

THE WEATHER... VOL. VIII.—NO. 255

Philadelphia Ledger

PHILADELPHIA, MONDAY, JULY 10, 1922... PRICE TWO CENTS

PEPPER UGGED AS HEAD OF FAIR... Bloomingdale Sponsors Boom for Senator to Heal Factional Disputes

Saved From the Sea

MISS NANCY LITTLE MISS SALOME HEULINGS Philadelphia society debutantes who were rescued by Judge William G. Knowles when the boat in which they were sailing capsized off Cape May

MISS NANCY LITTLE MISS SALOME HEULINGS Philadelphia society debutantes who were rescued by Judge William G. Knowles when the boat in which they were sailing capsized off Cape May

Debutante Keeps Nancy Little Afloat Until Judge Knowles Arrives for Rescue

Miss Salome Heulings, a recent debutante, and daughter of William H. Heulings, Jr., vice president of the J. G. Brill Company, proved yesterday that she was a heroine.

YACHT HAD TURNED OVER

Miss Salome Heulings, a recent debutante, and daughter of William H. Heulings, Jr., vice president of the J. G. Brill Company, proved yesterday that she was a heroine.

Public Must Show Support

The public must get behind the fair in a spirit of pride and there must be a united community feeling and fellowship.

TWO BOYS VANISH

Two brothers, Daniel and Thomas Collier, ten and eleven years old, ran away from St. John's Home, Forty-seventh and Wynnton avenues, yesterday and the police have been asked to find them.

MRS. LEEDS, EX-PRINCESS XENIA, IS AWAITING STORK

New York, July 10.—The New York Evening Post has abandoned hope of inheriting the fortune of the late "Empress of the West," William B. Leeds, the estate was promised the wealth in the event that his son died without an heir.

SMILE? SURE, LIKE KELLEY DID

When Assistant District Attorney Kelley appeared in Quarter Sessions today his smile was so expansive that the judge halted proceedings.

GOOD REAL ESTATE OFFER

Good real estate offers are being made in various parts of the city.

SHOPS REOPEN, FORGING CRISIS

Troops on Hand to Keep Order as Several Rail Plants Resume Operation

10TH DAY OF STRIKE FINDS BOTH SIDES IMMOVABLE

Chicago, July 10.—A crucial stage of the rail strike was reached today, the tenth since the shopmen's nation-wide walkout.

Whistles Sound Passing of Idle Employes' Seniority and Pension Rights

Chicago, July 10.—A crucial stage of the rail strike was reached today, the tenth since the shopmen's nation-wide walkout.

Debutante Keeps Nancy Little Afloat Until Judge Knowles Arrives for Rescue

Miss Salome Heulings, a recent debutante, and daughter of William H. Heulings, Jr., vice president of the J. G. Brill Company, proved yesterday that she was a heroine.

YACHT HAD TURNED OVER

Miss Salome Heulings, a recent debutante, and daughter of William H. Heulings, Jr., vice president of the J. G. Brill Company, proved yesterday that she was a heroine.

Public Must Show Support

The public must get behind the fair in a spirit of pride and there must be a united community feeling and fellowship.

TWO BOYS VANISH

Two brothers, Daniel and Thomas Collier, ten and eleven years old, ran away from St. John's Home, Forty-seventh and Wynnton avenues, yesterday and the police have been asked to find them.

MRS. LEEDS, EX-PRINCESS XENIA, IS AWAITING STORK

New York, July 10.—The New York Evening Post has abandoned hope of inheriting the fortune of the late "Empress of the West," William B. Leeds, the estate was promised the wealth in the event that his son died without an heir.

SMILE? SURE, LIKE KELLEY DID

When Assistant District Attorney Kelley appeared in Quarter Sessions today his smile was so expansive that the judge halted proceedings.

GOOD REAL ESTATE OFFER

Good real estate offers are being made in various parts of the city.

Operators Try in Vain to Hide Gouge on Coal

Injustice of Prices Revealed, Although Producers Avoid Quiz—Tied Up With Railroads Charging Excessive Freight Rates

By GEORGE NOX MCCAIN

One of the oddities of the present series of conferences between coal operators and mine workers at Washington is that among the operators there are no representatives of the open shop.

CHUMS MISS BATHER, BODY RAISED LATER

George Gericks, 2537 South 16th St., drowned at League island yesterday afternoon while swimming with a party of young men at League Island Park.

POLICE SEEK A THIEF AND A BATHING SUIT

It fit her like a glove, too, and it had just been christened. It wasn't so much the taking of a few pieces of jewelry.

SEEK TO REGAIN ALCOHOL

Distilling Company Petition to Recover 100 Barrels Argued Here. Federal Judge Dickinson today heard argument on a petition of the Greenwald Distilling Company of Illinois to recover from the government 100 barrels of alcohol.

RUSSIANS WILL YIELD

Ready to Grant Concessions for Railroad Lines and Farming Land. The Hague, July 10.—(By A. P.)—Russia is ready to grant concessions for new railroad lines and 4,000,000 hectares (9,880,000 acres) of land for agriculture.

