good action at that, and for those who like genuine melodrama there could

SWEATER SALE

REGULAR $18.00 SILK SWEATERS BEAUTIFUL DESIGNS

At $7.50 and $9.50

COLUMBIA KNITTING MILLS

3425 KENSINGTON AVE. Phone Fkd. 2810—Fkd. Cars pass our doors.

Horlicks

"Food Drink" for All Ages.

Quick Lunch at Home, Office, and

Avoid Imitations & Substitutes

For Cake Flavoring

and Pie Fillings-

Never fails. Puddine is also ideal for making Blanc Mange, Ice Cream, Custards, Puddings and Sauces.

Eight Flavors

At All Grocers, 10c, 15c Fruit Puddine Co., Baltimore, Md.

By Careless Washing

Soap should be used very carefully, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shumpoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

The best thing for stendy use is Mulsified cocoanut oil shampoo

(which is pure and greaseless), and is better than anything else you

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup or glass with a little warm water is sufficient to cleanse the hair and scalp thor-oughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich creamy lather which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dand-ruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.—Adv.

Bordens

CHOCOLATE

MALTED MILK

A HEALTHFUL

hetween-meals

snack for youngsters

-and oldsters, too.

All the nourishment and food value of malted milk-and a delicious chocolate

ATTED

flavor in addition.

You can get Mulsified cocoanut

Hair Often Ruined

can use.

easy to manage.

Fountains. Ask for HORLICK'S.

Milk

For Infants

of Blackberries

Either as a Jam, a Cordial or a Jelly Roll It May Be Attractively Served

By MRS. M. A. WILSON pright, 1928, by Mrs. M. A. Wilson, TULY is the blackberry month and TULY is the blackberry month and this luscious berry can be found along the country roadside and in the selds and woodlands, growing wild. The selds and blackberry is about twice as ingreand has an entirely different flavor from the berry that grows wild.

The blackberry is usually conserved by canning or making into jam or jelly. It is also spiced, and made into cordials. I have gathered from some Mid-West eites and country towns some of the old-time recipes for using the black-

To Can Blackberries

over the berries, removing all soft berries, wash and turn on cloth to dry; now place in preserving kettle cup of water, Two cups of sugar. Bring to a boil and cook for five min-

Bring to a boll and cook for hive min-utes. Now add One quart of blackberries. and cook for five minutes. Then lift the beries with a skimmer into pint jars.

Add more berries to the sirup in the with the well-drained cooked berneck with the well-drained cooked ber-res. Now fill jar to overflowing with the sirup in the kettle and adjust the rubber. Partially tighten the jars, place in hot-water bath, with the water just to the neck of the jars, and process for twenty minutes. Remove from the jath, seal securely, and when h, seal securely, and when cold the tops of the jars in melted para-

method gives more berries in the jar than putting the uncooked berry in the jar and then filling with the boil-Spiced Blackberry Jam

Wash and slice sufficient summer aples to measure one quart, place with one cup of water in preserving kettle brough a fine sieve. Return pulp to the kettle and add

Four quarts of blackberries,
Three and one half pounds of sugar.
Stir to dissolve the sugar and bring slowly to a boll. Now prepare a spice bag as follows: Place in a piece of cheesecloth

Two teaspoons of ginger, Two teaspoons of cinnamon, One teaspoon of allspice. One-half teaspoon of cloves, One-quarter teaspoon of unisced. Tie securely, allowing room for the pices to float in the bag. Add to the prepared blackberries in the preserving kettle and cook until the mixture is thick like jam. This mixture will have to be carefully watched and stirred constantly, as it burns very easily. Fill in to sterlized half-pint jars and seal

Spiced Blackberry Cordial Place in the preserving kettle Pour quarts of ripe blackberries, Five cups of water, Four cups of sugar.

spice bug as prepared for the spiced blackberry jam. Stir to dissolve the sugar in the water and bring to boilhrough. Fill into sterilized bottles. Place bottles in the preserving kettle, fill the kettle with cold water to reach to the neck of the bottles and bring to boiling point. Boil for twenty minites, seal bottles securely, as you redip the top of the bottle in melted

Blackberry Roll

Place in mixing bowl

Three and one-quarter cups of flour,
One teaspoon of salt,
Three level tablespoons of baking lips lent invaluable support, produced an act which evoked laughter almost without limit in his skit, "At the

One-half cup of shortening.

