Father Mortillac, Who Vainly Tried to Save Spy, Is Found

Paris, July 17 .- (By A. P.) -Father Mortillac, the French monk reputed to have been the last lover of Mata Hari, the celebrated Dutch dancer who was executed by the French near the end of the war as a German spy, has been located in the Carthusian Mon-astery at Cartuja de Miraflores, Spain. Mortillac, who was prominent in French social circles, disappeared after a vain effort to save the woman about whom Vicente Blasco Ibanez wove his war romance "Mare Nostrum." While leading Carthusians deny that the monk has entered the order, it is

FIND STATE'S BIGGEST OAK

Tree In Huntingdon County Meas ures Thirty-nine Feet at Base

Harrisburg, July 17 .- (By A. P.)- feet, inspected a few days ago by Dr. J. S. Illich, chief of the Bureau of Research of the State Forestry Department, is believed to be the biggest oak in Pennsylvania. The tree was located by Forester T. Roy Norton, of Petersburg, on a farm owned by the Gregory estate of Mount Union and located near Neffs Mills, Hunringdon County.

Acorns from this tree will be collected by the forester and planted in State nurseries to raise young oaks of the same family.

Among other recent discoveries of big trees was a big pin oak found by Colonel in prayer and fasting.

JUST GOSSIP ABOUT PEOPLE

Nancy Wynne Tells of Philadelphians Who Spend the Summer on Western Ranches-She Sees Mrs. Geary and Her Debutante Daughter in Smart Costumes

larity each year for us Easterners, d once again "the season is on" out ere. Jean Riley has gone out to stay for a couple of months at the Bar B. C. Ranch, Jackson's Hole, Wyoming, which is owned by her uncle and aunt, the Struthers Burts. In fact, many of the delightful stories written by both of those charming persons those charming persons, Struthers Katherine Newlin Burt, have their

The Burts have been spending several winters in Bultimore, but once the spring comes, off they start for their ganch. And a great many interesting people go there for the summer, too, making it truly delightful.

Lorraine Disaton and the summer at the Judge and Mrs. Norris S. Barratt and their sons. Mr. Norris Barratt, and their daughter, Mrs. Edith L. Barratt, are spending the summer at their cottage at Cape May.

making it truly delightful.

Lorraine Disston and Anna Lewis, have gone to Jackson's Hole, though I understand they are not at the Burts'. Horace Disston, Lorraine's younger brother, and Jimmy Gittings went out with them. They are to stay until the first of August and then go to Northeast Harbor, where tings went out with them. They are to stay until the first of August and then go to Northeast Harbor, where Lorraine and Horace's parents, the Jacob Disstons, have their summer cot-

I hear that Price Wetherill, Jr .. and his son have a bungalow out on Bar H. C. Ranch for the summer, and the Clarence Wardens are there, too, in another bungalow.

I remember Peggy and Polly Thayer were out West last summer and Peggy won a prize for some remarkable stunt on horseback. Polly, by the way, is returning home by motor from Hot Bprings, where she and Hoff Dolan went on their wedding trip. They have been in Virginia ever since their wedding last

I saw "Bunny" Geary and her attractive mother, Mrs. Jack Geary, in town together one day last week:
They came back from Europe about a month ago, after having had a perpectly beautiful time traveling about for several months.

Bunny graduated from school when the was just a little more than sixteen the sixteen travel of the several months.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Duckworth, of 5859 Walton avenue, have left this city and opened their summer home in Chester Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Fernley Brooks and their daughter, Miss Heien Brooks, of 260 South Forty-fourth street, have opened their riverfront home at Jahand Heights.

