

CARRYING OUT A PROVISION OF THE SILESIAN PLEBISCITE. Polish troops, on June 20, crossed the frontier between Poland and Upper Silesia and took possession of the large city of Kattowitz, the center of the Upper Silesian mine district

A MARVELOUS WHISTLER. Virginia Bedard, aged three, has attracted much attention in San Francisco

GEORGES CARPENTIER as a "movie" actor. The light-heavyweight champion will appear in "Love's April," now being filmed in Paris

HOME ON 4TH OF JULY. Fannie Hurst, the writer, arrives in New York after European vacation

OFF FOR A DAY'S ENJOYABLE OUTING. The children are leaving the Bedford Street Mission, at 619 Kater street, for Clementon, N. J. It was a happy group

MISS MADGE MERRITT was declared "Queen of the Beaches" in New York bathing girl contest

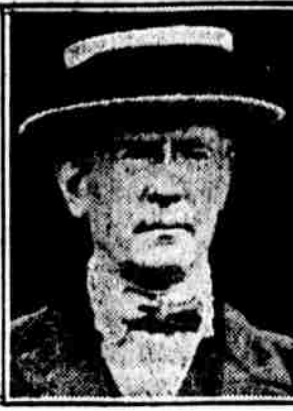

QUIZZED IN WINSLOW JUNCTION WRECK PROBE. John De Walt, Reading towerman (center); Detective Marks on right. Younger man is De Walt's son Lawrence

Charles A. Wolverton

Edward Kelleher

James Mayberry

Peter Kerwin

INVESTIGATING CAUSE OF READING WRECK. Prosecutor Wolverton, of Camden, and three representatives of Public Utilities Commission, who are assisting in getting facts in the wreck of the flier at Winslow Junction

CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW resting at Hot Springs, Va. He looks fit at eighty-eight, and retains an active interest in the world's affairs

MRS. HAROLD M. WALL of New York, going toward the salt water at Southampton

MRS. ANNIE E. B. SITER, who divorced Dr. E. Hollingsworth Siter yesterday

GETTING READY FOR VIRGINIA. Busy with clippers as Marines prepare to leave Gettysburg for Quantico

WILMINGTON FOLK IN CANOE RACES. They are members of the Delaware Canoe Club. The races were on Christiana Creek. We show you Elsie Beidman (left) and Margaret Brennan, winners of the pig-headed race. In this race the paddler had to sit in the bow. The standing gunwale race was a thriller

SOUTH PHILADELPHIA children are entertained by "Spike" Howard at Woodside Park

THE REV. EDWIN HEYL DELEK will help Mayor Moore plan vice bureau

POLICE PLAN AND MAKE OWN FLOWER GARDEN. Up at the Thirty-ninth police district, Twenty-second street and Hunting Park avenue, Patrolmen Stehle, Horrocks, Lynch, Medd and Smith (left to right) were busy with the flower beds. Patrolman Burke found a water lily in the miniature lake

MISS MARY HUMPHREY out with "Buster." The polo pony is owned by her father, Colonel Chauncey Humphrey

SID BROWN DOING HIS BIT. One of the blacksmiths employed in the construction of Philadelphia art gallery at the Fairmount Park end of the Parkway

A NOVEL SIGN has been erected in Ypres. It requests tourists to leave untouched what remains of the famous French cathedral ruined during war

TRIPLE SWAN DIVE. Chicago swimmers perform one of the most graceful feats known to fancy divers. Top to bottom: Stubby Kruger, Norman Ross and Peggy Barlow

HARRY NEW dives through an old automobile tire. Here are just a few of the many Philadelphians who do their swimming in the Delaware, at Pleasant Hill Park

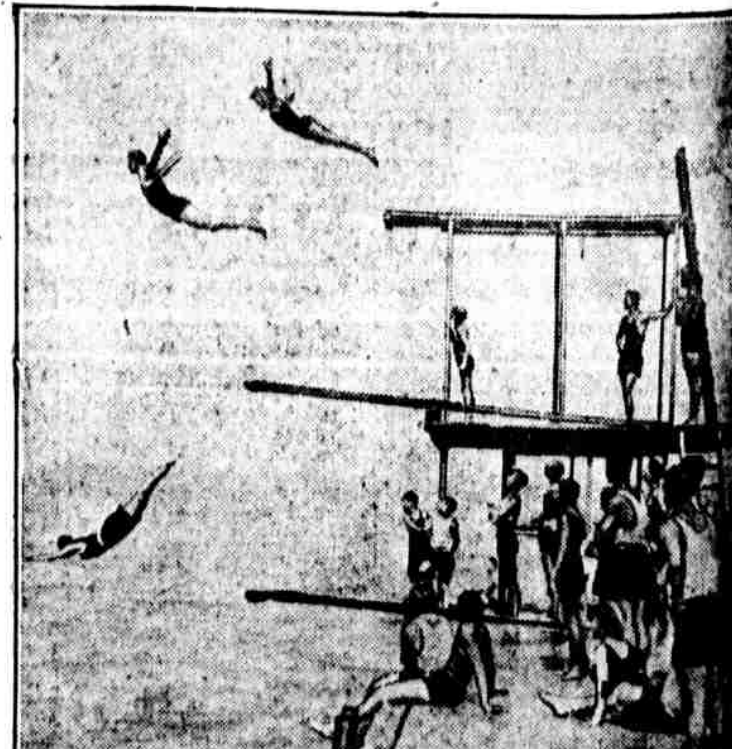

NINE GOOD SWIMMERS pose on one of the safety poles

HAVE YOU CROSSED IT? The old W., N. Y. & P. R. R. bridge over the Schuylkill north of Girard avenue. It was removed several years ago. The photograph was made in 1897. Send your old-Philadelphia photographs to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER

UNITED STATES SENATOR KELLOGG on a Washington golf course. He's good

TRIPLE SWAN DIVE. Chicago swimmers perform one of the most graceful feats known to fancy divers. Top to bottom: Stubby Kruger, Norman Ross and Peggy Barlow