

MISS MARY TIERNEY, WITH THE NEW YORK DELEGATION

PHILADELPHIA ELKS PUT ON THEIR BATHING SUITS FOR A BEACH DRILL

LOYAL VETERAN CORPS OF PHILADELPHIA LODGE NO. 2 ON THE SANDS

PAULAE ERZSI, who is considered one of the most beautiful women on the European stage, wearing a spectacular headgear

CIVIL WAR DESTRUCTION IN DUBLIN. The battle waged by the Free State troops to drive the Republicans out of the Four Courts lasted several days. Note the damage done to the gateway

WHY NOT COPY his plan for reducing? John Philip Sousa keeps fit by pushing the roller

SNAPPED ON HIS BUSY DAY. Charlie Paddock making a flying finish. He broke five world's records at Santa Barbara, Calif.

BARON SCOTFORD, of Atlantic City, received his trunk shipped from London in 1914

AFTER IT WAS ALL OVER. Miss Salome Heulings (left), who went to the rescue of her chum, Miss Nancy Little (right) when a small yacht upset in the Cape May Harbor. Leonard Eyster is with them

JOSEPH J. BRADY, 2027 N. 82d st., drowned at Ocean City on Sunday

HAZEL JONES, Senator's daughter, motors from Washington to Seattle

MAJ. GEN. C. C. WILLIAMS, reappointed chief of ordnance, War Dept.

SAM BENNETT, chairman of the Golf Committee of the Philadelphia Shriners. He was in the battle against the Zumbo Temple, of Harrisburg

J. CONNELL, of 1020 Spruce street, urged city officials to "send bell" to Chicago

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS was at work in "Robin Hood" when John Drew called on the movie star at Los Angeles. Mr. Drew, when the same age as "Doug," portrayed same character on the stage

JOSEPH H. HAGEDORN talks of character rating in Editorial Page interview

Mile Dupont

Yvonne Drian

Genevieve Ronsay

FRANCE IS CONDUCTING A BEAUTY CONTEST to select a successor to Mile. Felix, who loses the title of "Mousse Montmartre" this year. Above are three candidates

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

DURING THE INDUSTRIAL PARADE. A part of the Constitutional Centennial celebration, held in this city during September, 1887. The brickmakers are passing the reviewing stand. Send us your old-Philadelphia photographs

CHICAGOANS FIGHTING FOR LIBERTY BELL. Dr. William S. Evans (left), of Pageant Committee, and J. Lewis Coath, chairman of the Board of Education

MRS. MITCHELL CARROLL, delegate of university women to Paris

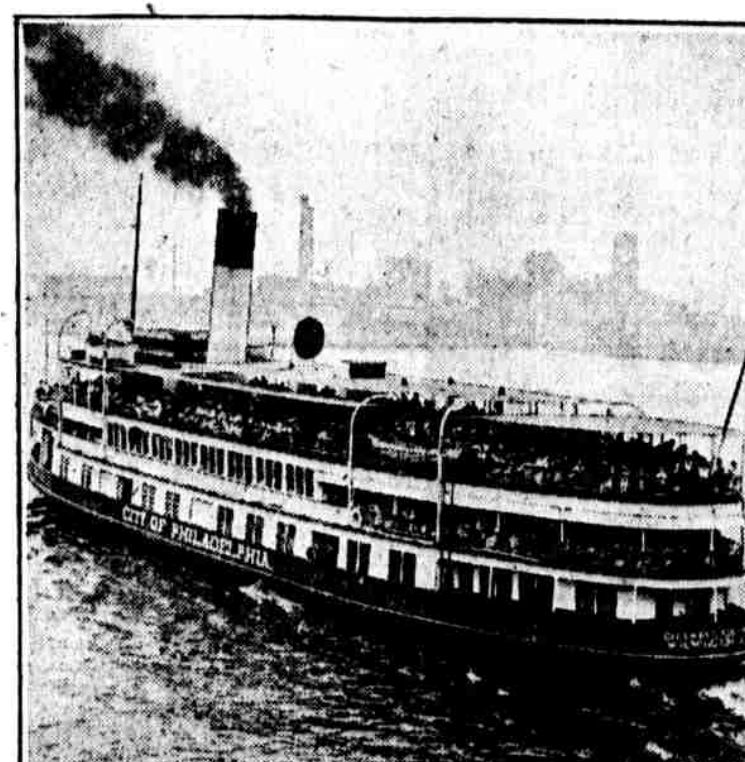

VISIT ANCESTRAL HOME OF GEORGE WASHINGTON. Chief Justice and Mrs. Taft at Sulgrave Manor, England. Ambassador George Harvey is wearing a hat of gray

BACK FROM ITALY. Violet Mesereau (left), the American "movie" star, and her sister Claire. Violet appeared in Italian pictures

THE JAPANESE BEETLE VS. THE GOVERNMENT. Two scenes at the experimental station at Riverton, N. J., where authorities are waging war against the alien insect pest. At the left is shown a cage in which the ravages of the beetle upon vegetation are observed; at the right a poisonous solution is being sprayed upon infected fruit trees

GUESTS OF THE SALVATION ARMY. Several hundred children and mothers from many sections of Philadelphia were taken down the Delaware River to Chester, and thence to the Salvation Army camp at Upland, by trolley. Billie Parker was well tagged