she was just a little more than sixteen she was just a little more than sixteen rears of age, and so was too young to come out last season. But she will make her bow this fall, and with her own popularity and the Harrison and Geary relations there wi'l be many gay times. Bunny was wearing a frock of cregreen and orange on a black back-ground. The neck and sleeves were bound with deep orange and her sports hat was of natural-colored straw, fin-hat was of natural colored straw, ished with a brown band. With the frock she had a cape of orange wool, with collar and front of gray augora wool. With Bunny's dark brown hair wool. With Bunny's dark brown hair and bright dark-gray eyes the costume was most fetching. Bunny's hair, by the way, is not bobbed, and she wears it becomingly drawn back from her face into a knot just above the nape of the neck. The fad for bobbed hair is fast going, and most of the smartest girls who will be introduced this year have long hair. Bunny (her real name is Mary, in-

Bunny (her real name is Mary, incidentally) is to be introduced at a garden party at the Gearys' Chestnut Hill home on October 14. Mary plays and sings very well and is interested in spending some time at Atlantic City. painting; she does some exquisite work on china and glass.

There was one decidedly French touch to Bunny's get-up. It was her shoes. She was wearing patent leather French sandals, and they were trimmed with cut-steel buckles and had the cutest littie tassels hanging from each shoe. They were fetching and entirely new on Fifteenth street. this side of the water.

Mrs. Geary was wearing a pale gray crepe net blouse and skirt and a sports hat of the same color, trimmed with two quills. Her cape was of the same material and color.

CORTUNATELY for those of us who love children, the "enfant terrible" is still muchly in existence. Can you magine father's feelings the other evening when Jimmie, aged seven, who was allowed to stay up for an hour after supper because the Rev. Mr. T- (an ardent Prohibitionist) was there, spoke up while ginger ale and lemonade were being served and said: "Oh, dad, why don't you give him some real stuff, like you have in the cellar?"

NANOY WYNNE.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

Mr. and Mrs. George D. Widener, of this city and New York, entertained at dinner yesterday at their villa, Mid-cliffe, at Newport. There were twenty

Mr. and Mrs. P. Williamson Roberts, of Bella Vista, Villanova, who are oc-cupying their summer home. Southside, Narragansett avenue, Newport, also en-teriained at dinner last evening.

An autumn wedding of much interest will be that of Miss Eleanor Peals Davis, daughter of Mrs. Charles Gibbons Davis, of Chestnut Hill, and Mr. Charles H. Roberts, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Roberts, of Flushing, L. I., which will take place in November.

Miss Norma Grey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Grey, of 1830 Pine street, will make her debut at a tea to be given by her parents on December 15. Mr. and Mrs. Grey and their family are occupying a house at Haverford for the summer.

Miss Elizabeth Aston Voorhees, daughter of Mrs. S. Stockton Voorhees, of Washington, D. C., who has been visiting her cousin, Miss Mary Morton Stewardson, of Evergreen and Montgomery avenues, Chestnut Hill, returned to her home on Saturday. The engagement of Miss Voorhees and Lieutenant Julian Meredith MacMillan, U. S. A., son of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. MacMillan, of this city, has recently been announced.

Colonel and Mrs. John S. Muckle, of 1023 Walnut street, will leave on Wednesday next for Banff Springs, Northwest Canada, where they will remain the rest of the summer.

Mrs. Joseph E. Widener, of Lynne-wood Hall, Elkins Fark, and her mother, Mrs. Albert Pancoast, of the Aldine, who left on July 19 for Santa Barabara, Calif. will return to this city in August. Mr. Widener is at present in Europe.

Mr. J. Horace Harding, of New York, salled for Europe on Saturday on the Olympic. He will join Mrs. Harding and their sons, Lieutenant Charles B. Harding and Mr. Barclay Harding, and their daughter, Miss Laura Harding, who are now in France. Mr. Harding and his family expect to return to Rumson, N. J., about the end of September. Mrs. Harding is the daughter of Mr. Charles D. Barney, of Elidon, Ogontz.

Mrs. B. Dobson Altemus. Miss Mary Elizabeth Altemus and Mr. James D. Altemus, of the Falls of Schuylkill, left for Wernersville last week, where they will remain until August 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Snowden Samuel, of 2022 Locust street spent the week-end at Cape May as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Bell, Jr., of Wynnewood, at their cottage there.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Rosengarten, of Falcondale, Chestnut Hill, have gone to Northeast Harbor, Me., where they will spend the summer.

