Nancy Wynne Sees Many Persons Lunching in Town. She Talks of Debutantes of Coming Season and Deplores Nicknames

there were in town on Monday and there were in town on Monday and sterday. It seemed to me that my sterday. It seemed to me that my sterday. resterday.

In table at the Bellevue roof sains to a table at the Bellevue roof sains to a table at the Bellevue roof sains to a table at the Bellevue roof sains was there with one of her sughters, and Mrs. Ben Reath and her sughters, and Mrs. George Rosenson Pancoast, and Mrs. George Rosenson Pancoast, and Mrs. George Rosenson Pancoast, whose daughter, Elizater and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wilserten and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wilserten and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wilserten and her sister-in-law, Mrs. and Atterbury, whose daughter, Elizaby the way, is coming out next

That makes you realize how time fies! It seems scarcely a year since I aw Elizabeth with her long curls and we Elizabeth with her long curls and waring cunning gingham frocks, playing in the sand with her two brothers is Chelsea. And now here she is coming at Chelsea. And now here she is coming at To be sure, she does not look much sleer, with her bobbed head and dancing sleer, with her bobbed head and dancing sher have been in Europe for a while and returned just about a fortnight ago. Elizabeth, or "Liz." as she is caned, will have lots of pretty French clothes her winter of fun.

Don'T you really think it's a shame the way one's friends and com-mions spoil a beautiful name by makmaions spoil a beautiful name by maka nickname. Nearly all the Elizabeths I know, for instance, are Bess or Bessle, or Lizzie or Lizz or Libby, and it's such a pity! Take Virginia, too.
Time was when that was ruined by the schamme Ginnle; that was in Civil War times and all the heroines in the sevels written about the South at that time were Jinnie or Ginnie, as you doose to spell it. And Virginia is changed now to Gina, and there's choose to spen to Gina, and there's scarcely a girl with that lovely name who gets it from any one but her fam-

There's Gina Norris, who is coming out this year, and Gina Heckscher, who married Barclay McFadden in Easter week; Gina Earle, Gina Carpenter, another debutante of this season, and ever many others.

FLL wager that Margaretta Sharpless, Harriet Zimmermann and Mary Godman have been having a wonderful time in Newport these last few days. Tou know, they went up to Newport to stay with Peggy Graham a few days. bestay with Peggy Graham a few days before her wedding, which took place bridge at the Berkeley Memorial Church in Middletown, and they were all bridesmaids. Peggy married Devereux Josephs, of Baltimore, and they are going to spend their benezues. are going to spend their honeymoon in Europe. That will be wonderful, will t not? Another very delightful thing about it is that they are to live in this city instead of Baltimore, so Peggy will still be among us.

CPEAKING of recent weddings, I Junderstand that Miss Rebecca Newhell was married very quietly last Thursday to Mr. Mydrs, of Roxborough, in Holy Trinity Chapel, and after their redding trip they will live at 130 South Twenty-second street. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the immediate families only.

Several of us were talking together of Mrs. Myers the other day and I quite envied her, for I never heard such endid things as were said of her; and the is one of the most whole-hearted, brable persons I know. I do not believe she ever had an unkind thought about anyone, much less formulated one is speech. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Barney harris, of Baltimore, will give in honor of their daughter, Miss Mary Carroll Harris, this week.

ticular as to her conduct, and who has never been known to say or do any but the proper thing, happened to sit next to one of those men who love to play practical jokes while going on one of the stunts. Imagine her horror and the delight of the others in the party when the car went through a tunnel and the young man was heard to exclaim in pained tones: "No, no, my dear Jane! No, no, mustn't kiss in the tunnel! I mid no, this is not the place."
