CLUBWOMEN ASK BETTER 'MOVIES'

Co-operation of Organizations With Producers Proposed in Federation Resolutions DELEGATES TO HEAR HAYS Chautauqua, N. Y., June 27.—Two resolutions having to do with motion pictures were considered today by the Resolutions Committee of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. One resolution, sponsored by the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, indorses the "better film organizations." The other, advanced by the federation chairman of moving pictures, Mrs. Woodruff Chapman of New York, recommends co-operation with all organizations interested in improving motion pictures. Discussion of the resolutions went over until tomorrow, when Will H. Hays, president of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors, is expected to speak before the convention. With Mrs. J. R. Schermerhorn, of East Orange, N. J., second vice president of the federation, presiding, representatives of the various State federations are attending through the federation centers for the exchange of volunteer social service. "Conditions in the average county are intolerable," said Miss Julia K. Jaffrey, Mrs. Jaffrey, chairman of the Committee on Institutional Relations. "County jails should be abolished and in their stead farm colonies should be set up under State control, where convicts can be trained to work and where they are paid according to the amount of work they do." Mrs. Thomas C. Winter, of Minneapolis, was nominated for re-election as president of the federation. The remainder of the ticket, all of which is unopposed includes: Mrs. William S. Jennings, Jacksonville, first vice president; Mrs. Wallace F. Peckham, Glendivert, Mont., second vice president; Mrs. James Hays, Atlanta, recording secretary; Mrs. Florence Elmer, Florence, Tex., treasurer. The election will take place on Thursday. The corresponding secretary will be appointed by the board. A suggestion is before the convention to remove this officer from the same city as the president. If the suggestion is adopted, Mrs. Henry S. Godfrey, of Minneapolis, probably will be selected.

HERRIN SURVIVORS FEAR FOR LIVES

Wounded Men Expect to Be Massacred When They Leave Hospital TELL MORE OF BRUTALITIES By Associated Press. HERRIN, Ill., June 27.—Twelve wounded men, survivors of the forty-seven non-union workers and guards captured at the Lester mine by a mob last Thursday, are in danger of their lives if they leave the HERRIN hospital, according to reliable reports reaching State and Federal investigators. "Dead men tell no tales, and some of those wounded men know too much for the safety of members of the mob," one HERRIN bystander commented. Officials of the hospital admitted that some union men attempted to remove one of the wounded guards at 11 o'clock last Saturday night, under promise of escorting him over the county line, but they were denied entrance to the hospital. "Men ask for soldiers. The consensus of opinion among the responsible element seems to be that the State should send one or two squads of armed soldiers to HERRIN when the wounded are ready to leave, to furnish their safe conduct back to Chicago. The mere appearance of a small body of men in uniform would forestall any mob action, HERRIN men say. That the massacre victims fear to leave the hospital, however, is confirmed by four of the men. Their fear was also held by Howard Hoffman, 621 Webster street, Huntington, Ind., one of the mine guards, and another unidentified guard, both of whom died in the hospital. Hoffman, in a dying statement, warned hospital authorities, it is said, that none of the wounded would ever leave Williamson County alive. He was among the six men tied together and shot down in a cemetery near the mine. Three were killed instantly, Hoffman and one other died in the hospital, and one still is there. Workers' Throats Cut Hoffman, when dying, said he felt at the first volley and feigned death. A member of the mob approached and fired pointblank into his back. Then he rolled Hoffman over, face up, and several men stamped on his chest. Finally one of the mob drew a knife and slashed Hoffman's throat. The other man, who died in the hospital without giving his name, and who was buried with the unidentified dead, told practically the same story. His throat also was cut. He said one member of the mob grasped his head as he lay on the ground and held it back while a companion wielded the knife. ALLEGED "KISSER" WINS ALIMONY OF TAXI MAN

