the Templo Beth El, Fifty-eighth and Wainut streets, when Miss Miners Myer Levy, daughter of Mr. Henry Distell, vevo, 6206 Christian street, will was may ue Fredman will officiate. The bride, who will be given in maringe by her father, will wear a gown of white crepe and crystal beads and a lace veit of ads7 asper street. The Brev. Sami ue Fredman will officiate. The bride, who will be given in maringe by her father, will wear a gown of white crepe father, will wear a gown of white crepe father, will wear a gown of white crepe father, will wear a sown of white crepe father, will wear a sown of white crepe father, will wear a sown of white states will carty and crystal beads and a lace veit father, will set as maid of non. The bride, will act as maid of honor. The bride, will act as maid miss Mary Lockman, Miss Fay Buble-bank, Miss Latty Waiss and Miss Betty Harrison, of Ardmore. Miss Betty Harrison, of Ardmore. Miss Batty Batter L Zeper will be the page. Mr. Morris Distell will act ushers will include Mr. Robert Good-ushers will include Mr. Robert Good-man, Mr. Jack Bernstein, Mr. Sider Moskowitz, Mr. Carl Cavage and Mr. Ted Distell. LEVET-POMERANTZ

Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Wilson, of 6437 West Chester road, Millbourne, will go to their cotage at Stone Harbor on June 24 to remain until the middle of September. A fair will be given at the Millbourne Borough Hall on Friday next for the benefit of the Junior Needlework Guild of Millbourne, Mrs. Charles R. Wilson is chairman, assisted by Miss Doris Haw-kin, Miss Yvonne Havens, Miss Emily Jones and Miss Gertrude Weinshein. Miss Hawkins is president of this branch of the guild.

To Wed Tomorrow

MISS MIRIAM JOHNSTON Daughter of Mr. Herbert Johnston, of 3409 Walnut street, whose marriage to Dr. William T. Dowd, of Rome, N. Y., will take place tomorrow

DREAMLAND ADVENTURES

Teachers Wise By DADDY

Jack and Janet are having vacation fun in The woods, when the birds ask them to start a school. Janet agrees. The birds and Cold Nose Bear and Perky Squirrel come as pupila.

CHAPTER.II Janet Loses Her Job

Janet Loses Her Job "Chee!" chirped the birds, settling back into their places. "Chee! How ou scared us." "What do you mean when you ask us to spell cat?" queried Cocky Robin. "I mean for you to tell me what goes into 'cat'! answered Janet. "Teacher! Teacher! I know what provented for the places."

cracked bell calling the forest for the goes into 'cat' " answered Janet. —for they were keen to see what it was like to go to school. Janet arranged them in rows, just like children sitting at desks. Perky like children sitting at desks. Perky like children sitting at desks. Perky Janet thought she ought to keep a Janet thought she ought to keep a watchful ere on him. He was as livelike children sitting at desks. Perky Squirrel had a front seat, because Janet thought she ought to keep a watchful eye on him. He was as live-ly as a mischievous boy. Blue Heron and Cold Nose Bear had seats in the back row. That was because they were so large the other birds couldn't see over them.

"Teacher! Teacher! Teacher!" cried Goldie Ovenbird. "What is the first thing you do in school?" "I know." cried Reddy Woodpecker. "I looked in at a school room window one day. The first thing the pupils do Rob Home of $115 in Gems During the absence of the family of . L. Waugh, 5810 Washington ave-ue, yesterday afternoon, robbers enter-it he house and took $115 worth of Welry. . L. Waugh, 5810 Washington ave-"Good morning, teacher!" "Good morning, teacher!" "Good morning, teacher!" "Good morning, pupils," replied "avelry" A. L. Waugh, 5810 Washington and ine, yesterday afternoon, robbers enter-ed the house and took $115 worth of Janet.

Uncommon Sense : The Only Excuse for Conceit

By JOHN BLAKE

T IS true that many of the great cause of some physical adaptability gets I men and women of the world have an important part begins to think that the world should bow down to him.

been conceited. Julius Caesar was one of the greatest boasters of all time. Napoleon's best-known photograph is that of an extremely vain man, who folds his arms and frowns at an in-ferior world. Thackeray frankly admired his own genius, and rather looked down on peo-nle who were less gifted. the world should how down to him, the soon makes a nuisance of himself. T IS natural for people to desire to admire themselves. And it is justi-fiable if before they begin their self-mirable. The self-made man, who without any start in life homemen, who without any durable. If Edwin Booth or Thomas Jefferson ceited over. Better not had been conceited—which neither of Better not be conceited at all, but them was—they would have been par- if one must be conceited he will do doned. If a moving-picture actor who be- his conceit less offensive to others.

