I have not heard when the wedding is to take place, but some one whispered it is likely to be in the early spring.

THIS seems to be a fashionable summer for Atlantic City. I have not heard of so many persons spending the summer right in the heart of the summer along time; usually its Chelsea or Longport for them. But I spent a few days down there recently several weeks at Newport. R. Miss Carson is so good looking! Do Miss Carson is so good looking: Do you remember the year she came out? Certainly, there have not been such belles as she and Miss Edith Fisher, who also lived in Torresdale, for many a long day. Miss Carson is fair and Miss Fisher is dark, and they are great the standard or and went to all the built to. Miss Fisher is dark, and they are great friends, and went to all the bulls together. That was in the days when girls, who were great belies such as those two, stood out among their eister debutantes. Nowadays every one has about the same good time. Perhaps, it is better so, but somehow it is not so romantic "as it used to was."

To go back to Atlantic City, I met Mrs. Augustus Thomas one afternoon will autumn.

You remember they went over summer, but were there only a week or so. Mr. Seixas was taken very ill after they left, and though he had improved by the time the news reached them, they were not satisfied to stay over there and hastened back to be with him.
