Greens Very Soggy

The greens were soggy yesterday and in the East some day." many scores were increased by four or five strokes through inability of the player to judge the ground, on which water could be scooped up with the hand in many places. The fairways dried out very well with the exceptioon of puddles of casual water. The balls could be lifted from these puddles, of course, but the chief difficulty was that many shots headed for the green would land in the water and ston dead instead of going on toward the flag. Despite the adverse elements, yester-

Charlie Hanford had a double and three singles and Zibell double and two singles, while Bobby Rice alled to hit safely after numeteen games. In the intervin he has had ten hongers and is eading the Bridesburg batters with .447.

Johnny Rea and his reorganized Fox Motor quad handed the Doylestown. Montgomery County Leaguers, a setback at Seventh effect and Grange avenue, score 6 to 4. The Visitors made all their runs in the second or errors and bunts. Black pitched for the motorists and fanned eleven. The winners hit the ball hard and had a total of scorter, hits, at the expense of Blindt, a Montgomery County League star.

Marshall E. Smith scored a notable vic-tory over Gieneida, under-ated champions of the Philadeiphia Suburban League for the Past two years, by staging a ninth innine tally and winning out. Buck Reed outpitched Schiefty and was worthy of the victory. Heidlick's homer in the second with Gai-lagher on and Honratty's hit in the ninin with one out that scored Stevanson with the winning run were features.