WRECK REPORT DELAYED

Wolverton Says It Won't Be Ready Today, Probably Not Tomorrow. Prosecutor Wolverton, still working on the investigation of the P. and H. wreck at Winslow Junction, announced today that his report would not be ready today.

ZIEGFELD DENIES SLURRING PICKFORD; MARILYN ANGRY

Miss Miller Not Altogether Satisfied at Her Manager's Attitude on "Sweetest Boy in the World". Boston, July 10.—Miss Marilyn Miller's ire was aroused by dispatches from Paris quoting Florenz Ziegfeld, Jr., as saying that Jack Pickford, who Miss Miller says is "the sweetest and most beautiful boy in the world," had been in love with her.

ENGLISH MONEY STOLEN

Sneak Thief Active on S. S. Pilder-darringac. A sneak thief entered the cabin of James Keer, a sailor on the steamship Pilder-darringac, off Girard point, some time yesterday and stole a watch and chain and a sum of English money.

AMEN, SAYS PASTOR: BA-A-A! SAYS WOOLLY LAMB IN AISLE

Oakmont Congregation Sees Real Rendition of Nursery Rhyme. Mary's little lamb that followed her to school had nothing on "Chester," the woolly mascot of the Oakmont police station.

ELIOT WADSWORTH TO WED

Hempstead, N. Y., July 10.—(By A. P.)—Eliot Wadsworth, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, today obtained a license to marry Mrs. Nancy Whitcomb, widow of Guy Scull, Mrs. Scull said the marriage would be solemnized today, but declined to say where.

DROPS DEAD ON WAY TO WORK

Joseph Moore, fifty-seven years old, of 43 West Eagle road, Lanerch, fell dead of heart disease at 7:30 o'clock at the Astor-Corcoran plant, Ardmore.

CASH THIS YEAR, IS BERLIN OFFER

Moratorium Then for Next Two, Reported Plan Brought Today to Paris

ALLIED WAR DEBT TO U. S. HELD CRUX OF SITUATION

French Payments to Us Depend on Germans, Who Apparently Face Ruin

Paris, July 10.—A proposal providing for the payment of all the remaining cash installments due this year, provided Germany is granted a moratorium of at least two years, was brought to Paris today by German representatives.

RUN BUFFALO CARS UNDER ARMED GUARD

Strikers Jeer as Attempt is Made to Restore Service. Buffalo, N. Y., July 10.—(By A. P.)—Buffalo, which for nine days has depended upon jitney buses for transportation, today witnessed an attempt by the International Railway Company to restore limited service on its main street line.

Proposes Work Be Resumed at Old Scale Pending Negotiations

WASHINGTON, July 10.—Through the naming of Deputy United States Marshals the Government will make sure that law and order is preserved, property and life protected, transportation of the mails continued and interstate commerce not interrupted, despite the strike of railroad shopmen, Attorney General Daugherty announced today.

LAST-MINUTE NEWS

WASHINGTON, July 10.—Through the naming of Deputy United States Marshals the Government will make sure that law and order is preserved, property and life protected, transportation of the mails continued and interstate commerce not interrupted, despite the strike of railroad shopmen, Attorney General Daugherty announced today.

WIMBLEDON, July 10.—Miss Suzanne Lenglen, the French woman champion, and Miss Elizabeth Ryan, of California, leached the semi-final round in the women's doubles by defeating Miss Rose and Mrs. Youle, England, 7-5, 6-2.

MISS ANNA KOCH, 1213 WEST SERGEANT ST., IN NOTE SAYS SHE CAN'T FACE IT OUT

Believing herself to have been the subject of malicious statements by neighbors, Miss Anna Koch, fifty-five years old, committed suicide last night by gas.

ADAMS NOW TRYING TO UNDO EFFECT OF LETTER OPPOSING SCIENTIFIC PLAN

Mr. Adams now says that his was misunderstood, that all it meant to do was to point out that no such thing as a non-partisan tariff was possible.

WANTS TALKERS PUNISHED

Believing herself to have been the subject of malicious statements by neighbors, Miss Anna Koch, fifty-five years old, committed suicide last night by gas.

AMEN, SAYS PASTOR: BA-A-A! SAYS WOOLLY LAMB IN AISLE

Oakmont Congregation Sees Real Rendition of Nursery Rhyme. Mary's little lamb that followed her to school had nothing on "Chester," the woolly mascot of the Oakmont police station.

ELIOT WADSWORTH TO WED

Hempstead, N. Y., July 10.—(By A. P.)—Eliot Wadsworth, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, today obtained a license to marry Mrs. Nancy Whitcomb, widow of Guy Scull, Mrs. Scull said the marriage would be solemnized today, but declined to say where.

DROPS DEAD ON WAY TO WORK

Joseph Moore, fifty-seven years old, of 43 West Eagle road, Lanerch, fell dead of heart disease at 7:30 o'clock at the Astor-Corcoran plant, Ardmore.

