ENTERTAINING with a supper or dance or porch party on the evening of the Fourth is a delightful way of celebrating this day, especially if you have young folks about the house. The family may elect to have either a picnic or family dinner and then close the day with an informal dance. The older folks may have a table for cards Wednesday morning, as the commission merchants and many of the stores will be open Monday, or if they do not have fresh supplies. If you plan carefully you too can enjoy this holiday with just a minimum of work.

Panned Lamb Kidneys With Bacon

Wash four lamb kidneys and slice in thin slices with sharp knife; roll in flour, brown quickly in hot bacon drippings; now add

One tablespoon of grated onion,
One green pepper, minced fine,
One cup of milk, and simmer slowly until the kidneys are tender—this usually requires about eight minutes. Serve on toast with bacon garnish.

Summer Squash Pie

Line deep pie plate with plain pastry. Now rub through a fine sieve

One and one-half cups of cooked summer squash,
Three-quarters cup of sugar,
One cup of thick cream sauce,
One-half teaspoon of salt,
One-half teaspoon of nutmeg,
One teaspoon of lemon rind,
Juice of one lemon,
Two tablespoons of butter,
Yolks of two eggs.

Beat well to blend and pour in the prepared pie plate and bake in slow oven for thirty minutes.

Place whites of eggs in bowl and beat until stiff; now beat in one-half cup of granulated sugar and then fold in two tablespoons of powdered sugar, place on the pie and brown lightly in hot oven.

Things You'll Love to Make

SCARF EVENING GOWN

A SCARF EVENING GOWN is delightful for late summer affairs. Fashion the gown after the mousseline long line effect. Have a long straight piece of fancy chiffon or georgette pinned all around. Join the center front of one long side to the center front of the other. Cover the joining with a large ornamental button. The scarf can then be draped in any way that suits the whim of the wearer. A SCARF EVENING FROCK will be of great comfort on a cool evening; for you can throw the scarf about you to ward off cool breezes after a dance.