Mrs. Robert Glendinning and her son.
Mr. Robert Glendinning, Jr., of the Squirrels, Chestaut Hill, will shortly return to this city from a motor trip to York Harbor, Me.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Kearsley Mitchell Harrison, of Meeting House road, Ogonts, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Churchman, of Jenkintown; will leave on August 1 for Biddeford Pool,

THE Western ranches grow in popu- Me., where they will remain until the middle of September.

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Barkile, of Inver House, Wayne, will shortly leave for Narragansett Pier, R. I., where they will spend a few weeks before occupying their cottage at Saratoga, N. Y., for the remainder of the summer. Mr. and Mrs. W. Standley Stokes and their family, of Wissahickon avenue and Carpenter street, Germantown, will spend the remainder of the summer at the Glades Club, Cohasset, Mass.

Mr. and Mrs. David E. Simon, of the St. James Annex, are at Atlantic City for the summer.

West Philadelphia

Mr. E. M. Malpass, president of the Centennial National Bank, of 4318 Spruce street, has returned to his home after spending some time at the Hotel Shelburne, Atlantic City, where he en-tertained friends at several dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Curtin Hirsh, of 2135 South Forty-sixth street, are spending some time near Port Jervis, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Fernley Brooks and their daughter, Miss Helen Brooks, of 260 South Forty-fourth street, have mened their riverfront home at Island Heights, N. J., where they will remain until after Labor Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Kaercher, Jr., who were married June 1 in St. Stephen's Lutheran Church, Fortieth street and Powelton avenue, have returned from their wedding trip and are at home at 5034 Walton avenue. Mrs. Kaercher will be remembered as Miss Irma R. Becker.

Mr. and Mrs. William Boyd, of 4102 Baltimore avenue, have left for Sunset Park, Wernersville, where they will remain several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Conner, of 4337 Saltimore avenue, have returned from storara Hall, Rowlandsville, Md., their country home, and, with their two chil-dren, have gone to Narragansett Pier for the remainder of the season.

Mrs. J. D. Beetem has returned to her home at 4518 Pine street after being the guest of Dr. and Mrs. H. A. Spangler at their home in Carlisle. Mrs. Beetem's mother, who spent several months in this city, has returned to her home in Meridan, Tex.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence A. Kohn, of the Hotel Majestic, are spending the summer at a beachfront hotel in At-

Mr. William McCann, of Seattle, Wash, will leave today for his home after spending a fortnight as the guest of Mr. H. W. Loftus, of 1824 North Miss Elenor Smith, of 4519 North Carlisle street, is spending a few days as the guest of friends in Bethayres. Mr. and Mrs. John H. Price, of Merare motoring to Cam Oneika, in the Poconos, where they will remain for a short while.

Miss Teresa C. Loftus, of 1824 North Fifteenth street, is spending a month in New York State, stopping for a few days in Buffalo.

South Philadelphia

Miss Rose McLaughlin, of 2133 South Nineteenth street, has gone to Boston, where she will remain for a fortnight. Miss A. V. Thomas and Miss Elizabeth Thomas, of 1721 Mifflin street, are tour-ing through Massachusetts. Before re-turning home they will visit friends in Fall River and New York. Mrs. Eckfield and her family, of 1723 Mifflin street, have gone to Wildwood, where they will remain until Labor Day.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Chestnut, of 2104 South Woodstock street, are enjoying the season at their summer cottage in Wild-Mr. Harry Asbury, of 1713 Ritner street, will motor to Wildwood today, where he will remain for three weeks.

Miss Helen Shertz was the guest of Miss Catherine G. Boyle, of 1317 Wolf street, at her summer home on Red Bank ave-nue, Red Bank, N. J., the early part of last week. Friends of Mrs. H. W. Narr. of 2124 South Broad street, will be glad to learn that she is recuperating from a recent

Miss Helen Kelly, of 2625 South Seventeenth street, has returned to her home after spending a fortnight at the Po

Mrs. Ann Rhodes and her two daughters, Misa Elizabeth D. Rhodes and Miss Mary Rhodes, of 1228 Fillmore street, are spending a month in Ventnor.