Head of New York "Call a Yellow" Must Pay Wife $40 a Week New York, June 27.—Justice Seeger, at White Plains yesterday, filed an order granting $40 a week alimony to Mrs. S. M. Hendricks, wife of Benjamin Hendricks, of Cromwell, Ind., that city, pending trial of her separation suit against her husband, of Manhattan, president of the Call-a-Yellow Taxi Company. At the hearing last week, when the suit for separation was started, Mrs. Hendricks alleged in affidavits that her husband "kissed" her for her alleged flirtations with other men and "coerced" her by his unseemly language. The husband said he was justified in "ragging" his wife—that her offenses were numerous. Among them he cited an instance of a week-end party at South Beach, Conn. Hendricks arrived at the party late. He was not at the door, he said, by 11 p.m. Hendricks, who greeted him with, "There's a dirty blonde here and she's some good." She's just gone upstairs," Brandon said the blonde proved to be his wife. Mrs. Hendricks denies this imputation.

EVANGELIST'S WIFE SUES

Melvin R. Trotter Accused of Improper Relations With Secretary Grand Rapids, Mich., June 27.—(By A. P.)—Hearings in the suit for separate maintenance brought by Mrs. Lotie M. Trotter against her husband, Melvin R. Trotter, were begun in Superior Court here yesterday. Mrs. Trotter charges her husband with improper relations with his secretary, a young woman, in a rooming house, and with other acts of unseemly conduct. His wife is of unworldly mentality. Bert W. Ricker, of Highland Park, Mich., testified yesterday that he saw Trotter on his return from a trip in June, 1917, kiss his secretary, Miss Florence Moody, and overheard him address her in endearing terms.

WIFE FORGIVES ELOPING SPOUSE AND STENOGRAPHER

Seeks to Obtain $5000 Bail After Couple Are Arrested New York, June 27.—When Albert Tondra, forty-five and married, and Miss Rose Beszedek, seventeen-year-old stenographer, were brought to the Yorkers police station yesterday from Albany, the first person to go to their aid was Tondra's wife. Mrs. Tondra, who lives in Yonkers, in a new place, forgave her husband, but also the girl whom he is alleged to have taken with him to Albany, where the police apprehended them. Judge Rosenwasser fixed bail for Tondra, who is a music instructor and orchestra leader, at $5000 on a charge of abduction. The girl was ordered held as a witness until the hearing tomorrow. The girl maintained that her actions and those of Tondra were perfectly proper. Tondra told Lieutenant Cooper, head of the Detective Bureau in Yonkers, that he and the stenographer were going to spend vacation at separate addresses in Niagara Falls.

WISCONSIN DEMOCRATS HAVE HOPE OF VICTORY

Year for Political Housecleaning; Chairman Tells Conference Milwaukee, June 27.—(By A. P.)—This is the year for political housecleaning in Wisconsin, with the Democrats sweeping the Republican party, which for twenty-seven years has held all State offices, from power, Thomas M. Kearney, temporary chairman of the Democratic State conference, said in an address prepared for delivery to delegates at their gathering here today. He declared that the Republican party had run the State near the verge of bankruptcy. Touching indirectly on the prohibition issue, Mr. Kearney declared that the Democratic party "stands at all times for the enforcement of existing laws," but said that "ever law, either constitutional or statutory, is always subject to the will of the people." Senator La Follette was scored for what Mr. Kearney termed an agreement between the Senator and Victor Berger to combine their forces in the coming campaign.

J., June 27.—Charged with the theft of $200,000 worth of materials from the United States army stock base at Fort Newark, four privates attached to the load base and port from Fort Wood, Governors Island, N. Y., were arrested today. Part of the stolen property, valued at $14,000, has been recovered. The arrests were brought about as the result of a collision in Newark of an army truck and a touring car. A Modern Romance —By J. P. McEVROY THE sun was setting in the West, A quaint old custom it has got, Beloved hating at his best. Could not have picked a better spot, He drew her close and closer yet, And closer still he drew and drew—"I love you, Annie!" he cried, "Do you love me?" and she replied: "I'll say I do." And hours passed and in the sky The argent moon on pallid feet Stole softly through the clouds on high—"Those first three lines are rather neat." And then he said: "I love you, dear, My heart is beating fit to kill, Oh, tell me that you'll marry me, And soft and sweet she said to be: "I'll say I will."
