REPUBLICANS PLAN FOR TARIFF FIGHT. Leaders Meet With Lodge to Discuss Move if Cloture Petition is Defeated.

DEMOCRATS PROTEST. Washington, July 6.—Continuation of the fight provoked by presentation of the Republican petition for cloture to shut off debate on the Administration Tariff Bill promised to continue much of today's session on convening of the Senate. Presented late yesterday with fifty-two Republican signatures, or twelve less than the two-thirds majority necessary to invoke the existing cloture rule, the petition under the rules must come to a vote at noon on Friday. Although the absence from Washington of a number of Senators would reduce the number necessary for a two-thirds majority, some of those behind the movement to invoke the cloture rule, which not only would limit debate to one hour for each Senator, but would preclude the offering of any additional amendments, doubted that it would succeed. Plans to be adopted by the majority, if the cloture vote failed, were discussed at length at dinner conferences held at the home of Senator Lodge last night, and attended by a number of leading Republicans in the Senate. There was no indication, however, of any decision being reached. Senator Lodge told the Senate when the cloture petition was presented yesterday that if the present rule could not be invoked it would then be for the Republicans to decide whether they would lay aside the tariff and fight for a majority cloture rule, or force a resumption of night sessions as a means of speeding up a final vote on the bill. Raising an immediate protest against the Republican cloture movement, Senator Underwood declared the proposal of the majority to take away from the minority the right to propose amendments was unfair and that passage of the bill "under a gag rule could never be justified before the country." Senator Robinson, asserting every member of the Senate knew the cloture motion could not prevail, raised the issue of good faith in the presentation of the petition. Declaring the tariff bill was "beaten in the public conscience," Senator Robinson said the cloture rule petition was presented as "pure buncombe," and that "some of its signers would be glad to see the bill abandoned." The first open reference in the Senate to the possibility of Senator Pomerehne, of Ohio, being the Democratic presidential candidate in 1924 was made yesterday in the course of tariff debate. It came after Senator Shortridge had predicted that "Warren G. Harding, son of Ohio, the mother of Presidents," would continue in the White House for many years to come. Senator Ashurst replied that although Senator Shortridge was right as to "a son of Ohio" occupying the presidency for a long time, he had made a mistake in the name and pointed to Senator Pomerehne.

BERGDOLL TO BE GERMAN. U. S. Would Hold Property Till Court Decides Its Status. Washington, July 6.—The Government is now ready to prove that Grover Cleveland Bergdoll, deserter and slacker, has taken steps to become a German citizen and that his property in this country should be held under the Alien Property Act until the court decides what shall be done with it. Approximately $500,000 worth of property belonging to Bergdoll is held by Allen Property Custodian Miller. Early next fall the court will pass upon the legality of seizure by Miller. FEAR RADICAL COALITION IN GERMAN GOVERNMENT. Bourgeois Seek to Forestall Independent Socialists.

Berlin, July 6.—(By A. P.)—The conference growing out of the proposal that the Independent Socialists participate in the government are in the informal initial stage and the plan has not been discussed seriously by the Majority Socialists, Clericals and Social Democrats, who constitute the other components of the present coalition. On the other hand, the Independent Socialists are demanding of their more radical friends that they should abstain on some of the outstanding topics of socialistic legislation, such as nationalization of the coal and potash mines, for which Majority Socialists have only displayed "plianctic affection." Fear that the Independents' advent into government may interfere with Germany's obtaining better relations abroad is one of the scruples indulged in by the bourgeois coalition parties who now are flinging with the People's party in a general way the latter to take on a Leftist orientation to forestall the proposed merger. This is viewed with alarm as an inevitable intention. The present coalition will drift into radical currents as a result of the preponderant number of mandates controlled by both Socialist parties.

RUMOR OF EFFORT TO KILL RUSSIANS EXCITES HAGUE. Police and Delegates, However, Deny Attempt, London Hears.

London, July 6.—(By A. P.)—A rumor that an attempt had been made to assassinate the Russian delegates to The Hague Conference, has caused considerable excitement in the Dutch capital this morning, says an exchange Telegraph dispatch. There was no confirmation of the report up to noon. Both the police and the Russian delegation at The Hague denied that any attempt at assassination was made. The report probably grew out of the action of the police in turning back from the Dutch frontier fifteen Russians, said to be monarchists, who were traveling under false passports.

CONSIDER MUSCLE SHOALS. Plans for Development Before the Senate Agricultural Committee.

Washington, July 6.—(By A. P.)—A meeting of the Senate Agriculture Committee was called today by Chairman Norris to consider recommendations to be submitted to the Senate with reference to the development of Muscle Shoals, Ala. Indications were that at least three different opinions will come from the committee for Senate consideration of a report which he has announced he will personally make to the Senate. Senator Norris, it is understood, will urge governmental development in preference to the proposal for private development by Henry Ford and others, while Senator Hoffman has announced that he will recommend acceptance of the Ford proposal. He is prepared, he says, to submit the recommendation individually or with any other committee members who wish to join.

TUTTLE AGAINST VOLSTEAD. N. J. Democratic Candidate Says People Don't Favor Prohibition.

Trenton, July 6.—The majority of the people of New Jersey are not in favor of the prohibition amendment or the Volstead act and therefore should not be taxed for the operation of enforcement in any State but New Jersey, Mr. Tuttle also declared himself in favor of the restoration of the five-cent trolley fare in New Jersey, believing, he said, that such a rate of fare would be possible with lower costs of operation and the increased business resulting therefrom. Commissioner Tuttle will be opposed for the nomination by Judge George S. Sizer, of Middlesex County.

BUREAU TAKES SHOT AT 'PRACTICAL' MEN. Researchers Hint Such Self-Styled Officials Are Not Necessarily as Labeled.

HAVE WORD FOR 'THEORISTS'. Several shots were taken by the Bureau of Municipal Research today at members of Council and others who have held themselves up as "practical men," as distinguished from "theorists." The weekly bulletin issued by the bureau says in part: "Rarely is there a controversy over a public question without some exchange of compliments between the 'practical' men and the 'theorists.' As a rule the initiative in this exchange is taken by the former. Often these self-styled 'practical' men have recourse to a rather picturesque vocabulary and supplement the term 'theorist' with such telling adjectives as 'highbrows' and 'academic nuts.' They take great pride in being 'practical' and affect a pitying contempt for the poor 'theorist.' Of course, the hurling of epithets, even when they are of the spicy variety, seldom throws new light on the questions at issue. The performance, however, is not always without interest. To the detached observer it frequently presents an element of humor and at times considerable food for thought. 'It may strike him, for example, that to call oneself 'practical' does not necessarily make one so; and, conversely, to call another person a 'theorist' does not prove him to be a theorist. The 'practical' men in the day of Christopher Columbus regarded that great discoverer as a mere 'theorist' because he believed the earth to be round and proposed to set upon that belief. This was demonstrated that he was more practical than his scoffing critics. As Abraham Lincoln once put it, to $1095 Greater Value at Lower Cost. The Essex has always been an outstanding value by every standard of price and quality comparison. Especially interesting now is a price measurement of the Essex against cars you have regarded as comparable to it in quality. Will you find today any car that even approaches Essex in quality and ability, within hundreds of dollars of its cost? And doesn't its low cost with such quality appeal to judicious buyers, whether they are considering a car slightly less in cost, or have been seeking Essex quality in some much costlier car?