Germantown

Mr. and Mrs. John Hudson, 2d, of Germantown avenue and Washington lane, are on a motor trip to Buffalo and

Engaged

MISS MIRIAM E. SCHULTZ Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schultz, of the Delmar-Morris Apartments, Germantown, whose engagement to Mr. George Washington Mosser, Jr., has recently been announced

Mary Geary. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John White Geary, of Chestnut Hill. who will make her debut at a garden party on October 14. Miss Geary will leave

Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz and their family, of 502 Allen lane, are spending the summer at their camp on Saranac Lake, N. Y.

Miss Gertrude Manning, or Harvey street, is spending several weeks as the guest of Miss Mathilda Royer at her parents' cottage on South Boston ave-nue, Atlantic City.

Mrs. William Coupe and her daugh-ter, Miss Bessie Coupe, of 632 East Chelten avenue, are spending the sum-mer at Ocean City.

Delaware County

Mrs. Robert G. Gilfillan and her daughter, Miss Kathleen Gilfillan, of Swarthmore, accompanied by Miss Eleanor Morley, of Cheater, will leave shortly for Dingmans Ferry, where they will spend a fornight.

Miss Helen Davenport, of Lansdowne, is the guest of Miss Mildred Hardiman at her home in Wyoming. N. J., for a month. During August Miss Davenport will go to Ithaca, N. Y., where she will attend the summer school at Cornell University.

Mrs. Culver Boyd and her children, who have been guests of Mrs. Boyd's family in Providence, R. I., will return by motor to their home in Lansdowne

Norristown

The marriage of Miss Carrie Mae Bergey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Bergey, of 220 Forest avenue, and Mr. Charles Wolff, of Philadelphia, took place on Saturday in the Evansberg Methodist church. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin and chantilly lace. Her veil was of tulle, held with white rosebuds. She carried a shower bouquet of illies of the valley. Miss Viola Bergey, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bridesmaids, also sisters of the bride, were Miss Mabel Bergey and Mrs. Elmer Gottschall. Miss Mabel Bergey and Mrs. Florence Bergey was ring bearer. The best man was the Rev. Charles Weller, of Pottstown, and the ushers included Mr. Elwood Young, of Conshohocken, and Mr. Paul Wendle, of Philadelphia. A reception followed at the home of the bride after the ceremony. Upon their return from a wedding trip to New York and Niagara Falls, Mr. and Mrs. Wolff will live at 1320 Belfield avenue, Philadelphia.

Mrs. Harry Porter, of $19 West For-

Mrs. Harry Porter, of 319 West For-nance street, entertained the members of her card club on Thursday. Mrs. Porter, who before her recent marriage was Miss Janet Jablow, was given a surprise mis-cellaneous shower. The guests included

Little Benny's Note Book

By Lee Pape

Pop started to put on his full dress soot wen he came home yestidday on account of having to go to a bankwit, me going up to his room to watch him in case enything speshil happened. Wich nuthing did and I started to ask him questions sutch as wat he thawt they would have to eat at the bankwit and sippose they dident have enuff for everybody and sippose he dropped something on his full dress shert sutch as loose

Pop jest leeving me ask them with-out ansering them on account of him being so bizzy trying to tie his wite tie, wich after he tied it he sed, How does this tie look, Benny, is it strate? Part of it is, I sed, and he sed, Part of it wat kind of an answer is that? And he pulled the ends some more to make it strater, saying, Now I've got it too confowned tite, but I wouldent untie it agen for a million dollars, more

And he went down stairs on his way out and ma sed, Willyum you look jest like a avvertizement but my goodniss your tie is crooked, let me fix it for you. And she pulled the ends some more, pop saying, Owtch, it was tite enuff before but youre trying to strangle

Nonsents, you imagine it, ma sed pulling the ends some more, and pop sed, All rite then, if this thing cheaks me to deth at the bankwit jest rite on my oom stone, Pass on, he ony imagines it. Wat a thawt, sed ma. There, it couldent look eny better, she sed, and pop sed, It couldent feel eny worse. Wich jest then my sister Gladdis came in saying, O father arent you hansome but for goodniss sakes let me pull your tie

Hands off, keep away, good by, pop sed. And he quick put on his hat and coat, Gladdis saying, But father your tie is crooked, and pop saying, Thats not my tie, its my neck, your mother did it.

