PROHIBITION and the # FEDERAL BONUS?

VOTE NOW

In the huge poll of 10,000,000 voters men and women-from every State in the Union, which The Literary Digest is taking upon the burning questions of Prohibition and a Soldiers' and Sailors' Bonus, marked ballots are being received by the "Digest" by the thousands and tens of thousands daily. Men and women voters in all ranks of life, and in every profession, business, and occupation, have received, by mail, secret ballots upon which they are indi-cating their wishes for or against Prohibition and a Federal Bonus. This "Digest" poll gives the first opportunity ever extended to the citizens of the United States to take part in a nation-wide vote on Pro-hibition and the Bonus. Whether you are "moist," or "wet," or "dry"; whether you are for or against a bonus to soldiers and sailors in the late war, if you have received one of the "Digest" ballots through the mail by all means mark and return it immediately so that your vote may be registered in this graphic presentation of public opinion upon these two great issues. There is no condition or obligation for voting, you do not have to sign your name to the ballot.

The poll is wholly non-partisan and is in harmony with the "Digest's" policy of presenting all angles of public opinion upon all important questions. The returns from the votes will speak for themselves. Each week during the coming months, these returns will be summarized and printed in the "Digest," State by State. With the approach of the Fall congressional elections this poll will be eagerly watched by political candidates eagerly watched by political candidates and by the public generally, as it will record in the most accurate manner the voice of American public opinion.

Read the First Returns in This Week's "Digest"

In addition to this great news-feature, this week's "Digest" contains many other news-articles that will interest its readers, such as Irish Bullets Ratify Irish Ballots-Why McCumber Was Retired -How the Railway Shopmen's Pay Compares With Their Wages in 1917 and in 1920; Are They Right or Is the Labor Board Right?—Facts About Sleep—A War Against Tight Shoes—Radio, etc., besides many Illustrations, including Humorous Cartoons.
