AGOOD many Philadelphians will go A over to Southampton today, and, indeed, some have been there for several days, for the wedding festivities is connection with John McFadden's wedding to Florence Ellsworth. You remember the engagement was ansounced from Rome about four months ago, and since the return of the Ellsworths to this country preparations for the event have been going on.

John or Jack McFadden is the son of the late John H. McFadden, who were the Late John H. McFadden, who were for many years in the beautiful old brownstone house at the northeast sorner of Nineteenth and Wannu streets, the fomer Neilson Brown house, now the site of the Wellington Apartments. The late Mr. McFadden was a great lover of art and was the owner of a most wonderful collection of paintings and statuary. His daughter Alice married "Jab" Brinton some years ago, and their small daughter Pamela us to be flower girl at the wedding today.

MR. AND MRS. STEVENS HECK. MR. AND MRS. STEVENS HECKMSCHER will give a dinner-dance tonight for Mrs. Heckscher's daughter, Gwiadys Hopkins. Gwladys goes to Dobbs Ferry and is most attractive.
She will come out the year after next,
I think. Her stepsister, Rita Heckscher, made her debut two years ago.
Rita is handsome and she and Gwladys are both blondes. The dance will be for the sub-deb crowd. My, they have been gay for the last week or so, during the time when school is over, and yet most persons have not begun to go away.

Another party for tonight is a dance which Mr. and Mrs. William Struthers Ellis, of Foxhill Farm, Bryn Mawr, will give for their daughter Cintra, who came out last winter and had a very good time. too. There will be lots of dinners before the dance. Anna Newbold, Mr. Clement Newbold's daughter, will give one. Anna and her father are going up to Bar Harbor father are going up to Bar Harbor soon. Another dinner will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Dolan, by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence W. Dollar, who will entertain for Nancy McKean, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McKean. Nancy is going out West to a ranch near Jackson's Hole in about CPEAKING of summer plans, Helen D and Florence Michell, the daugn-ters of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Michell, are going abroad with their mother on July 8. They are seiling on the on July 8. They are sailing on the Majestic and will spend the summer traveling through Europe. Among other things, they are going to the Among Passion Play at Oberammergau.

I saw Helen and Florence several days ago. They were dressed alike, in frocks of natural color pongee simply made, with round necks and short sleeves. Their sashes were dark blue, with Roman stripes. Small dark blue consetts but completed unusually georgette hats completed unusually good-looking costumes. The sisters are pretty and look very much alike, much more so than most sisters.

TIMMIE was sent to Aunt G-'s to spend the day recently. He enjoyed himself very much and was most grown up at the table. Though he is only six, he declared he needed no assistance in the cutting of his piece N. H. of chicken, saying: "No, no, auntle; we often has tough chicken like this at our house, I can cut it."