And he quick went out.

Canada. They will return by way of Lake George and the Catskill Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Schwartz and their

Miss Mollie Pearl, Miss Mary Mann, Miss Sarah Cohen, Miss Frieda Fox, Miss Sara Jaffe, Mrs. Jacob Goldberg and Miss Bella Chatlin.

Moorestown

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stockwell, of East Maple avenue, will spend several weeks at a camp in Maine.

Mrs. William T. Walker and her family, of Eastbourne terrace, are spending the summer at Norway, Me.

Miss Dorothy Warden will spend two yeeks with her parents at Beach Haven, Miss Emma Salter, of Franklin ave-nue, will spend several weeks in Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Berger, of 716 West Marshall street, have returned from a trip to California and other points of interest.

Henry W. Shoemaker in Juniata County on land owned by J. W. Lindsey. This oak is 200 years old and is 150 feet high, being twenty and a half feet in circumference and four and a half feet above the ground. Colonel Shoemaker also found near the Boone cabin in Oley Valley, Berks County, two big groves of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Klonin, of 136 white onks in the State.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Crowell, of East Main street, have gone to Seaside Park

West Main street, are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Rosalind Klonin, on July 13. white onks believed to be the largest

There is one spot in Philadelphia where pedestrians have respite from the honk of motor horns. It is a place famous for its beautiful scenery. Nature lovers will enjoy reading about this place in the Magazine Section of the Sunday Public Ledges. "Make It a Habit."—Adv. Mr. and Mrs. William H. Slingluff, of 800 West Main street, have gone to Loon Lake, N. Y., where they will remain for some time.

Don't Experiment

with new-fangled "beautifiers" which may ruin the complexion when you can get Liewellyn's time-tested Skin Food for 350 a tube or $1 a jar—a delightful preparation which harmlessly cleanses, softens and nourishes even the most delicate skin. At your own drug store or from

LLEWELLYN'S Phila phia's Standard Drug Store 1518 Chestnut Street

Garden Memories Talcung, 25c

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Wilson and their family, of Lansdowne, are spending the summer at Ocean City.

Dresses—Drastic Reductions

DRESSES, formerly to 16.50, now 7.50 DRESSES, formerly to 25.00, now 10.75 DRESSES, formerly to 45.00, now 19.50 DRESSES, formerly to 59.50, now 25.00

Capes: Final Clearance Roshanara and Canton Crepe. Many Fur-trimmed Formerly 25.00 to 125.00; Now 16.50 to 69.50

Reductions in Juniors' Summer Dresses JUNIORS' DRESSES, formerly to 5.00, now 2.50) For ages JUNIORS' DRESSES, formerly to 10.00, now 4.95 1 2 to 16

We Specialize in Apparel That Slenderizes the Larger Woman

J.B. Sheppard & Sons

SMART NECKWEAR

For the Summer Costume

Collar and Cuff Sets, -50c Round or Tuxedo neck. Plain organdy or eyelet embroidery. Value $1.00

> Vestees with Cuffs, $1.00 set Round or Tuxedo neck.

Bandings and Vestings Some embroidered, others of real lace. A "ready-made" trimming for the summer dress

Summer-weight Scarfs

Black crepe de chine lined with Alice blue, Copen. white, tan or gold. Fringed ends. $5.75 and $7.50 Fibre Silk in Roman stripes. $5.00 to $7.50 Feather-weight Wool in brilliant colorings.

