Nancy Wynne Speaks of Five Interesting Weddings. She Tells of a Polo Match This Afternoon and of a Dance Tonight

THERE are five important weddings their parents. They leave some time next week, I think. so you see June is still being very gay so you see June is still being very gay even though a great many people have already gone away for the summer.

With the excelsion of Hannah Elliott and Walter Pew's marriage which will take place at noon at Calvary Church. Fifteenth and Locust, the weddings will be in the country or out of town.

At the Pew-Elliott wedding Betty Elliott Pew will be the matron of honor for her sister. As you know Betty married Walter Pew's brother, Arthur, and she and her husband have been living in Texas where he is in the oil business, and though it has been rather rough life Betty seems to have enjoyed it. I think Hannah and Walter Pew expect to spend part of their time down expect to spend part of their time town expect to spend part of the expect to spend part of the expect to spend part of their time down there too. are of Philadelphia men who are marrying girls from other cities, so it would seem that the sudden rush of girls to marry men not Philadelphians is being equalized. Patty Baker, who married Benjamin Griggs, of St. Paul. Minn., and Lenore McCall, who is now Mrs. Norman MacLeish, of Glence, Ill.—both married this spring—are two I can think of right off.

At Springfield, Mass., Mary Temple Bradley, the daughter of Mrs. Eustace Anstruther Bradley, will marry Jack Purves, who is the son of Mrs. Austin Purves, of Chestnut Hill. Jack and his bride will not come to Philadelphia to live, however. I hear that they expect to be at South Lancaster, Mass., for the present, at any rate.

What street, at her summer home. Club of the Seamen's Church Institute will act as aides. Peggy Thayer is secretary of the club, you know, and all the younger girls are in it. The Philadelphia ('ountry Club team and an "All-Philadelphia' combination will play.

Tonight Mr. and Mrs. H. Frazer Harton of Newport, which will take place on Monday next. Tonight Mr. and Mrs. H. Frazer Harris will give a dinner-dance at their home for their attractive daughter Anna, who will come out the year after next,
I imagine. The Harrises live outside of Chestnut Hill on Paper Mill road in and dinner will be served on the lawn. THOUGH there are still several weddings and a great many dances, lots of people are already beginning to go away. As usual, Northeast, Cape May and Saranac are among the popular and Saranac are among the populates for Philadelphians.

At Northeast Harbor there will be Mr. and Mrs. Howard Seaver and Mrs. Seaver's daughters, Mary and Suc Goodman, who is coming out in the autumn, by the way. They are leaving on the 30th, I hear. Another debunant the 30th, I hear. Another debunant for Winter Harbor, Me., where they will remain until autumn. Goedman, who is coming out in the autumn, by the way. They are leaving on the 30th, I hear. Another debutante of the fall who will be up there will be Anna Moss, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moss, of Bala. As her parents are going abroad she will be there with Mrs. Louis C. Baker, and as Mrs. Baker's daughters are all married now, with the exception of Rachel, who is chaperoning a party abroad on July I, it would seem a good arrangement all round. Sarah McLean genwho is chaperoning a party abroad on July 1, it would seem a good arrange-ment all round. Sarah McLean generally goes to Northeast, too, and so does Georgianna Harris. They will make their debuts in the fall. There will be the usual sprinkling of Philadelphians at Winter Harbor, which is across the bay from Northeast, and, then, Polly Bayard will be at Seal

Harbor with her grandmother, harles McKean Bayard, and all her

Mr. and Mrs. George Randolph Packard have a fascinating place there called Hoiokem, and I th they will be there for a time, though they are going abroad some time this summer. They often have delicated the summer that the marriage of their daughter. Miss

The Frazer Harrises will have a camp The Frazer Harrises will have a camp this summer, and, of course, the Newbold and Thayer families will be there. Mr. and Mrs. Sandy Paine, who have just returned from their wedding trip abroad, will go to Saranae for part of the summer, and so will Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Warden, Jr., who were married on Wednesday. Mrs. Warden was Dorothy Ely and she and her husband will arrive there for several weeks the end of August. They are going abroad first on the wedding trip, how-ever.

Mrs. and Mrs. Kathenhades, Read.

The marriage of Miss Hazel Boulden Kiefer, daughter of Mrs. Mary Louis Kiefer, of 5302 Angora terrace, and Dr. Kenneth Smedley Smith, son of Dr. Ravil Smith, also of this city, took place Saturday, June 10, at 7 o'clock in the Fourth Presbyterian Church. The sermon was performed by Dr. Ravil Smith, father of the groom, assisted by Rev. O. M. Jones. The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Mr. J. T. M. Smith, of New York.