"Hee-haw! Hee-haw!" i hed Jack, kicking up his beels. was pretending to be a one-eyed mule who was happy because he didn't have to found herself out of a job.

so to school. "Tencher! Tencher! What do we do now?" cried Goldie Ovenbird. "We will have our spelling lesson first," replied Janet. "How do you spell cat?" "Chee!" shrieked the birds, rising on their wings in a frightened flutter-"Where's the cat?" Janet was sur-prised at the flurry her question had "When the flutter was sur-prised at the flurry her question had "When the flutter was sur-prised at the flurry her question had "When the flutter was sur-prised at the flurry her question had "When the flutter was sur-prised at the flurry her question had "When the flutter flutter flutter flutter flutter was sur-prised at the flurry her question had "When the flutter flu Fire in Woodland Avenue Garage Employes extinguished fire in the garage of John McNeil, at 5525 Weod-land avenue, which started about 6 o'clock when a pool of gasoline on the floor became ignited from the backfire of a motor truck. "Why, there isn't any cat here." she said. I just wanted to know how to spell 'cat'". "Chee!" chirped the birds, settling

Direction Stanley Company of America

NINETEENTH & MARKET

THE WOMAN

WHO

MILTON SILLS

WANDA HAWLEY

THIS WEEK

IN HER GREATEST

"Smilin' Through"

Karlton

Broad & Chestnut

Colonial

Broad and Erie

Open All Summer-11 A.M. to 11:15 P.3 Ideal Ventilation-Delightfully Comfortab GEORGE MELFORD

Ovenbird excitedly. "Birds go into cat, unless they keep a sharp watch for him." "That isn't what I mean," said Janet. "I don't believe you birds know how to spell."

know how to spell." "Chee! Chee! No we don't know how to spell and we don't want to learn anything about cats." That was the answer of the birds in chorus, so Janet turned to another subject. "We will have a class in geography." she announced. "Who can tell me the name of this land." "Teacher! Teacher! I know." d screamed Goldie Ovenbird. "This is summerland." That wasn't the an-swer Janet expected.

WALKEDALONE swer Janet expected. "No," she said, "this is America.

DOROTHY DALTON Do you know where Europe is?" The birds sat silent and looked puzzled. "Or Africa?" asked Janet. "Or Asia?" The birds couldn't answer. "Don" "Don't you know any geography at all?" per-sisted Janet, disgusted at the bird's lack of knowledge. "If you don't know where places are, how do you ever expect to be able to travel?" AT 11, 1:80, 3:30, 5:30, 7:80, 9:30 Added-Robert Armbruster at the Duc-Art Planola Plano MILLO PICCO, Barytone Soloist

"By fiying !" shricked all the birds together. And that was such a sensi-ble answer Janet had nothing to say. NORMA TALMADGE "Teacher ! Teacher !" screamed Goldie Ovenbird. "If you know so much about geography tell me the shortest way to get to my winter home in Mexico. Janet couldn't answer that at all. "Hee-haw! Hee-haw!" laughed Jack, still pretending to be a Simultaneously at the Following Theatres one-eyed mule. "And what is the shortest way to my winter home in Panama?" asked Blue Heron. "And to my home in Cuba?" added King Fisher. Janet could only shake her head. Those questions were beyond her.

Germantown & Chelten "We don't know any geography, but e know the shortest way to get to Great Northern places we want to go," rattled King Fisher. "I guess we know more than you do, so I will be teacher for awhile.