Use seven-eighths of a cup of milk to form a dough. Roll out this dough on lightly floured pastry board about one-quarter of an inch thick and in an oblong sheet. Spread lightly with butter, then with brown sugar, and finally with one quart of washed and dried berries. Dust lightly with cinnamon and roll as for jelly roll. Place in wellreased and floured baking pan and bake is moderate oven for thirty-five min-utes. Baste after the first ten minutes

One-half cup of strup, One cup of boiling water. Baste the roll three times while baking. Serve with thin blackberry sauce made by cooking blackberries and meetening with brown sugar. This troll is delicious either hot or

DADDY LONG LEGS IN STOCK

Mae Desmond and Excellent Cast Score in Comedy Cross Keys - That very refreshing of his tricks and investment of vaude-ale, "Daddy Long Legs," was well ville.

and by an unknown benefactor, Miss scored. "Why Announce Your Mar-riage?" with Elaine Hammerstein in the leading role, was the photoplay ate girish portrayal highly interesting traction.

rank Fielder and other members of the company proved adequate in the company proved adequate in the company roles. There was a stamp of These lived up faithfully to the atmosphere of the tale.

URGES POSTAL EFFICIENCY

Heads of Third and Fourth Class FLORENCE VIDOR AGAIN Offices Ending Convention

Greater efficiency in small postoffices.

Pecally in the handling of parcel at mril, was advocated today at the al raceting of the annual convention

Lostmasters of the annual convention

Addine—Florence Vidor has probably done nothing better than her work as a strikingly modern woman in "The Real Adventure." It is the story of a brilliant woman, who finds herself taking lown, where it forms a close tak between producer and consumer. sion as a lawyer and she decides that she must prove that she is his equal in Announcement was made today of to New York and the story carries her from a chorus girl to a famous designer of costumes. charter members have elected John H. President, Louis Gallagher vice and so all can imagine now the sends, the Milliam secretary and sends and Maloney treasurer. A board of winds composed of Wallace T. Russell Anderson, W. Paul and has also been chosen.

The production has many points that are decidedly unusual, and it shows the care with which the producer. King Vidor is finding his way to recognition as one of the most sincere and artistic men in the business. There are some thrilling blizzard scenes and the socieday during the wife's theatrical Frank Hassen.

gest Held on Rum Charge pschutz, a druggist, Thir-Oxford streets, was held in y Magistrate Roberts this larged with selling liquor regard for the statute.

Mrs. Wilson Speaks Chiffon One of the Most Popular Summer Fabrics

By CORINNE LOWE

VIVIENNE SEGAL

tractive Summer

Feature

Dave Rota is a comedian, dancer and Harry Breen, the composer, sang a mber of his own songs, and Van and Bell proved experts as boomerang throw-ers. Other acts included those of Charles Baby Edna Kier in songs and stunts, entertaining features in the picture por

Walton Roof-An exceptionally good summer bill is offered. Kenney and O'Neill please in a singing and dancing skit. Gerald Lear, an energetic drum mer, shows how this instrument can be made musical. Sheldon, Thomas and Babb offered some new steps from danceland with good results.

Story of Modern Woman Gives Her

Fine Chances and Production is love of her husband does not satisfy and so all can imagine how the story

SCORES IN ALDINE FILM

SNOW IN EVIDENCE

IN WEEK'S FILMS

like genuine melodrama there could scarcely be better fare.

Helene Chadwick, who, has proven herself to be a very fine actress in stories of a different type, is equally fine in this, and her coestar, Richard Dix, makes his usual satisfactory appearance as the hero.

There are other favorites in the cast including Henry Burrows, Rosemary Theby, Richard Tucker and Goro Kino.

Stanley—Betty Compson has had pictures in her career which have given her much better chances than she finds in "Over the Border," but the story is sufficiently strong to hold interest, and all of the scenes are laid in the Canadian Northwest with a vast expanse of snow, which is most refreshing in hot weather.

