

WOUNDED REPUBLICAN. He was taken from the Four Courts in Dublin, by the soldiery, after surrender to Free State Troops

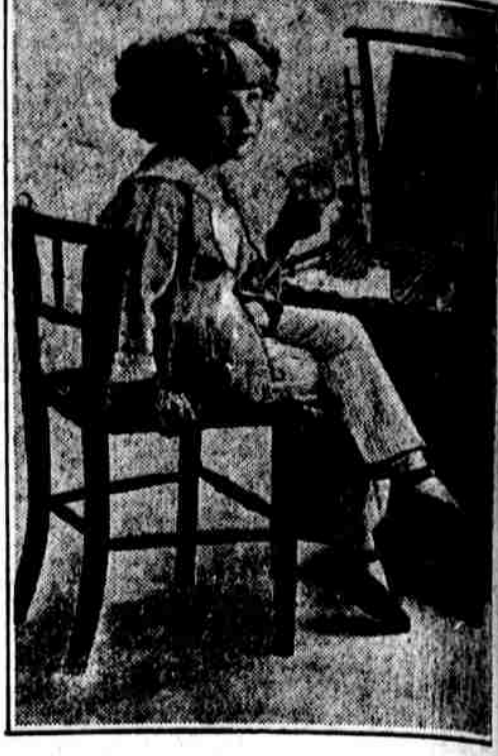

WRECKED BY SHELL-FIRE. The Four Courts and neighboring buildings in Dublin on fire as the Free State forces shell the Republican stronghold. Many were killed and injured

BACK FROM EUROPE'S PLAYGROUND. Pearl White had been in France a long time

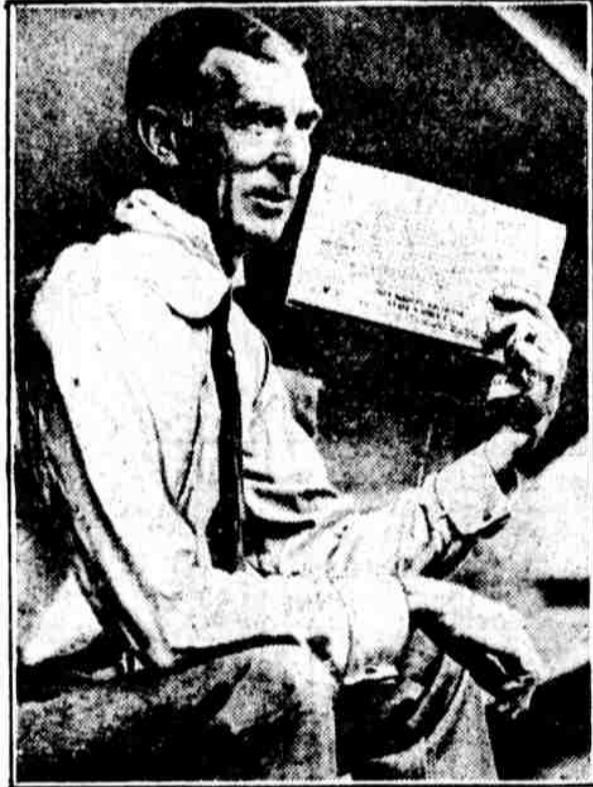

ELKS SAW THEM SWIM AND DIVE. Five expert swimmers who took part in the Atlantic City water frolic. Madge Brown, Ethel Perkins, Ethelda Bleibtrey, Mrs. C. J. Steiner and Dorothy Gould (left to right)

ANNOUNCES AMBITION OF HER LIFE. It's to vamp Jackie Coogan. The ambitious youth is Baby Gins, of the French movies

WHEN IT WAS 94. The drinking fountain in Jefferson Square did a big business during the heat yesterday

CONNIE MACK. The scorecard wigwagger in A's dugout

TILLIE WALKER and his six home-run bats. Twenty-one home-runs to date is his record