RUSSIANS WILL YIELD

Ready to Grant Concessions for Railroad Lines and Farming Land. The Hague, July 10.—(By A. P.)—Russia is ready to grant concessions for new railroad lines and 4,000,000 hectares (9,880,000 acres) of land for agriculture.

WRECK REPORT DELAYED

Wolverton Says It Won't Be Ready Today, Probably Not Tomorrow. Prosecutor Wolverton, still working on the investigation of the P. and H. wreck at Winslow Junction, announced today that his report would not be ready today.

ZIEGFELD DENIES SLURRING PICKFORD; MARILYN ANGRY

Miss Miller Not Altogether Satisfied at Her Manager's Attitude on "Sweetest Boy in the World". Boston, July 10.—Miss Marilyn Miller's ire was aroused by dispatches from Paris quoting Florenz Ziegfeld, Jr., as saying that Jack Pickford, who Miss Miller says is "the sweetest and most beautiful boy in the world," had been in love with her.

ENGLISH MONEY STOLEN

Sneak Thief Active on S. S. Pilder-darringac. A sneak thief entered the cabin of James Keer, a sailor on the steamship Pilder-darringac, off Girard point, some time yesterday and stole a watch and chain and a sum of English money.

AMEN, SAYS PASTOR: BA-A-A! SAYS WOOLLY LAMB IN AISLE

Oakmont Congregation Sees Real Rendition of Nursery Rhyme. Mary's little lamb that followed her to school had nothing on "Chester," the woolly mascot of the Oakmont police station.

ELIOT WADSWORTH TO WED

Hempstead, N. Y., July 10.—(By A. P.)—Eliot Wadsworth, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, today obtained a license to marry Mrs. Nancy Whitcomb, widow of Guy Scull, Mrs. Scull said the marriage would be solemnized today, but declined to say where.

SHOPS REOPEN, FORGING CRISIS

Troops on Hand to Keep Order as Several Rail Plants Resume Operation

10TH DAY OF STRIKE FINDS BOTH SIDES IMMOVABLE

Chicago, July 10.—A crucial stage of the rail strike was reached today, the tenth since the shopmen's nation-wide walkout.

Whistles Sound Passing of Idle Employes' Seniority and Pension Rights

Chicago, July 10.—A crucial stage of the rail strike was reached today, the tenth since the shopmen's nation-wide walkout.

Debutante Keeps Nancy Little Afloat Until Judge Knowles Arrives for Rescue

Miss Salome Heulings, a recent debutante, and daughter of William H. Heulings, Jr., vice president of the J. G. Brill Company, proved yesterday that she was a heroine.

YACHT HAD TURNED OVER

Miss Salome Heulings, a recent debutante, and daughter of William H. Heulings, Jr., vice president of the J. G. Brill Company, proved yesterday that she was a heroine.

Public Must Show Support

The public must get behind the fair in a spirit of pride and there must be a united community feeling and fellowship.

TWO BOYS VANISH

Two brothers, Daniel and Thomas Collier, ten and eleven years old, ran away from St. John's Home, Forty-seventh and Wynnton avenues, yesterday and the police have been asked to find them.

MRS. LEEDS, EX-PRINCESS XENIA, IS AWAITING STORK

New York, July 10.—The New York Evening Post has abandoned hope of inheriting the fortune of the late "Empress of the West," William B. Leeds, the estate was promised the wealth in the event that his son died without an heir.

SMILE? SURE, LIKE KELLEY DID

When Assistant District Attorney Kelley appeared in Quarter Sessions today his smile was so expansive that the judge halted proceedings.

GOOD REAL ESTATE OFFER

Good real estate offers are being made in various parts of the city.

RUSSIANS WILL YIELD

Ready to Grant Concessions for Railroad Lines and Farming Land. The Hague, July 10.—(By A. P.)—Russia is ready to grant concessions for new railroad lines and 4,000,000 hectares (9,880,000 acres) of land for agriculture.

WRECK REPORT DELAYED

Wolverton Says It Won't Be Ready Today, Probably Not Tomorrow. Prosecutor Wolverton, still working on the investigation of the P. and H. wreck at Winslow Junction, announced today that his report would not be ready today.

ZIEGFELD DENIES SLURRING PICKFORD; MARILYN ANGRY

Miss Miller Not Altogether Satisfied at Her Manager's Attitude on "Sweetest Boy in the World". Boston, July 10.—Miss Marilyn Miller's ire was aroused by dispatches from Paris quoting Florenz Ziegfeld, Jr., as saying that Jack Pickford, who Miss Miller says is "the sweetest and most beautiful boy in the world," had been in love with her.

ENGLISH MONEY STOLEN

Sneak Thief Active on S. S. Pilder-darringac. A sneak thief entered the cabin of James Keer, a sailor on the steamship Pilder-darringac, off Girard point, some time yesterday and stole a watch and chain and a sum of English money.