With two such stars as the fair Betty and Tom Moore working together, and the megaphone in the hands of the producer company's very best of the producer company the p gether, and the megaphone in the hands of the producer company's very best director, Penryn Stanlaws, it was a foregone conclusion that the most possible would be made of the story. It is full of exciting incidents with the smuggling of whisky over the border as its theme and with all the lovable characters have fearly violators of characters being frankly violators of the law, and we sit here and feel like cheering them as they evade punish-ment, in spite of the fact that we know it is highly improper to do so. And when Tom Moore as the sergeant of the mounted police helps his girl's brother to escape the hangman's noose, we do not feel like reproaching noose, we do not feel like reproduction bim and, anyway, people who survive the freezing blizzard through which vive the freezing blizzard through which nost of the action takes place deserve Casson Ferguson adds another ex-usual acting parts. The cast also in-cluded J. Farrell MacDonald, Sidney

D'Albrook, Jean de Briac and E. J

Karlton—There are many points of similarity between "The Ordeal." Agnes Ayers' second picture, and her first one. She again has a drunken husband, although this time he dies before she can reform him as effectively as she did Jack Holt, but she still has Chiffon with the dance might be the the burden of a money-loving family dogan of this present summer. Chiffon, whose expensive tastes can only be in fact, shares with crepe the distincslogan of this present summer. Children in fact, shares with crepe the distinction of being the most popular of the fair Agnes has never worn so many handsome gowns as she does in this bandsome gowns as she does in this shares with the fair Agnes has never worn so many handsome gowns as she does in this bandsome gowns as she does in this shares with the fair Agnes has never worn so many handsome gowns as she does in this bandsome go For evening wear white chiffon production. She seems to have a trimmed with panels or draperies of strikingly new and elaborate creation black chantilly has become one of the for each one of her scenes, but any classics of the year. Dance frocks employing vari-tinted and plaited chiffon panels over a gold foundation are an ac-

Ayers anyway.

The story concerns the conscience of panels over a gold foundation are an acceptable suggestion to many a debutante, and there are various combinations of crepe and chiffon for both afternoon and evening wear. Perhaps one of the most delightful of the new chiffon frocks is in white made up over gold tissue and showing a skirt in which ovals of graduated size are cut from the fabric and then bound with tiny ruffles of black chantilly.

Here we show a simple but effective little frock of pearl gray chiffon combined with white chiffon. This is trimmed with ruches of coral-red ribtrimmed with ruches of coral-red rib-bon further developed into the corsage demands on her bank account. How-flower and into the tiny bows orna-ever, the story ends happily, as it ever, the story ends happily, as it should. menting the tucked vestee of gray chifcast, with Conrad Nagel doing his usual splendid work. Edna Murphy plays the sister and Clarence Burton, STARS AT KEITH'S one of the best of our villains, scores as the husband, although he seems inclined to overdo the part.

the mar in the water and bring to boiling point. Cook slowly for twenty mining point. Fill into sterilized bottles.

Musical Comedy Star in Atscreen, although she has been making pictures in New York for a year or a local control of the screen, although she has been making pictures in New York for a year or a local control of the screen, although she has been making pictures in New York for a year or local control of the screen. more. The first to be released is "French Heels." It is not particularly good screen material, but it gives Miss Castle plenty of chance to prove that she is still one of the most graceful Keith's—Vivienne Segal won splendid recognition at the head of the Keith's bill. Her songs, including some of the old ones that have become classic and old ones that have become classic and dare do.

some of the new popular selections won warm applause for the Philadelphia trasts. We first meet the heroine at the close of the war. Her father is dead and her brother killed in action, dancer amid the gilded surroundings of Broadway night life. Here the producers have spared no expense or pains in making the scenic settings sufficiently musician, and gave a remarkable exhibition of versatility, while "Wroe's Buds of 1922," in a miniature revue, "Youth and Beauty," won well-deserved applause in a juvenile dance act. elaborate, and though the length of film levoted to Miss Castle's dancing is rather excessive most people will probably enjoy it.

