

SEMI-PRO TEAMS HAVE BIG DAY ON DIAMONDS

Many of the Afternoon Games Are Cut Short by the Rain

PHILADELPHIA PHILS WIN TWO

By WILLIAM S. DALLAS

Between the raindrops yesterday the local semi-pro and independent ball teams managed to play doubleheaders. The morning games got by without interruption, but in many instances were cut short of the regulation time.

Michigan City, Ind., July 5.—Here is what Benny Leonard had to say after knocking out Rocky Kansas:

Michigan City, Ind., July 5.—Check of the attendance at the lightweight championship contest between Benny Leonard, fighter, and Rocky Kansas, of Buffalo, N. Y., yesterday, revealed today that the crowd was just above 10,000, with receipts of $59,630.

Leonard in action yesterday looked like a finely trained athlete. He did not make a false move, and was master of Kansas from the start. His boxing with amazing skill and his foot work was perfect. He hit sharply and with astounding accuracy.