$5.00 and $6.50

Store Closed Saturdays During July and August 1008 Chestnut Street

MATA HARI'S LAST LOVER IN SPANISH MONASTERY

After-Dinner Tricks

affirmed in authoritative quarters that he is in the Spanish monastery at-tempting to bury his sorrow for his

A hat is placed bottom up on the ost love. The woman also was known floor and some one is asked to drop a As Marguerite Zell.

Mortillac is said to have been heartwill investibly shoot away from the broken when he discovered that Mata Hari was a German spy. Afterward he learned that she had a husband, a Scottish officer, who married her in Java, taking her from a Buddhist temple, where she was a devear and that ple, where she was a dancer, and that he died of grief in Scotland after he had discovered her in Paris and was unable to persuade her to leave a German to whom she had become attached. Mortillac is said to be passing his time in prayer and fasting. card is held flat, as in the illustration. it will flutter straight downward and

GOES TO CHINA TO WED

Miss Farles, Chestnut Hill, Starts Miss Faries, Chestnut Hill, Starts
for Canton to Meet Fiance
Miss Elizabeth Faries, 7806 Cresheim road, Chestnut Hill, will be married to

With VERA CURTIS, Soprano
Today—4:30 & 9:45, VERA CURTIS, Soprano
T A bur oak tree measuring thirty-nine ect nine inches at the ground, eightyfour feet high and with a spread of 106

Dr. E. C. Howe, Pittsburgh, who is a teacher in a boys' school in Canton China, upon her arrival there.

China, upon her arrival there.

Accompanied by her brother, H. G.
Farles, and Miss Helen Marr, the young missionary is on her way to San Francisco, from where she and Miss Marr will sail July 22 for Canton to take up their work of teaching in the True Light Seminary. Mr. Farles, who was recently graduated from Princeton Theological Seminary, will go to Peking to engage in missionary work.

Miss Farles has been connected for Miss Faries has been connected for five years with the True Light Semi-

Send a flowergram

CHARLES HENRY FOX The Sign of the Rose 221 S. Broad St. Walnut 0799

at the Corner of Ridge Avenue, Wisse blekon Farkway and Fairmount Park Car 61 Steps in Front of Our Door SECOND BIG WEEK

Four Concerts Daily, 3, 4:45, 8 & 10 P.M. WILLOW GROVE PARK

George Allen, Inc.
1214—Chestnut Street—1214

An Inexpensive Summer Hat Has Many Uses

Particularly when it is as attractive as those in our collection of trimmed and sports hats. Just the hats you will need for

Trimmed Hats, $3.00 up

Sports Hats, $2.00 up

Vestees and Collars Reduced to 50c

Lisle Vests, 3 for $1.00

and Union Suits at $1.10

Excellent Values in Men's Linen

Hemstitched Handkerchiefs

Odds and Ends of Laces at Half Price

Heavy Turkish Bath Towels, 50c each and Wash Cloths, 2 for 25c weave, are the best towels we know of for wear and service.

The Larger Size is all white. A slightly smaller sizes comes with pink, blue or yellow borders. They can be had in regular or soft finish. Special at 50c each, 6 for $2.75.

Office or Hand Towels, 18c Grade at 10c

These towels are slightly smaller than guest towels and are used variously by doctors, dentists and business men in their offices and are taken by many people on their vacations. They are useful little towels and a distinct bargain at 10c each.

The wash cloths are of unusually large size, closely woven, and have crocheted edges. They have loops to hang them up by when wet. 15c each, 2 for 25c.

each, $4.00 a dozen; 50c each, $5.50 a dozen.

Men's hemstitched Irish linen handkerchiefs at 25c each, $2.75 a dozen; at 35c each, $4.00 a dozen, and at 50c each, $5.50

Linen hemstitched handkerchiefs with any initial desired, 35c

Odds and ends of edgings and insertions in Cluny, Venise

These full large size Turkish bath towels in a close, sturdy

A new shipment of lisle vests, regular or bodice tops, 35c

Women's lisle union suits, tight or loose knee, regular or bodice tops, $1.10 each, extra sizes, $1.25.

