

JOHN MULLIGAN, butler, tried to overpower chef, who stabbed him with the ice pick

DR. LEWIS BRINTON who hurried to the hospital after Mrs. Brinton had been attacked by the Japanese

THE BRINTONS' SUMMER HOME. It is at Rosemont and is the property of Eckley B. Cox. The police found the house on fire, and were forced to go through the smoke to the third floor before taking their prisoner

PATROLMAN ISAAC SMITH (left), Cady Sakmai, chef, and Patrolman Hatch. Hatch was overcome by smoke when he tried to reach the Japanese

SERGEANT WILMER N. CLEMENT, who found the chef on the third floor

MRS. LEWIS BRINTON is in the Bryn Mawr Hospital. Cady Sakmai, Mrs. Brinton's Japanese chef, is in custody charged with stabbing her. The attack was the outgrowth of a dispute over the wearing of a white coat. Mrs. Brinton asked the Japanese to wear the coat in the kitchen. He argued that the weather was too warm for a coat. Sakmai set fire to the Brinton home after the stabbing

FREE STATE RIFLEMEN used a hole in the wall of an unoccupied building in routing snipers. The building was damaged by gunfire

LENA FAGEN, of the McKinley School, champion of girl hopscochers

JOE SIMPSON in action. He finished second. Joe represented Girard school. They took part in the junior elimination finals of Philadelphia hop scotch championship at McKinley school playground

I. GOLDBERG, Leidy playground. Beat uptown boy hopscocher

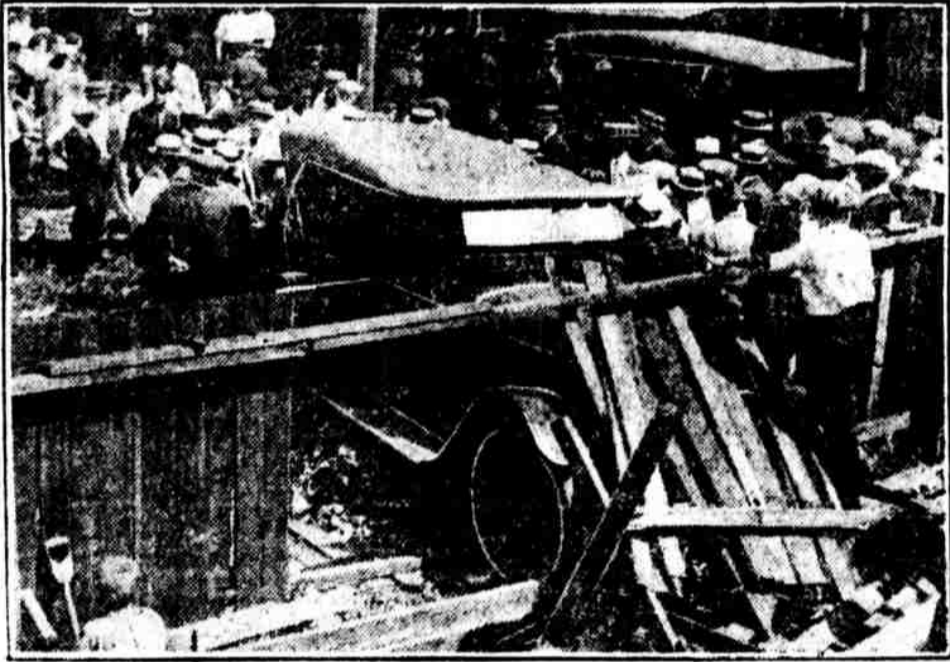

ONE OF OCEAN CITY'S LIFE GUARDS. Douglas Crate, a Lafayette College student, is a speedy swimmer. He's No. 18

TONY DUKE at Southampton, L. I., where his mother, Mrs. C. E. Duke, is spending summer

MRS. W. E. BOUAST, of Carlinville, Ill., only turf driver of her sex in the United States

CHICAGO POLICE AND ROBBERS IN STREET BATTLE. One of the bandits was killed and a policeman badly injured. The car in which the robbers were riding went through the fence after the chauffeur had been shot

GET ON THE RIGHT SIDE AND STAY THERE. But the right side of London sidewalks is the left side. A crusade is on to regulate pedestrians

HOW ANITA TOOK THE SLIDE. "Gracefully" is right. Miss Anita Stewart, film star, attended a Chinese fete given by society women at Bay Shore, Long Island

SIR RICHARD SQUIRES is going to England for vacation. He is Prime Minister of Newfoundland

ARTHUR E. RENDLE talks of public golf courses in Editorial Page interview

DR. FRANCIS X. DERCUM, of Philadelphia, aboard the Olympic, on his way to Europe

MISS ESTHER ROWLAND was knitting as she watched an interesting tennis match at Merion

LILLIAN ERBE is one of the Philadelphia swimmers who enjoy a dip at Pleasant Hill Park

SPEEDING AFTER THE BALL. The Bryn Mawr polo four journeyed to Rumson, N. J., to meet the Rumson Country Club polo team

HOW DO YOU LIKE IT? An English bather wearing a novel suit at Brighton Beach

MISS ELIZABETH SANDS, of New York, is passing the summer at Newport

GERALD DEMPSEY finds time for polo as he summers at Narragansett Pier

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

THE NORTHWEST CORNER OF TENTH STREET AND GIRARD AVENUE, as it looked in 1890. The photograph was contributed by Mrs. Thomas H. Sieber, 1019 Girard avenue. Send your old-time Philadelphia views to the EVENING PUBLIC LEDGER

RAYMOND W. PUTNAM, of Massachusetts, was sentenced to spend two nights in a horse's stall, for cruelty

THE SESQUI-CENTENNIAL DIRECTORS IN SESSION. The camera clicked as Jules Mastbaum (standing) nominated Edward Bok for president. At Mr. Mastbaum's right is Judge Bonniwell; back of speaker, Councilman Hall

RAYMOND C. NEWLIN, held in $25,000 bail for court, in Coatesville National Bank embezzlement

REHEARSING FOR THE FIRST CONCERT. Victor Kolar directed his men at the Lemon Hill pavilion, as they went over the program which was presented last evening