IT SURE WAS HOT. Alfred Chestnut's scorecard did "pinch-hit" duty as a fan

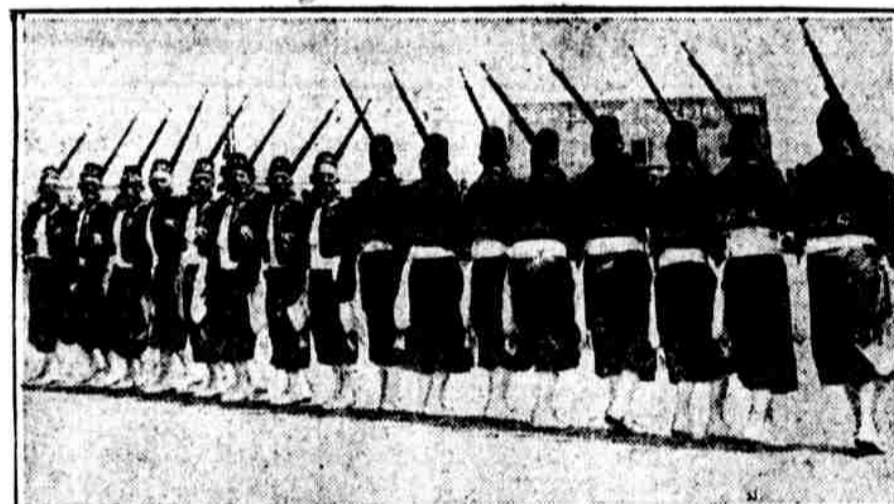

DANCED TO BAGPIPE MUSIC. There was plenty doing at Woodside Park as the Philadelphia Orangemen and their friends celebrated Battle of Boyne anniversary

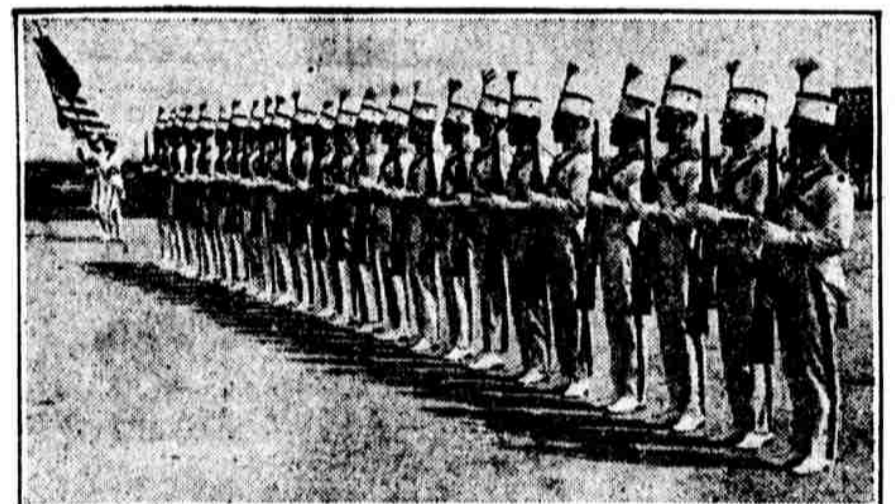

ON THEIR HONEYMOON. Mr. and Mrs. Graham Browne, married recently in London. The bride is known in stageland as Marie Tempest

JUDGE W. W. WARWICK, of Ohio, new assistant to Director of the Budget

THOUSANDS OF "HELLO BILLS" in drill contests. Elks from all States in the Union, attired in uniforms of many colors, did "right about face," "full turns," etc., as the competitions for the coveted prizes were conducted in Atlantic City. At the left is a group of Elks from Salt Lake City, Utah (right), attracted much attention

DR. WILHELM H. SOLF, German Ambassador to Japan, in New York

TO MARRY THIS MONTH. Lord Louis Mountbatten, aide-de-camp to the Prince of Wales, and England's richest girl, Miss Edwina Ashley

DR. CARL ZIESEL, Frankford, charged in Municipal Court with cruelty to his child Virginia

MRS. A. B. SPRECKELS, appointed special representative in the Department of Labor

"WHAT DO I CARE FOR HOT WAVES?" Thomas McFall, a six-months old resident of 5810 Knox street, having a good time at Woodside Park

MRS. DAVID C. COLLIER will accompany her husband, the U. S. Representative to Brazilian Exposition

CITY OF PHILADELPHIA A BENEFACTOR Scores of kiddy from congested sections taken into the country. Here are a few of them. They're at Camp Happy, Torresdale. The girls are good on the bars. The bugler is "Leut" MacDonnell

AN OUTFIELDER. Howard W. Gross, Jr., will be looked over by big league scouts. He sure can toss 'em

MRS. GEO. J. GOULD. Before her marriage, a few days ago, she was Mrs. Alice Sinclair

LIBERTY BELL RETURNING HOME IN 1895. Photograph was made at the Pennsylvania Railroad yard, Thirtieth and Market streets, just after the bell had been removed from a flat car. The bell had been in Charleston, S. C. Charles F. Gallen, 636 Filbert street, in charge of hauling the national relic, is the contributor

IN BERLIN. General Allen, commander of U. S. troops on Rhine, all "dressed up" as he does some sightseeing

FIFTEEN-YEAR-OLD BOY ON TRIAL FOR MURDER. The courtroom at Morristown, N. J., where Francis Kluxen (at the extreme lower left) is charged with the death of eleven-year-old Janet Lawrence

IT WAS GIRLS' SWIMMING DAY. That's why Pete Hicks was shedding tears