Although nothing has yet been arranged, it is taken for granted that Sir Heury will be given a great public funeral, with the military honors due his rank and services. The likelihood is suggested of burial in St. Paul's, the resting place of many of Britain's most noted warriors, including the Duke of Wellington and Admiral Nelson.

Condolences continued today to pour the angle of the brave men who stood out against that surrender. "We do not fear to say," it goes on, with an surrendering the cause of law.

The Morning Post describes the murder as "pair of an attempt to make Englishmen slaves of a terror such as the Irishmen are slaves of a terror such as the Irishmen are slaves of today." The newspaper flercely denounces the English Government and the parliamentary opposition for "surrendering to muider and violence in conapounding with assessment thereby sealing the fate of the brave men who stood out against that surrender."

To Keep Watch for Marauding Boys During Summer Vacation

OFFENDERS MUST PAY

Police were ordered today to guard the public schools against vandalism during the vacation period which started today when 250,000 boys and letic underwear (sleeveless girls left their desks until September 5. An increasing amount of vandalism in the schools has been reported to the Board of Education. Desks have been hacked with knives, blackboards cracked and walls spattered and marred.

A watch by plain-clothes men on all school property was ordered today by Director of Public Safety Cortelyou. Youthful offenders when caught will be brought before a committee of the Board of Education. The amount of damage they do will be assessed against their parents. Little real studying preceded the final outpouring today when the 250 schools closed their doors for the last time this summer. As good things come in bunches, the public baths learned in some way that
