TRAIL LEE'S ARMY

Maneuvers of Marines Follow Operations Which Preceded Battle in 1863

READY TO GREET HARDING

Special Disputch to Evening Public Ledger Gettysburg, Pa., June 29 .- Over muddy fields and through sodden trenches the men of the Fourth Brigade of marines went on with their maneuvers at Camp Harding today, a heavy downpour last night making the ground exceedingly heavy and work difficult, but there was no let up in the program. Immediately after breakfast half of the command went out in their problem of tactics and again as yesterday the operations of an imaginary force west of Gettysburg furnished the basis of the movements. The advance of General Lee and his army on this SPEEDS RUSSIAN RETURN place in 1863 is being followed and the maneuvers are progressing daily in much the same way as the operations mmediately preceding the battle.

being directed in an effort to make it entirely successful and spectacular Even to the uniform of the Confederate soldier are features being arranged, the regulation outfit of the marine being changed cleverly to resemble the garb of the men of the South who fought at Gettysburg. Plans are being laid new for a series of night maneuvers which will demonwarfare, while the tactics of sixty years ago are shown in the day-time

Staged.

Final arrangements for entertaining the President and his party have been completed. They are expected to reach here about 4 o'cleck Saturday afternoon and will be escorted to camp from the Maryland line by a detail of sixty State police. When they reach camp they will find Governor Sproul, of Pennsylvania, and Governor Trinkle, of Virginia, awaiting them and glad to welcome them to the battlefield. The President's quarters are about finished. President's quarters are about finished and will be completely appointed in every detail, the furnishings being of a callsion with an automobile, and farcharacter befitting the distinguished guests, though the structures in which the structures i they will be entertained partake of the camp atmosphere with their canvas sidewalls and roofs.

HAYS ASKS SUPPORT FOR GOOD PICTURES

Women's Federation Urged to Battle Against Objectionable Films

Chautauqua, N. Y., June 29 .- The floodgates went down in yesterday's meeting and a torrent of questions, pent up heretofore, bore down on Will H. Hays in the motion-picture day of the convention. Other valuable interests had come up earlier in the day and there appeared such notable speakers as Miss Grace Abbott on "Looking After the Whole Child": Dr. Simon Flexner on "Public Health and Mod-ern Medicine": Hugh Frayne, of the American Federation of Labor, on "The Prison Labor Problem and So-ciety".

Some of the great throng of women seemed to feel the motion-picture question transcended all the others and was also closely related. So in the after-noon conference of the Motion-Picture Committee there evolved the most spir-ited session of any-perhaps even of ny former biennial. In Mr. Hays the women seemed to recognize a new kind of director, a man who again affirmed his determination take the fifth out of pictures i from the posters advertising them. made a direct appeal for the mobilition of the moral forces of the Gen-Federation to support good pic-and condemn the bad so that may be attucked and maintained ish delegation, insisted upon the consideration of definite propositions in today's discussion with the Russians here of plans for the restoration to foreigners of the property they held in Russia before the Soviet took over control. It was time to quit discussing glittering generalities, he declared.

Sir Philip suggested that all property or undertakings of foreigners in Russia should be divided into two classes for the purpose of determining in what manner the Russians would restore possession to all the old owners. In the first group he would place the industrial and commercial enterprises.
