'I have gathered an immense fund of information respecting England's judi-cial procedure, which I will try to di-gest on the ocean with a view of precuting the main features to the American Bar Association in August. English practice simplifies the procedure by embracing both law and equity in a single action. Preliminary hearings compel both parties to disclose the evidence that is relevant on each side, so that when the issue is presented in court that when the issue is presented in court it can be expeditiously disposed of."

Mr. Taft will receive the honorary degree of doctor of civil law from Aberdeen University. While in Aberdeen Luiversity. While in Aberdeen he will be the guest of the Very Rev. Sir George Adam Smith, principal and vice chancellor of the university, who lectured in the United States in 1918. From Aberdeen he will proceed to Glasgow and thence to Liverpool, sailing tomorrow. He plans to go direct to his summer home at Murray Bay, Can-

Bourgeoisie Appeal to Offset Proposed Merger of Socialists

Berlin, July 7 .- (By A. P.) -The Clerical and Social Democratic Parties have addressed a joint appeal to the German People's Party inviting the latter to enter the Government coalition, 'as the need of the hour demands the enrollment of all the national elements who are willing to lend active aid in the work of safeguarding and building up the republic." This appeal from the two bourgeois parties in the coalition bloc is inter-

After-Dinner Tricks

No. 207-A Friendly Joke.

When some one makes light of you tricks or causes other annoyance, state that you will perform an extremely dif-ficult feat of jugglery. Procure a glass of water and a cane or umbrella. An-nounce that you can hold the tumbler against the ceiling with the point of the cane, and upon removing the cane catch the tumbler in its fall without smilling a drep of water.

Ask the victim to set the point of the cane against the bettom of the glass, and hold it there until you get down from the chair and can take it from him. He complies with the request, but when you step down, simply pick up the chair, carry it away, and sit down in it, leaving the spectator holding the tumbler in its awkward position. He cannot get out of his predicament without crying for help, or without taking great chances of breaking the glass.