LEVET-POMERANTZ

Mr. and Mr. Maurice Bower Saul will entertain the Folke Mate of Rose Valley at their home on July 4. A program of sports will be followed by a picnic sup-per and a dance in the evening.

the bride's parents, 1721 Spruce street. Mrs. Edward B. Smith, Jr., of Gwynedd Valley, will entertain at luncheon on Thursday, June 29, in honor of Mizs Joy Drew-Bear, daughter of Mrs. J. Drew-Bear, of 102 South Eighteenth street. The guests will be from next season's debutante set. Miss Drew-Bear, who will make her debut st a tea to be given by her mother at the Bellevue-Stratford on December 1. will leave this city on July 1 for Greenwich, Conn., to spend two weeks as the guest of Mrs. Farmington Holt at her place, Water's Edge.

ate friends at the town house of the bride's parents, 1721 Spruce street.

as the guest of Mrs. Farmington Holt at her place, Water's Edge. Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Valentine, of Maplewood avenue, Germantown, gave a buffet supper last night in honor of their daughter, Miss Dorothy E. Val-entine, at the home of Mrs. Valentine's mother, Mrs. Mahlon N. Kline, Seminole and Rex avenues, Chestnut Hill. Among the guests were Miss Virginia Carpen-ter, Miss Mary Ridgely Carter, Miss Mary de F. Geary, Miss Evelyn Mar-tin, Miss Maud Harrison, Miss Eliza-beth Wear, Miss Anne Schwartz, Miss Betty Farnum, Miss Katharine Schwartz, Miss Dorothy Lee, Miss Nancy Wool-sion. Miss Elizabeth Atterbury, Miss Elizabeth McElroy, Mr. Frederick W. Swope, Mr. Potter Wear, Mr. George Dallas, Mr. Sigourney Wilson, Mr. Lee Fatton, Mr. William Riegel, Mr. Dud-ley Saul, Mr. Newlin Balley, Mr. George Allen, Mr. Stephen Woolston, Mr. Bur-net Landreth, Mr. Morris Swope and Mr. Lloyd Renshaw. Miss Valentine will make her debut at a tea to be given by her parents on Thursday, October 12. Mr. and Mrs. Valentine will give a dance on Saturday evening, Decem-ber 23, at the Philadelphia Cricket Club in honor of Miss Valentine. Her uncle, Mr. Clarence M. Kline, will give a dance for her early in the season at the Whitemarsh Country Club.

Among the debutantes who will at-tend the dinner on Tuesday evening, June 27, which Mr. and Mrs. William E. Goodman, Jr., will give at their home, 8860 Germantown avenue, Chestnut Hill, in honor of Miss Elizabeth Wear, before the done which Mass High Mark Hill, in honor of Miss Elizabeth Wear, before the dance which Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Walker Wear will give for Miss Wear that evening, will be Miss Mary Ridgely Carter, Miss Mary de F. Geary, Miss Evelyn Martin and Miss Anna Harris.

Miss Helen L. Sewell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sewell, of Ard-naree, Rydal, left on Friday to spend week in Boston, Mass.

Mrs. Henry S. Jeanes and her daugh-ber, Miss Elizabeth Jeanes, who re-turned last Friday from a several months' stay abroad, are spending some time with Mrs. Jeanes' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Thayer, Jr., at their home, 8007 Lincoln drive, Chestnut Hill, before opening Laywell, their home in Devon.

their home in Devon. Mr Reed A. Morgan and his daugh-ter, Miss Elizabeth Morgan, of 121 West Chestnut avenue, Chestnut Hill, will leave in August for a trip to Califor-nia. They will also visit Portland, where they will be the guests of Miss Morgan's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Minott. Mrs. Morgan and her two sons, Master Charles Morgan and Master Reed A. Morgan, will spend August at Watch Hill, R. I. Mrs. Minnott, who is now visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Wright Baird, at their home in Chestnut Hill, will return to Portland the latter part of this month. Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Eldon Graham

Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Eldon Graham and their daughter. Miss Gertrude A. H. Graham, of 1713 Spruce street, will open their cottage at Cape May next week.

Miss Edith Carpenter, daughter of Mrs. J. Crouse Carpenter, of 26 South Twonty-first street, who, with her moth-er and sister, Miss Eleanore L. Car-penter, and brother. Mr. Samuel E. Car-penter, Jr., has been living abroad. Fecently arrived in this country and is sbending some time as the guest of Miss Antoinste Geyelin, daughter of Mrs. Henry Laussat Geyelin, at Hardwicke, her home in Villanova.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Dodge, Mr. and frs. Joseph Lovering Wharton, Jr., and F. and Mrs. Spencer K. Mulford, Jr., Il of this city, who attended the wedding Mire Resamond Potter, daughter of