The heroine marries the son of a wealthy lumberman, and they are sent by the father to spend their moon at a lumber camp. Here the favorite of the cabaret tires of the simple life, a harmlessly villainous Crafts and Jack Maley in a comical favorite of the cabaret tires of the dialogue on "Wimmin," and Booth and Nina in some fast evolutions on wheels, theatrical manager appears to add comical theatric plications and the promise "I do" is Globe — Wyatt's Scotch Lads and about to die away into an inaudiblbe Lassies led a snappy bill with songs, whisper when hubby is injured in a dances and bagpipes. With them were fight during a strike, and nobody need wo Philadelphia boys, Caites Brothers; be told how the story ends after that. Baby Edna Kier in songs and stunts. Miss Castle's leading man is Ward a malange by the Musical Hodges; Arthur Lloyd, the "card index," and other attractive acts. There are many Charles Murray.

Nixon—Mystery and artistic dexierity combine to make the act offered by the "Great Richards" highly entertaining. He deals in the seemingly imthe "Great Richards" highly entertaining. He deals in the seemingly impossible and almost makes the audience believe that black is white. Many of his tricks and illusions are original. thriller, a search for a buried treasure The hero has the chart and the villains told by Mae Desmond and Her Players. The cast gave a faithful portrayal of the characters made famous in the story of Jean Sothern, star of the stage and told portrayal of the characters made famous in the story of Jean Webston of the beautiful heroine does a high diverging the characters made famous in the story of Jean Webston of the beautiful heroine does a high diverging the characters and the characters made famous in the story of Jean Webston of the beautiful heroine does a high diverging the characters and the characters are considered and screen, appeared in a novel and the characters are characters. d lean Webster.

As the girl who is sent from a charity home to a fushionable boarding benefactor, Miss board was delighted to a fushionable boarding benefactor, Miss benefacto

-KNITTING WOOL-BEADS Embroidering, Beading, Braiding

Novelty Embroidery Co.

Ground Floor Store 15 N. 10th St.

_1007 Filbert St.__

The coolness of a frosty morning and the sunny fragrance of the Orient mingle in a glass of iced Tetley's Orange Pekoe. Serve it on a sultry morning, a hot afternoon, or a sticky evening—and see how this refreshing, Tetley's Orange Pekoe 10c packages One-quarter pound......

princely blend can banish fatigue and dull care.

TETLEY'S Makes good TEA a certainty WANAMAKER'S

JULY 5, 1922

WANAMAKER'S

The Wanamaker Down Stairs Store

An Extra-Deep Black Enamel Suitcase, $4

the lowest price we have ever heard of for a first quality, extra-deep suitcase!

Of black enamel fabric with leather corners and straps all around, which are of durable black fabric. 24 inches long and 8 inches deep with a capacious inside pocket.

Week-end Cases, $3.50

18 and 20 inch suitcases of black enamel fabric, have double catches, good locks and are lined with cretonne. Just the right size to hold a frock and the week-end needfuls. Week-end bags start at $4 for black enamel fabric and go to $7.50 for dull leather and $8 for patent leather. All are silk lined.

Soft Hat Bags, $3.50

Of very shiny black fabric, they are cretonne lined and can be carried by means of a strap slipped over the arm. Very light in weight and big enough to hold other things besides a (Central)

200 Men's All-Wool Suits Special at $25

—Hard-finished Worsteds Among Them—

Every man who wants a good-looking vacation suit:

Every business man who wants to look well dressed and soundly pros-

Every man who has $25 and wants to get the best possible suit for it. wants to be here tomorrow morning early.

Most men expect to pay at least $25 for any sort of good all-wool suitsbut men who know something of clothing values seldom expect to get value as good as this!

of This Quality As a matter of fact, most of the suits All are conservative and semi-conserva-

were made to sell wholesale for about this

Fine, springy, hard-finished worsteds, soft cassimeres and firmly woven cheviots are in gravs, browns and blues. They are in stripes, pin stripes, small checks, semiinvisible patterns and some plain colors.

tive of line. They have an air of prosperity, of well being about them-largely due to the excellence of the fabrics. Tailoring and finish will bear close inspection. Altogether, if you want to see the maximum that $25 can buy in the way of a man's suit, you want to see these suits, tomorrow!

This Midsummer Sale of Dresses Is Doing Wonderful Things!

Embroidered Voile Frocks, $10.75 Sea-shell pink and navy blue dresses of French voile are embroidered with little white circles. Points of lace and embroidery form the collar and cuffs.

Seemingly all the women in Philadelphia have new dresses in mind and they are finding just the things they want in this big sale!

