Voman, Baffled in Search for Employment, Takes Drug ployment, Takes Drug
Los Angeles, July 6.—(By A. P.)—
A woman who registered as Mrs. H. L.
Boyden, Lancaster, O., when she arrived with only a handbag, June 20,
was found dead yesterday in her room
in a fashionable downtown hotel.

The Coroner declarest she had committed suicide by taking drugs. Hotel employes said she had diligently sought work since her arrival. She left a note,
into which she had written a poem,
containing the lines:

"One pang and I shall end the thrall Where grief abides, And generous death shall show me all That now he hides."

BRYSON DENIED BAIL

Doctor Must Await Trial for Slaying His "Soul Mate"

Huntingdon, Pa., July 6.—Efforts of his counsel to obtain the release on bail of Dr. Herbert Bryson, Cassville, accused of murdering his "soul mate," failed at a habeas corpus hearing here yesterday, when the court ordered Dr. Bryson remanded to jail to await trial in Sentember.

in September.

Dr. Bryson is accused of slaying Mrs. Helen Irene Haines, wife of Bruce E. Haines, of Washington, with whom he lived in this county for more than a year. The tragedy took place April 8. He alleges she shot berself.