These are some of the collars and vestees remaining from our sale of the Lewis stock. Were they not slightly soiled, they would be well worth the original prices of $1.00-$3.00. Now only

Wassili Leps and His Orchestra

BARNET GARDEN

CREATORE AND BANK OF ARTISTS AND SOLOISTS in

GLOBE JUNIPER AND MARKET

CROSS KEYS 60TH & MARKET MAE DESMOND AND PLAYERS
WED. SAT. 2:15
WED. SAT. 2:15
WED. SAT. 2:15
WED. SAT. 9:15

EITH'S THEATRE LOU TELLEGEN JACK ROSE: FRED BERNARD & SID GARRY: OTHERS—AND

ALDINE Direction M. E. Felt Chestnut St. at 19th Contin. 11 A.M. to 11 P.M. THE ISLE OF ZORDA

The Dessert That Saved Betty's Party

"Betty wants me to give a party and lumpy, and ice cream is so

"It makes a wonderful creamy mold of dessert. Costs 15c a box, and one box of Puddine serves 15 people, or 10c box, seven people."
"Is it hard to make?"

some home-made ice cream. Pud-dine makes ice cream as smooth as velvet. And not only that, but for cakes and pies Puddine makes for cakes and pies Puddine makes a wonderful filling."

Some time later the two friends met. "I've been waiting to call you up," exclaimed Mrs. Ford. "Puddine is wonderful. I had the party for Betty, and I don't know when I have seen children enjoy anything as much as they did that Puddine. I had enough left over for supper that night, and Henry

THE HOME OF

000000

Bundhar Wilton

"DURABLE AS IRON"

End-Season

Clearance Sale All Summer Rugs

An exceptional money-saving opportunity to furnish your porch, room or home for this and succeeding years. Our entire stock is offered at

Very Substantial Reductions From Regular Prices

Colonial Rag Rugs, Japanese Rush Porch Rugs (including oval shapes), Prairie Grass Rugs, Fiber Rugs, Algerian Porch Rugs, etc., etc. All Wanted Graves, Colorings, Sizes

1220 MARKET ST.

Mr. Barnes of New York' FROM PLAY OF SAME NAME

PALACE 12TH AND MARKET 9:45 A. M. to 11 P. M. THE MAN UNCONQUERABLE

ARCADIA 16TH AND CHESTNUT WANDA "TRUTHFUL LIAR"

VICTORIA NINTH AND MARKET DUSTIN FARNUM "STRANGE IDOLS" CAPITOL STH AND MARKET BETTY COMPSON AND "OVER THE BORDER"

VAUDEVILLE WROE'S BUDS OF 1922

ONA MUNSON & CO.

ADDED THE LEATHER PUSHERS"

"Betty wants me to give a party for her on her sixth birthday next week." sighed Mrs. Ford, "and I just dread to think about it."

"I know just how you feel," sympathized her neighbor.

"It is so hard," she continued,
"to know what to have for refresh-ments that won't hurt them. Custards are no treat for them, my cornstarch puddings are always thin expensive."

"Have you thought about having Puddine?" questioned her neighbor.
"My children love it, and it's so pure and wholesome."

"What is Puddine?"

"It makes a wonderful creamy

"Is it hard to make?"
"That's the nice part about Puddine," replied her neighbor, enthusiastically. "It always turns out right, and it is not a bit of trouble to make. All you need do is to add milk, either fresh or condensed, and sugar and bott for three minutes. Pour it into a mold and after it has accept and after it has cooled you have a firm, smooth mold of delicious dessert — chocolate, rose, vanilla, orange, lemon—in fact, whatever you like best, for Fuddine comes in a number of flavors."

"I've a mind to try it, and let Betty have her party, after all," said Mrs. Ford.

"As a matter of fact," suggested her friend, "you could have some home-made ice cream. Pud-for supper that night, and Henry said he had never tasted such delicious dessert.

Order some Puddine with to-day's groceries!—Adv.

HARDWICK & MAGEE CO.