Dresses for mornings on the porch, dresses for afternoon, sports dresses for the more strenuous activities, frocks for the shore, for roof gardens, for smart seaside hotels, for evening parties.

They're all to be found here—in styles and sizes for women and young women of all types.

Light Color Voiles, $3, $4 and $5

White grounds or light grounds with little sprigs, tiny figures, hairline stripes and harlequin checks. Some have wide sashes of Dark Voile Frocks, $5 to $7.50

Navy blue and black grounds with white dots of all sizes variously arranged. They have little white frills and points, or Gingham Dresses, $2.50 to $5 Checks of all colors, plaids in two-tone effects and gay combina-tions of colors. They're frilly or simply tailored and every frock is marked at a lowered price.

Linen Dresses, $6 to $10 All the lovely Summer colors which are at their best in linen-Copenhagen, light blue, pink, rose, green, lavender, brown, yellow and white. Some in slip-on style.

Cool Silk Dresses, $10 to $16.50

Navy blue and black crepe de chine and Canton dresses hold a most important place in every woman's Summer wardrobe. To be well dressed one should own at least one of these dresses. They are trimmed with fagoting, pleated panels or side draperies. Slip-on frocks of white or navy blue Canton crepe are $15.

Bungalow Aprons. 50c

A sale of rose or blue percale aprons with white pipings. They are generously cut cover-all aprons with short sleeves, belts and pockets.

Billows of Imported White Organdie Sheer Swiss organdies, 45 inches wide, are 60c and 75c yard. A finer quality in white, 54 inches wide, is $1 yard. Domestic Organdie, 35c Yard is especially good at the price; 38 inches wide. Colored Swiss Organdie, 75c Yard 45 inches wide in navy, black, brown, rust, tomato, smoke, peacock, sky, orchid, tea rose, honeydew, jade and watermelon.

Tricotine coats have deep pointed sleeves trimare edged with fringe or balls, and some of the skirts are touched with embroidery.

(Central)

crepe de chine. $28.50.

Women's Long Silk Gloves

12-button-length, $1.25 16-button-length, $1.50 Well-dressed women, almost without exception, wear gloves and several pair of cool, harmonizing gloves are a necessity. These are of Milanese silk of good weight in white, mastic, mode and black, with double finger-tips and Paris-point stitching on the backs. They fit smoothly and well and are satisfactory from every standpoint.

Bathing Suits for Vacationists Big and Little Suits for mother, daughter and for the littlest boys and girls. Plenty of extra sizes as well as a fine assortment of regular Extra-Size Suits, $4.50 Plain black surf satin suits made amply large for women wearing sizes 48 to 52. Others, in the same sizes, are of black surf satin trimmed with colors. $6.75.

All Kinds of Regular-Size Suits, $2, $2.25, $4.75 They are of lustrous sateen or surf satin, trimmed with bright colors, often with gingham collars or pipings. Plenty of pointed Accessories

Rubber caps and hats are 15c

For Children One-piece all-wool suits in green, red or tan with darker color stripes are for tiny 2 to 4 year olds. $1.90. For little girls of 2 to 5 there are knitted wool suits in California style just like those for black-and-gold and tan-and-red,

In green-and-tan,

Shoes and slippers are 38c to $1.90. Cotton tights are 75c All-wool tights are $2.25 and (Murket) grown-ups.

at $3.

Women's 1100 Pair of Women's New Polo Coats at $12 Patent Leather Pumps Soft tan coats, each with a deep pleat down the back and a belt all around. Roomy slot pockets and raglan shoulders give a jaunty air. New Wrap Coats in Navy Blue Last week a group of these flew away the first day they made their appearance in the Coat Store.

desirable attributes of women's footwear: something new, something fashionable and something comfortable!

new, in that they have not been worn in some time. Black patent leather is decidedly fashionable, and as for something comfortable-low heels most certainly are, and low heels are here to stay. The pump is neatly finished inside and has a good leather sole.

Special at $1.75 They admirably combine the three

The little tongue and the tie bow are

(Chestnut)

med with self-stitching and a heavy silk tassel. They are lined throughout with silk and are $25. Wraps of Poiret twill are embroidered with heavy black silk and wooden beads; lined with Silk Eponge Skirts, $3.75 In white and with a colored plaid or in plain shades of China blue, jade or mustard. The sashes